In computing the tax against which the credit is taken there must, for years beginning after December 31, 1939, and before January 1, 1943, be excluded the tax, if any, imposed by section 102, and for years beginning after December 31, 1942, there must be excluded both the tax imposed by section 102 and the tax imposed by section 450.

(D) By inserting in the third paragraph from the end immediately after "December 31, 1940," the following: "and before January 1, 1942".

(E) By adding at the end thereof the following:

For years beginning after December 31, 1941, the deduction, under section 202 of the Revenue Act of 1941, amending section 23 (c), of excess profits tax imposed by subchapter E of chapter 2 is not allowed in the computation of net income for the purposes of chapter 1. However, in the determination of normal-tax net income, there is allowed as a credit against the adjusted net income the amount of income subject to the tax imposed by subchapter E of chapter 2. (Section 13 (a) (2), as amended by section 105 of the Revenue Act of 1942.) It is, therefore, provided in section 131 (b), as amended by section 158 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1942, that in the case of a domestic corporation the amount of the credit with respect to the tax paid or accrued to any country shall not exceed the same proportion of the tax imposed by chapter 1 which the corporation's net income from sources within such country bears to the entire normal-tax net income of such corporation computed without the allowance of the credit for adjusted excess profits net income. Hence, the total amount of the credit shall not exceed the same proportion of the tax imposed by chapter 1 which the corporation's net income from sources without the United States bears to the entire normal-tax net income computed without the allowance of the credit for adjusted excess profits net income. These principles may be illustrated by the following:

Example. The following facts exist for the calendar year 1942 with respect to the A Corporation which makes its income tax return on the calendar year basis:

Normal-tax net income (computed without the credit for adjusted excess profits net income)	$250,000
Less: Adjusted excess profits net income	75,000
Normal-tax net income (after credit for adjusted excess profits net income)	175,000
Net income from Country A	160,000
Foreign tax paid on Country A income	35,000
Total normal tax and surtax	70,000

COMPUTATION OF FOREIGN TAX CREDIT FOR PURPOSES OF NORMAL TAX AND SURTAX

Amount allowable as a credit $28,000

In the event that net income is derived from more than one foreign country or possession of the United States, the limitation provided in section 131 (b) (2) shall be applied based upon the taxpayer's net income from sources without the United States and the entire normal-tax net income of the corporation computed without the credit for adjusted excess profits net income.

§ 19.214–1 Credits to nonresident alien individuals—(a) No United States business or office—(1) General rule. In general, a nonresident alien individual not engaged in trade or business in the United States (or, for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, not engaged in trade or business in the United States and not having an office or place of business therein) at any time during the taxable year is not allowed any credits under section 25, the tax being imposed upon the amount of gross income received.

(2) Aggregate more than $15,400 ($23,000 for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940, and before January 1, 1942, $24,000 for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1939, and before January 1, 1941, and $21,600 for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1940). In the case of a nonresident alien individual (other than a resident of Canada) not engaged in trade or business within the United States (or, for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having an office or place of business therein) at any time during the taxable year and deriving in such year gross amount of fixed or determinable annual or periodical income from sources within the United States of more than $15,400 ($23,000 for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940, and before January 1, 1942, $24,000 for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1939, and before January 1, 1941, and $21,600 for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1940) credits allowed are those applicable in the case of nonresident alien individuals engaged in trade or business within the United States (or, for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, engaged in trade or business within the United States or having an office or place of business therein).

(b) United States business or office. In the case of a nonresident alien individual who at any time within the taxable year was engaged in trade or business within the United States (or, for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, was engaged in trade or business within the United States or had an office or place of business therein) the personal exemption allowed as a credit against net income by section 25 (b) (1) shall, except in the case of a resident of a contiguous country, be $500 ($750 for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940, and before January 1, 1942, $800 for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1939, and before January 1, 1941, and $1,000 for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1940), whether such alien is a single person, a married person living with husband or wife, or the head of a family. However, in the case of a resident of Canada or Mexico the same personal exemption as in the case of a citizen of the United States applies on the basis of reciprocity. If, therefore, it is established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the individual is married and living with husband or wife or is the head of a family, as the case may be, the personal exemption pertaining to such status will be applicable, provided that the country of which the individual is a resident, allows a citizen of the United States not residing in such country, and who is married and living with husband or wife or is the head of a family, the same personal exemption as is allowed by such country to its own citizens who occupy such status. The credit for dependents provided by section 25 (b) (2) is allowed to nonresident alien individuals who at any time within the taxable year were engaged in trade or business within the United States (or, for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, were engaged in trade or business within the United States or had an office or place of business therein) only if they are residents of Canada or Mexico. If the status of the taxpayer as to dependents changes during the taxable year, the credit for dependents shall be determined as provided in § 19.25–7.

PAR. 31. Section 19.215–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5086, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out "and not having an office or place of business therein" wherever occurring therein and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(or, for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having an office or place of business therein)".

PART 19—INCOME TAX UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

CREDIT FOR DIVIDENDS PAID ON CERTAIN PREFERRED STOCK

In order to conform Regulations 103 [Part 19, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup.] to section 133 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress), approved October 21, 1942, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.26–1 the following:

SEC. 133. CREDIT FOR DIVIDENDS PAID ON CERTAIN PREFERRED STOCK. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Section 26 is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(h) Credit for dividends paid on certain preferred stock.

(1) Amount of credit. In the case of a public utility, the amount of dividends paid during the taxable year on its preferred stock. The credit provided in this subsection shall be subtracted from the basic surtax credit provided in section 27.

(2) Definitions. As used in this subsection and section 15 (a)—

(A) Public utility. The term "public utility" means a corporation engaged in the furnishing of telephone service or in the sale of electric energy, gas, or water, if the rates for such furnishing or sale, as the case may be, have been established or approved by a State or political subdivision thereof or by an agency or instrumentality of the United States or by a public utility or public service commission or other similar body of the District of Columbia or of any State or political subdivision thereof.

(B) Preferred stock. The term "preferred stock" means stock issued prior to October 1, 1942, which during the whole of the taxable year (or the part of the taxable year after its issue) was stock the dividends in respect of which were cumulative, limited to the same amount, and payable in preference to the payment of dividends on other stock.

PAR. 2. There is inserted immediately following § 19.26–4 the following:

§ 19.26–5 Credit for dividends paid on preferred stock of public utilities. The credit provided in section 26 (h) is an amount equal to the dividends paid during the taxable year by certain public utility corporations on certain classes of preferred stock. As used in this section, the term public utility means a corporation engaged in the furnishing of telephone service, or in the sale of electric energy, gas, or water if the rates charged by such corporation for such furnishing or sale, as the case may be, have been established or approved by a State or political subdivision thereof or by an agency or instrumentality of the United States or by a public utility or public service commission or other similar body of the District of Columbia or of any State or political subdivision thereof. If a schedule of rates has been filed with any of the above bodies having the power to disapprove such rates, then such rates shall be considered as established or approved rates even though such body has taken no action on the filed schedule. Rates fixed by contract between the corporation and the purchaser, except where the purchaser is the United States, a State, the District of Columbia, or an agency or political subdivision of the United States, a State, or the District of Columbia, shall not be considered as established or approved rates in those cases where they are not subject to direct control, or where no maximum rate for such contract rates has been established, by the United States, a State, the District of Columbia, or by an agency or political subdivision thereof. The credit provided in section 26 (h) will not be denied solely because part of the gross income of the corporation consists of revenue derived from such furnishing or sale at rates which are not so regulated, provided the corporation establishes to the satisfaction of the Commissioner (1) that the revenue from regulated rates and the revenue from unregulated rates are derived from the operation of a single interconnected and coordinated system within a single area or region, in one or more states and (2) that the regulation to which it is subject in part of its operating territory is effective to control rates within the unregulated territory so that the rates within the unregulated territory have been and are substantially as favorable to users and consumers as are the rates within the regulated territory.

For the purpose of section 26 (h) preferred stock means stock which was issued prior to October 1, 1942, and which during the whole of the taxable year (or the part of the taxable year after its issue) was stock the dividends in respect of which were cumulative, nonparticipating as to earnings or profits either currently or in liquidation, and payable in preference to the payment of dividends on other stock. If the stock has a par or stated value its share in any distribution in liquidation must be limited to the par or stated value of the stock plus any accumulated unpaid dividends. In addition, the preferred stock must be such that the rate of return is fixed and cannot be changed by a vote of the board of directors or by some similar method. However, if there are several classes of preferred stock, all of which meet the above requirements, the credit provided in section 26 (h) shall not be denied in the case of a given class of preferred stock merely because there is another class of preferred stock whose dividends are to be paid before those of the given class of stock. Likewise, it is immaterial for the purposes of this section whether the stock be voting or non-voting stock.

The amount allowable as a credit under section 26 (h) shall be subtracted from the basic surtax credit otherwise computed under section 27 (b).

(Sec. 133 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Pub. Law 753, 77th Cong.), and sec. 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32; 26 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 62))

Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

PART 1029—FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT AND ATTACHMENTS AND REPAIR PARTS THEREFOR

[Limitation Order L-170, as Amended Feb. 12, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage of critical materials entering into the manufacture of farm machinery and equipment and attachments and repair parts therefor, for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1029.10 Limitation Order L-170—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Protection of production schedules. Producers of any items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts under the terms of this order may, notwithstanding the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended, schedule their production of such items as if the orders therefor bore a rating of AA-3.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person, other than a supplier, engaged in the manufacture of farm machinery and equipment or of repair parts for farm machinery and equipment; Provided, That:

(i) No person who did not manufacture any farm machinery and equipment or repair parts in 1940 or 1941 shall be deemed a "producer", nor shall any such person manufacture any such products of an aggregate value exceeding $2,500 for the period November 1, 1942 to October 31, 1943, inclusive; and

(ii) No state prison institution shall engage in the manufacture of any such products until such time as it has received a specific quota from the Director General for Operations.

(3) "Class A producer" means any producer whose total net sales (including sales of all affiliates of such producer) of all products during the calendar year 1941 exceeded $10,000,000 in value (including domestic sales and exports).

(4) "Class B producer" means any producer whose total net sales (including sales of all affiliates of such producer) of all products during the calendar year 1941 exceeded $750,000 but did not exceed $10,000,000 in value (including domestic sales and exports).

(5) "Class C producer" means any producer whose total net sales (including sales of all affiliates of such producer) of all products during the calendar year 1941 did not exceed $750,000 in value (including domestic sales and exports).

(6) "Affiliate" of a producer means any subsidiary thereof, any subsidiary of such a subsidiary, any parent company, and any subsidiary or parent of such a parent company.

(7) "Supplier" means any person engaged in the manufacture (for sale to a producer) of materials, parts, assemblies or sub-assemblies to be physically incorporated into farm machinery and equipment or repair parts manufactured by such producer, or to be resold by such producer as repair parts.

(8) "Distributor" means any person not a producer whose business consists, in whole or in part, of the sale of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts from inventory, and includes wholesalers, jobbers, retailers and other persons performing similar functions.

(9) "Farm machinery and equipment" means agricultural machinery, mechanical equipment and implements (including all attachments used in conjunction therewith) used for the production or care of crops, livestock, livestock products, or other produce on a farm (or elsewhere in the case of poultry), including irrigation and drainage equipment (excluding tile), horseshoes (including muleshoes), horseshoe nails, harness hardware, and water well casing (fabricated by other than pipe mills); but excluding repair parts, and also excluding all of the following: tracklaying type tractors, equipment ordered by the United States Department of Agriculture or other United States Government agencies buildings and repairs thereto, fencing, poultry nettings and wire, wire fencing, bale ties or straps, oil well casing and water pipe, nails (other than horseshoe nails) and sundry hardware, grain bins and corn cribs (other than those made of iron and steel), and hand tools.

(10) "Attachment" for farm machinery and equipment means a supplementary appliance which may be added to an otherwise complete machine to extend the utility of such machine.

(11) "Repair parts" means all types of replacement parts considered separately or as assemblies which are manufactured for use and used in the repair and maintenance of farm machinery and equipment, and shall include plow shares and shapes, and water pump cylinders. No item listed on Schedule A (except to the extent provided in paragraph (g) (5) hereof) shall be deemed a repair part, except that items of harness hardware may be deemed repair parts to the extent actually sold for repair or replacement purposes.

(12) "Base production" means the weight of a producer's total production of any item of farm machinery and equipment during either the calendar year 1940 or 1941, in whichever year such weight was the greater; except that, as to items which are bracketed together in Schedule A, the base production shall be the weight of the total production of each group of items so bracketed; and except that, as to silos (item 296 of Schedule A), the base production shall be the total weight of iron and steel entering into the production of such items.

(13) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind, which will be physically incorporated into any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts.

(14) "Weight" means the net shipping weight of any item of farm machinery and equipment which is completely manufactured, or completely fabricated and ready for shipment in knock-down form; except that, as to silos (Item 296 of Schedule A), weight means the total weight of iron and steel entering into the production of such items.

(15) "Schedule A" means the schedule of quota percentages attached hereto and made a part hereof, as amended from time to time. If any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts is not specifically listed or otherwise provided for in such schedule, the quota percentage therefor shall be deemed to be 0%.

(16) "Lend-lease order" means any order for farm machinery and equipment or repair parts placed by any agency of the United States Government in response to a requisition filed pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(c) General restrictions on production for domestic use (including "concentration of production"). (1) Except as provided in paragraph (g) hereof, and subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) (2), (c) (3) and (e) hereof, during the period November 1, 1942, to October 31, 1943, inclusive, no producer shall:

(i) Manufacture, for sale in the continental United States, a total quantity

by weight of any item of farm machinery and equipment listed in Schedule A in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the applicable quota percentage (designated in the appropriate column of said Schedule A for Class A producers, Class B producers and Class C producers respectively) for such item by his base production of such item for such sale; except that:

(a) Wherever, in said Schedule A, two or more items are bracketed together and only one quota percentage assigned thereto, such percentage shall be applied to such producer's total base production of all such bracketed items, and the total permissible weight thus determined may be distributed among all or any one or more of such bracketed items at his election;

(b) As to silos (Item 296 of Schedule A), the permitted production of a producer shall not exceed the number of units produced by him during either 1940 or 1941, whichever was the greater; and

(c) Any producer, instead of conforming to his quota percentages for the items of attachments as indicated respectively in Schedule A, may at his option manufacture not more than an aggregate of 20% of his total base production of such attachments, and the total permissible weight thus determined may be distributed among all or any one or more of such items of attachments at his election: Provided, That once such option is made, it shall apply to all attachments to be produced.

(ii) Manufacture for sale in the continental United States, a total quantity of repair parts of a value (manufacturer's current selling price at the factory) in excess of an aggregate of 160% of one-half the total value (manufacturer's selling price at the factory during 1940 and 1941) of his entire net sales of repair parts during the calendar years 1940 and 1941 combined;

(iii) Manufacture, for sale in the continental United States, any farm machinery and equipment requiring rubber tires;

(iv) Sell in the continental United States any quantity of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts which is in excess of the quantity thereof authorized to be manufactured for such sale by the provisions of this order.

(2) The Director General for Operations may, by specific directions issued to any one or more producers, increase or decrease any such producer's quotas as to all or any one or more items authorized to be produced by him by this paragraph (c), and may transfer any portion of such quotas between any such producers (including the transfer thereof from producers located in critical areas as the same may be designated from time to time by the War Manpower Commission).

(3) As to any portion of any such producer's quota as so established which he may decide not to produce at any time after November 1, 1942, he shall immediately notify the War Production Board, so that appropriate action can be taken to transfer such portion of his quota.

(d) General restrictions on production for export.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (g) hereof, and subject to the provisions of paragraphs (d) (2), (d) (3) and (e) hereof, during the period November 1, 1942, to October 31, 1943, inclusive, no producer shall manufacture for shipment, or ship:

(i) To all foreign countries within any group of countries listed respectively on Schedules B-1, B-3, B-4 and B-6, attached hereto and made a part hereof, as amended from time to time, a quantity by weight of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts in the aggregate in excess of a designated percentage (listed respectively on each such schedule) of one-half the net shipping weight of the total quantity thereof exported by said producer during the calendar years 1940 and 1941 in the aggregate to all such countries within the particular group;

(ii) To any foreign country listed respectively on Schedule B-2 and B-5, attached hereto and made a part hereof, as amended from time to time, a quantity by weight of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts in the aggregate in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the quota percentage designated on the applicable Schedule for such country by one-half the net shipping weight of the total quantity thereof exported by said producer during the calendar years 1940 and 1941 to that country;

(iii) To Canada a quantity by units of any item of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts (as listed in Schedule B-7, attached hereto and made a part hereof, as amended from time to time) in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the quota percentage designated in said Schedule B-7 for such item by the quantity thereof shipped by said producer to Canada during the calendar year 1940; or

(iv) To any foreign country (including Canada and territories and possessions of the United States) any farm machinery and equipment requiring rubber tires.

(2) Except as to items destined for Canada (Schedule B-7) and for territories and possessions of the United States (Schedule B-6), no producer shall fabricate or process any material to be physically incorporated into any item of farm machinery and equipment which may be authorized to be manufactured for export by paragraph (d) (1) above, unless and until he has received from the Director General for Operations specific authorization for such fabrication or processing as to any or all such items, application for which may be by letter setting forth the pertinent facts: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph (d) (2) shall be deemed to prevent any such producer from earmarking for export, within his export quota, any items of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts from his inventory, whether or not such items were manufactured specifically for export.

As to any portion of any such producer's export quota, as established by paragraph (d) (1) above, which he may decide not to produce at any time after November 1, 1942, he shall immediately notify the War Production Board, so that appropriate action can be taken to transfer such portion of his export quota.

(3) The Director General for Operations may, by specific directions issued to any one or more producers, increase or decrease any such producer's quotas as established by paragraph (d) (1) above, and may transfer any portion of such quotas between any such producers (including the transfer thereof from producers located in critical areas as the same may be designated from time to time by the War Manpower Commission).

(e) Further restrictions on production—(1) Restrictions on production for specific periods. The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue supplementary orders (or specific directions to any one or more producers) governing the production of all or any one or more items of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts for specified monthly, bi-monthly or quarterly periods. On and after the effective date of any such supplementary order or specific direction, no producer affected thereby shall, notwithstanding the provisions of this Order L-170, manufacture any such item during the period specified except in accordance with the terms of such supplementary order or specific direction.

(2) Items containing iron and steel. No person shall put into process any iron or steel (excluding screws, nails, rivets, bolts, or wire, strapping or small hardware for joining or other similar essential purposes) to make any of the following items:

Barnyard stock tanks	Hog troughs
Bee hives.	Laying nests.
Butter churns.	Livestock feeders
Butter molds.	Marking poles
Canopies for electric brooders	Milk stools.
Cattle stalls.	Neck yokes.
Corn cribs.	Poultry feeders
Doubletrees.	Singletrees.
Farm gates.	Stanchions.
Grain bins.	Stock pens
Grit boxes.	Thills
Guide handles	Tongues.
Hobbies (all types).	Weaners.

Provided, however, That nothing in this subparagraph (e) (2) shall be deemed to prevent the manufacture or processing of cattle stalls, stanchions or stock pens solely from rerolled rail steel plus strapping and essential hardware.

(f) Overproduction under Order L-26. Any items of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts which have been manufactured and or sold by any producer prior to November 1, 1942, and which are in excess of such producer's authorized quota under Limitation Order L-26 (including all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder), shall be deducted from such quotas as may be authorized for such producer by the provisions of this order or subsequent orders: Provided, That no such deduction shall constitute a condonation of any violation of any order or regulation of the War Production Board.

(g) Exceptions—(1) To the extent that the weight of any item or items of a producer's quota as established by paragraph (c) (1) hereof has been or will be increased by his substituting for more critical materials entering into such item or items any one or more of the following materials:

Glass or other ceramic products.
Plain concrete.
Fibre board.
Wood fibre products.
Plywood (produced with binder or adhesive not restricted by Conservation Order M-25 or any other applicable M or L order).
Gum and other hardwood lumber.
Softwood lumber (subject to the restrictions of Conservation Order M-208 or any other applicable M or L order); such increased weight shall not operate to reduce the number of units which he could have otherwise manufactured pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) above. In addition, if any such producer has made, or shows that he can make, in any item or items of his quota as established by paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof, a substitution of any of the materials listed above for more critical materials entering into such item or items, he may apply by letter to the Director General for Operations for reconsideration of his quota, based on such substitution.

(2) Any item of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts which was manufactured for sale within the continental United States by a producer within his authorized quota under Limitation Order L-26 (including all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder) and which is, prior to November 1, 1942, completely manufactured, or completely fabricated and ready for shipment in knock-down form, may be sold on and after such date without reference to the provisions of this order.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (d) of this order shall be deemed to prohibit or control the shipment of any item of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts which:

(i) Was manufactured for export by a producer within his authorized quota under paragraph (c) (1) (iii) of Limitation Order L-26 (including all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder), and

(ii) Is covered by either an export license issued by the Board of Economic Warfare or by a lend-lease order, dated prior to November 1, 1942, (except as to items destined for Canada and territories and possessions of the United States), and

(iii) Is, prior to such date, completely manufactured or completely fabricated and ready for shipment in knock-down form.

Any such items for export which, prior to November 1, 1942, are in production or on order but not completely manufactured or ready for shipment in knock-down form, shall be deducted from such export quotas as may be authorized for such producer by the provisions of this order or subsequent orders, and shall not be manufactured on and after such date except in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) above.

(4) The restrictions of this Order L-170 shall not apply to the manufacture by any person of any of the following items of farm machinery and equipment:

Bee hives.
Farm gates.
Feed trucks.
Grit boxes.
Hog troughs.
Laying nests.
Livestock feeders.
Milk stools
Poultry feeders
Poultry waterers (other than those made from iron and steel).

Provided, however, That such items are made entirely (except for nails and essential strappings and fastenings) from any one or more of the following materials:

Glass or other ceramic products.
Plain concrete.
Fibre board.
Wood fibre products.
Plywood (produced with binder or adhesive not restricted by conservation order M-25 or any other applicable M or L order).
Gum and other hardwood lumber.
Softwood lumber (subject to the restrictions of conservation order M-208 or any other applicable M or L order).

(5) Any producer of any of the following items listed in Group 17 of Schedule A:

Feed carriers.
Litter carriers.
Track for feed and litter carriers.
Hay carriers.
Track for hay carriers.
Cattle stalls and fittings.
Cattle stanchions and fittings.

may consider not more than 30% of his base production of each such item as "repair parts" rather than "farm machinery and equipment". The value of such 30% may be added to his total repair parts quota established pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) (ii) hereof, and should be so reported on such forms as are filed pursuant to paragraph (m) hereof. His production quota for the remaining 70% shall be determined by multiplying his applicable Schedule A quota percentage for the particular item by 70% of his base production thereof.

(h) Restrictions on sales for domestic use. Subject to such directions as may be issued from time to time as to rationing control, by, or pursuant to delegations from the Director General for Operations.

(1) No person shall sell any item of new farm machinery and equipment (except horseshoes, muleshoes, horseshoe nails and harness hardware) which he knows or has reason to know will not be used in the hands of the ultimate consumer for the production or care of crops, livestock, livestock products or other produce on a farm (or elsewhere in the case of poultry), except to fill a contract or purchase order bearing a preference rating of A-9 or higher;

(2) On and after November 1, 1942, no distributor shall sell or deliver to a consumer any new repair part which he knows or has reason to know will not be incorporated reasonably promptly into farm machinery and equipment in the possession of such consumer.

(i) Inventory provisions. (1) No distributor shall keep in his inventory, or under his control, for a period of more than thirty days, any used, traded-in, imperfect or non-usable item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts which cannot be reconditioned, but must dispose of the same through the customary disposal or scrap channels.

(2) Any producer may sell to any other producer any material in his inventory which is in excess of his requirements for the items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts permitted to be manufactured under the provisions of this order. Such sales shall be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 13 as amended.

(j) Standardization, simplification, substitution, and conservation of critical materials. (1) In the manufacture of any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts, no producer shall use any alloy steel, stainless steel, aluminum, magnesium, copper, brass, bronze, zinc, nickel, tin, cadmium or fabricated rubber products for any purpose where the use of other less critical materials will not impair the efficiency of operation of such item.

No materials shall be used which are prohibited by M Orders or other restrictions on use of critical materials as now or hereafter ordered by the Director General for Operations.

(2) The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue supplementary orders or schedules establishing required specifications with respect to the production of any item or items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts. "Required specifications" may include requirements to standardize or simplify the types, sizes or models of, or the specifications for, any such item or items; to eliminate, reduce or conserve the use of critical materials in the production thereof; and to substitute less critical for more critical materials in the production thereof. On and after the effective date of any such supplementary order or schedule, no farm machinery and equipment and repair parts affected thereby shall be produced, fabricated, assembled, or delivered, if such production, fabrication, assembly, or delivery is prohibited by the terms thereof.

(k) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(l) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(m) Reports. (1) All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(2) Each producer shall file not later than thirty days after October 19, 1942, a report of his production quotas on Form PD–629.

(3) Each producer shall file by the 10th day of each month a report on Form PD–630 of his production during the preceding month, the first report to be made on or before December 10, 1942.

(4) Each producer affected by paragraph (d) hereof shall file by the 10th day of each month a report on Form PD–387 (revised) of his shipments during the preceding month (starting with November, 1942) to all foreign countries (including all countries listed on Schedules B–1, B–2, B–3, B–4, B–5, B–6, and B–7).

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him in comparison with others similarly situated, may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(p) Communications. All communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Farm Machinery and Equipment Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–170.

(q) Inconsistent orders. This order supersedes as of November 1, 1942, Limitation Order L–26, and Supplementary Limitation Orders L–26–a and L–26–d, and all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder.

Issued this 12th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE A

SCHEDULE OF QUOTAS COVERING THE DOMESTIC PRODUCTION OF FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT AND REPAIR PARTS THEREFOR FOR THE PERIOD NOVEMBER 1, 1942, TO OCTOBER 31, 1943

NOTE: Schedule A amended as follows: First sentence of introductory statement revised; Division 4 of Group 13 amended; Items 230, 250–252, 254, 255, 258, 260, 287 amended; Items 253, 264, 265, and 295 deleted; Divisions 5 and 7 of Group 18, and 7 and 9 of Group 19, deleted.

Quotas for repair parts are determined according to the provisions of paragraph (c) (1) (ii). Quotas for new machinery and equipment including attachments are expressed as a percentage of the weight of each item produced during 1940 or 1941, whichever was higher. Producers of these items must use the percentages set forth in the respective columns, depending upon whether they are Class A, Class B, or Class C producers. Production of "bracketed items" may be distributed among all or any one or more items included in the particular bracket so long as the total weight of material used does not exceed that determined by the quota percentage assigned to the particular bracket.

Any item of farm machinery and equipment not provided for in this Schedule A shall not be manufactured, unless specifically exempted by Order L–170.

In order to clarify the classification of producers under paragraphs (b) (3), (4), (5) and (6) of § 1029.10 Limitation Order L–170, resulting from transfers of quotas pursuant to § 944.28 (Interpretation of Limitation and Conservation Orders with respect to the Assignability of Quotas), the following official interpretation is hereby issued with respect to said § 1029.10:

(a) Whenever a producer's total farm equipment business has been or may be sold as a going concern, continuing, in the hands of the purchaser, to make substantially the same product at the same plant and with substantially the same personnel (other than executive officers), the classification of the purchaser shall be based upon his total net sales (including those of affiliates) of all products during 1941, plus total sales of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts by the acquired company during 1941. However, if the purchaser uses the acquired company's 1940 base production under paragraph (b) (12) of Order L–170, then, for purposes of the purchaser's classification, sales of the acquired company during 1940, rather than 1941, must be used.

(2) Any other arrangement whereby a producer purports, or has purported, to assign to another person his quota (or a portion thereof) for the production of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts is invalid, unless specifically authorized for the period covered by Order L–170 by the Director General for Operations pursuant to an appeal, which should be made jointly. If such an appeal is granted, the classification of the assignee, unless otherwise directed, will be based upon his total net sales (including those of affiliates) of all products during 1941, plus the 1941 sales of that portion of the assignor's farm machinery and equipment or repair parts business acquired by the assignee. If the assignee is authorized to use the assignor's 1940 base production of such portion, then, for purposes of the assignee's classification, sales of the assignor during 1940, rather than 1941, must be used.

(3) Assignments of quota specifically authorized by appeal under Limitation Order L–26 for the period ending October 31, 1942, are not recognized for the period covered by Order L–170. Accordingly, a new appeal should be made in each case where the assignee wishes to continue producing pursuant to an assignment of quota authorized under Order L–26. Appeals by any such assignee and his classification are governed by § 944.28 and paragraph (2) above. (Issued December 12, 1942.)

(6) "Application" means the owner's application on Form PD–105, Serial No. _____, dated _____.

(b) Assignment of preference rating. The following preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries to the builder of those quantities and kinds of material which may be specifically authorized for such rating by the Director General for Operations on the copy of the application returned to the builder:

(c) Restrictions on use of preference ratings. (1) The builder may apply the preference ratings hereby assigned only to those quantities and kinds of material specifically authorized for such rating by the Director General for Operations on the copy of the application returned to the owner and subject to the conditions therein set forth. This order will be cancelled immediately if the builder is found to have applied any rating to deliveries in excess of his specific authorization.

(2) The builder may not apply any preference rating herein assigned to obtain delivery of material, nor shall he accept delivery of material, in greater quantities or on earlier dates than required to enable him to maintain his construction schedule on the housing project.

(d) Restrictions on use of materials. The builder shall not order or accept delivery of any critical material to be incorporated into the housing project or incorporate any critical material into the housing project other than that specifically set forth and approved in the application.

(e) Application of preference rating. The builder in order to apply the preference ratings hereby assigned to deliveries of material to him, must, in addition to complying with the provisions of Priorities Regulation 3, submit in triplicate each purchase order or contract which is to be rated hereunder to the same local office with which the owner filed his application (or, where the owner is the Federal Public Housing Authority to the appropriate local office of that Authority), for the countersignature of an authorized official. No purchase order on contract placed by the builder shall be a rated order without such countersignature.

(f) Liability of owner. The owner and any other person who now holds or hereafter acquires any beneficial interest in the housing project or any part thereof, is hereby ordered to comply with all the representations, certifications and promises made by said owner in the Application, except where and to the extent such other person is relieved of such responsibility by regulation of the National Housing Agency.

(g) Records. In addition to the records required to be kept under Priorities Regulation 1, as amended from time to time, the builder and each subcontractor and supplier placing or receiving any purchase order or contract rated hereunder shall retain, for a period of two years for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, endorsed copies of all such purchase orders or contracts, whether accepted or rejected, segregated from all other purchase orders or contracts or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated for such inspection.

(h) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall unless otherwise directed be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: P–55.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations, and may be denied permission to begin construction under General Conservation Order L–41.

(j) Applicability of Priorities Regulations 1 and 3. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of all Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board (Part 944) including Priorities Regulations 1 and 3, as amended from time to time.

(l) Effect on outstanding orders. This order shall not affect serially numbered P–55 orders issued prior to February 12, 1943.

Issued this 12th day of February 1943.

§ 1304.1 Maximum prices on sales of iron and steel scrap other than railroad scrap. On and after April 3, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment theretofore entered into, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer iron and steel scrap other than railroad scrap, to the consumer of such scrap or to his broker, at prices higher than the prices set forth in Appendices A, C, D and E, incorporated herein as §§ 1304.13, 1304.15, 1304.16 and 1304.17, and no consumer or his broker shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of, iron and steel scrap other than railroad scrap at prices higher than the prices set forth in Appendices A, C, D and E (§§ 1304.13, 1304.15, 1304.16 and 1304.17) except as provided in §§ 1304.6 and 1304.9 hereof.

§ 1304.2 Maximum prices on sales of iron and steel railroad scrap. On and after April 3, 1941, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment theretofore entered into, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer iron and steel railroad scrap to the consumer of such scrap or to his broker, at prices higher than the prices set forth in Appendices B, D and E, incorporated herein as §§ 1304.14, 1304.16 and 1304.17, and no consumer or his broker shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of iron and steel railroad scrap at prices higher than the prices established in Appendix B, except as provided in §§ 1304.6 and 1304.9 hereof.

§ 1304.3 Lower than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendices A, B, C, D and E (§§ 1304.13, 1304.14, 1304.15, 1304.16 and 1304.17) may, however, be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1304.4 Method of securing information governing maximum prices on sales of iron and steel railroad scrap. On and after April 3, 1941, no sale of any grade of iron and steel railroad scrap, for which a maximum price is not listed in § 1304.14, Appendix B, shall be made until after the Office of Price Administration has established a maximum price therefor, and until opportunity has been given any prospective buyer of such scrap to learn the maximum price applicable to such sale. The prospective buyer may ascertain such maximum price by addressing an inquiry to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The railroad maker thereof or other person shall file with the Office of Price Administration the information required to determine with § 1304.14, Appendix B, the maximum price thereby established for such grade.

§ 1304.5 Geographical application. The provisions of Revised Price Schedule No. 4 shall apply only to sales, offers to sell, deliveries, or transfers of iron and steel scrap moving within, into or out of one of the 48 States of the United States or the District of Columbia.

§ 1304.6 Commissions. (a) No commission shall be payable hereunder, except by a consumer to a broker for brokerage services rendered to the consumer. In the event that a broker purchases iron and steel scrap for sale to a consumer, such consumer may pay such broker a commission not exceeding 50 cents per gross ton.[2] No commission shall be payable unless (1) the broker guarantees the quality and delivery of an agreed tonnage of scrap; (2) the scrap is purchased by the consumer at a price not higher than the maximum applicable herein; (3) the broker sells the scrap to the consumer at the same price at which he purchased it; (4) the broker does not split or divide the commission, in whole or in part, with the seller or sellers of the scrap, with another broker or sub-broker, or with the consumer; (5) the commission is shown as a separate item on the invoice.

No commission shall be payable to a person for scrap which he prepares; nor shall any commission be payable to a person controlling, or holding directly or indirectly a substantial financial interest in, the person preparing the scrap, or to a person controlled by the person preparing the scrap, or to a person in whom the person preparing the scrap holds directly or indirectly a substantial financial interest. ((a) amended by Amendments 6 and 8, 7 F.R. 4488 and 8190.)

(b) Whenever a consumer shall employ, or retain in its employ or as its agent, for the purchase of iron and steel scrap, any individual who, at any time since April 3, 1941, has been engaged as the partner, officer, employee or agent of a person who is or was engaged in the business of selling iron and steel scrap to consumers, or who holds or, since April 3, 1941, has held, any direct or indirect interest, in any such person, such consumer (1) shall neither retain nor acquire any business or commercial relations with such person or with any other person owning a substantial interest in such person, or with any affiliate of such person or of such other person; and (2) shall in no event pay a commission in connection with the purchase of iron and steel scrap to any person whatsoever: Provided, however, That the prohibitions of this paragraph shall not apply if the arrangement for employment of such individual has been submitted to and approved by the Office of Price Administration as not designed or tending toward the evasion of the provisions of this Revised Price Schedule. ((b) amended by Amendment 6, 7 F.R. 4488.)

(c) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in paragraph (a) of this § 1304.6, if scrap is sold to a consumer and is to be prepared in-transit pursuant to the provisions of § 1304.13 (c) (4), (5) or (6) or § 1304.14 (e) (4), the fact that the preparation is to be performed by the person selling the scrap to the consumer shall not preclude such person from charging a commission. ((c) added by Amendment 10, 8 F.R. 857)

§ 1304.7 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in Revised Price Schedule No. 4 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with the purchase, sale, delivery or transfer of iron and steel scrap, alone or in conjunction with any other material, or by way of any commission, credit, billing, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by upgrading, or otherwise.

§ 1304.8 Record-keeping and reporting requirements. Every dealer in, and every maker, smelter, processor, broker, or consumer of, and every other person purchasing or selling iron and steel scrap shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of:

(a) As of the close of each month, the quantity in pounds and quality by grades of iron and steel scrap, (1) on hand and (2) on order;

(b) In the case of transactions for which maximum prices are established in Revised Price Schedule No. 4, each such purchase or sale, the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer or the seller, the shipping point price, the quantity in pounds and quality in grades, as defined in the applicable appendix, the mode or modes of transportation used from shipping point to point of delivery, the transportation charges involved, the bills of lading and other documents evidencing the movement from shipping

(d) Persons affected by Revised Price Schedule No. 4 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.

(e) Where shipment of scrap to the consumer or his broker involves rail or water movement, the shipper must execute and mail to the consumer or broker a shipping notice simultaneously with the shipment of the scrap. Such shipping notice must contain the date of shipment, number and initial of car or name of vessel, the consumer's and/or broker's purchase order number, the specific grade or grades of scrap as they are designated in the applicable appendix of this Revised Price Schedule No. 4 (e. g., No. 2 Heavy Melting Steel, Cut Automotive Steel 2 ft. and under, Unprepared Heavy Melting Steel, Heavy Breakable Cast (No. 1 Cupola Cast), and the signature of the shipper or his duly authorized representative. ((6) amended by Amendment 6)

(7) Grades inferior to No. 1 heavy melting steel. Grades (other than those listed in this paragraph) which are inferior to the base grade, No. 1 heavy melting steel, shall be priced at the average differential below the base grade price which the seller received during the base period September 1, 1940 to January 31, 1941: Provided, however, That if the seller's base period experience was inadequate or unrepresentative, the seller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for the establishment of an appropriate price. For the initial sale after October 15, 1942, of each unlisted grade of scrap priced according to the seller's base period experience, such seller shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within 15 days after delivery of such scrap, a complete description of the material sold and the price charged.

(ii) The limitation in (i) of this subparagraph shall not affect shipments involving vessel movement if each grade commanding a different maximum price under the provisions of Revised Price Schedule No. 4 is segregated in the vessel.

(iii) Where one vehicle contains exclusively grades of scrap for which premiums for alloy content are established under the provisions of this Revised Price Schedule No. 4, such premiums shall not apply (and the limitations set forth in (i) of this subparagraph shall apply), unless each such grade is segregated in the vehicle. ((8) amended by Amendment 6)

(b) The most favorable basing point. The "most favorable basing point" is the basing point which, when used to compute the shipping point price in the manner set forth in paragraph (c) (1) and (2) below, will yield the highest shipping point price.

(c) Maximum shipping point prices—(1) Where shipment to the consumer is wholly or partially by rail, or vessel, or combination of rail and vessel. Where the shipment of scrap to the consumer is by rail, or vessel, or combination of rail and vessel, the scrap is at its shipping point when it has been placed f. o. b. railroad car or f. a. s. vessel for shipment to the consumer. In such cases, the maximum shipping point price shall be:

(i) For shipping points located within a basing point, the price established in paragraph (a) of this section for the scrap at the basing point in which the shipping point is located, minus the applicable switching charge deduction set forth in subparagraph (5); and

(ii) For shipping points located outside a basing point, the price listed in paragraph (a) hereof for the scrap at the most favorable basing point, minus the lowest established charge for transporting scrap from the shipping point to such basing point by rail or water carrier, or combination thereof. Where vessel movement is involved in the computation, in lieu of any established charges at the dock or of any charge or cost customarily incurred at the dock, 75 cents per gross ton must be included as part of the deduction in computing the shipping point price: Provided, however, At Memphis, Tenn., the deduction shall be 50 cents per gross ton, at Great Lakes ports $1.00 per gross ton, and at New England ports $1.25 per gross ton.

(2) Where shipment to the consumer is solely by motor vehicle. Where the shipment of scrap to the consumer is solely by motor vehicle, the scrap is at its shipping point when it has been loaded on such vehicle. In such cases, the maximum shipping point price shall be:

(i) For shipping points located within a basing point, the price established in paragraph (a) of this section for the scrap at the basing point in which the shipping point is located, minus the applicable switching charge deduction set forth in subparagraph (5); and

(ii) For shipping points located outside a basing point, the price listed in paragraph (a) hereof for the scrap at the most favorable basing point minus the lowest established charge for transporting scrap by public carrier from the shipping point to such basing point. Where vessel movement is involved in the computation, in lieu of any established charges at the dock or of any charge or cost customarily incurred at the dock, 75 cents per gross ton must be included as part of the deduction in computing the shipping point price: Provided, however, At Memphis, Tenn., the deduction shall be 50 cents per gross ton, at Great Lakes ports $1.00 per gross ton, and at New England ports $1.25 per gross ton. If no established transportation rate exists for a portion of the movement from shipping point to basing point, the actual charge or cost customarily incurred by the shipper in such portion of the movement shall be included as part of the deduction in computing the shipping point price. ((1) (i) and (ii) amended by Amendment 6).

(3) Established charges. (i) The transportation charges or switching charges used in computing maximum shipping point prices need not reflect any rise in rates which became effective after March 14, 1942; nor need such charges reflect the amount of any tax imposed upon such charges. ((i) amended by Amendment 9, 7 F.R. 10141)

(ii) No vessel charge shall be deemed an established charge within the meaning of this Revised Price Schedule No. 4 unless it has been the basis of actual movement of scrap to the most favorable basing point during the calendar years 1940 to 1941. (ii) amended by Amendment 7)

(4) Exceptions to the formula for computing shipping point prices.[1] (i) At all shipping points in the United States, the maximum shipping point price for No. 1 heavy melting steel scrap (with differentials established in paragraph (a) of this section for all other grades) need not fall below $13.00 per gross ton. In Tampa, Florida, Pensacola, Florida, Gulfport, Mississippi, Mobile, Alabama, New Orleans, Louisiana, Lake Charles, Louisiana, Port Arthur, Texas, Beaumont, Texas, Galveston, Texas, Texas City, Texas, Houston, Texas, and Corpus Christi, Texas, the maximum shipping point price need not fall below $14.00 per gross ton for No. 1 heavy melting steel scrap (with differentials established in paragraph (a) of this section for all other grades).

(ii) The maximum shipping point price for No. 1 heavy melting steel (with differentials established in paragraph (a) of this section for all other grades) at all shipping points in New York City or Brooklyn, N. Y., shall be $15.33 per gross ton f. o. b. cars or f. a. s. vessel, or, where delivery to the consumer is solely by motor vehicle, loaded on such vehicle. Maximum shipping point prices at all shipping points in the State of New Jersey shall be computed from the most favorable basing point in terms of all-rail transportation charges: Provided, however, That maximum shipping point prices at all shipping points in Hudson and Bergen Counties, New Jersey, shall be computed from the Bethlehem, Pa., basing point. ((ii) amended by Amendment 11)

(iii) The maximum shipping point price for No. 1 heavy melting steel (with differentials established in paragraph (a) of this section for all other grades) at all shipping points within the Boston, Mass., switching district shall be $15.00 per gross ton f. o. b. cars or f. a. s. vessel, or, where delivery to the consumer is solely by motor vehicle, loaded on such vehicle. ((5) added by Amendment 6)

(d) Maximum prices delivered to the plant of a consumer. Scrap is at the point of delivery to the consumer when it has arrived for unloading at the plant of the consumer. In no case shall any charge or cost incurred in placing the scrap at the shipping point or any charge or cost incurred in unloading the scrap at the point of delivery, or in subsequent handling, be included in the maximum delivered price.

(1) Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery is wholly or partially by rail, by vessel, or combination of rail and vessel, the maximum delivered price shall be the shipping point price as determined in paragraph (c) of this section, plus the established charge for transporting the scrap from the shipping point to the point of delivery by the mode of transportation employed.

[1] See also paragraph (c) of this section.

Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery includes a rail-truck movement to a consumer lacking adequate facilities for receiving the scrap by rail, and the truck portion of such rail-truck movement occurs in a motor vehicle other than a public carrier, no established charges or costs incurred in unloading the scrap from the railroad car and hauling the scrap to point of delivery may be included in the delivered price. In lieu thereof, $1.00 per gross ton may be included in the delivered price. If the consumer has adequate facilities for receiving the scrap by rail, no charge may be made for the truck portion of such rail-truck movement.

Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery includes water movement, if no established rate exists for such water movement, then the actual charge or cost incurred in such movement may be used in computing the maximum delivered price.

If transportation from shipping point to point of delivery includes water movement other than by deck scow or railroad lighter, and tariffs establishing charges at the dock are published, charges incurred at the dock, but not to exceed the published tariffs may be included in the delivered price. If no such tariffs are published, or if the scrap is shipped over a dock owned or controlled by the shipper, the actual charges incurred at the dock but not to exceed 75¢ per gross ton may be included in the delivered price: Provided, however, That this maximum allowance shall be 50¢ per gross ton at Memphis, Tennessee, $1.00 per gross ton at Great Lakes ports, and $1.25 per gross ton at New England ports. In the case of water movement by deck scow or railroad lighter, no established charges at the dock or any charge or cost customarily incurred at the dock may be included in the delivered price. In lieu thereof, 50¢ per gross ton may be included in the delivered price. ((1) Amended by Amendments 6 and 9)

(2) Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery is solely by motor vehicle. (i) Where transportation is by public carrier, the maximum delivered price shall be the shipping point price as determined in paragraph (c) of this section, plus the established public carrier charge for transporting the scrap by motor vehicle from the shipping point to the point of delivery.

(ii) Where transportation is by other than public carrier, the maximum delivered price shall be the shipping point price as determined in paragraph (c) of this section, plus the charge for transporting the scrap at the established rail carload rate for the lowest minimum weight from the rail siding nearest the shipping point to the rail siding nearest the point of delivery: Provided, however, That this charge need never fall below $1.00 per gross ton.

(3) In computing maximum delivered prices under this paragraph, any tax imposed upon the transportation charges from shipping point to point of delivery, and any increase in the transportation charges from shipping point to point of delivery resulting from a rise in rates which became effective after March 14, 1942 may be included only if such tax and such increase are shown as separate items on the invoice.

(4) In no case, however, shall the delivered price exceed the price listed in paragraph (a) for the basing point nearest, in terms of established transportation charges, to the consumer's plant, by more than $1.00 plus the amount of any tax imposed on the transportation charges from shipping point to point of delivery, plus any increase in the transportation charges from shipping point to point of delivery resulting from a rise in rates which became effective after March 14, 1942, with the following exceptions: ((3) and (4) amended by Amendment 9)

Exception 1. For consumers having St. Louis as their nearest basing point the delivered price may not exceed the St. Louis basing point price by more than $1.50 plus any increase in transportation charges mentioned in (d) (3) above: Provided, That the delivered price of scrap shipped to such consumers from shipping points in Arkansas may not exceed the St. Louis basing point price by more than two dollars plus any increase in transportation charges mentioned in (d) (3) above. For consumers whose nearest basing points are Detroit, Birmingham, and Alabama City, respectively, the delivered price may not exceed by more than two dollars plus any increase in transportation charges mentioned in (d) (3) above, the price at their respective basing points.

Exception 2. In the case of machine shop turnings or related grades of turnings, as defined herein, delivered to electric furnace producers of ferro alloys, and in the case of chemical borings delivered to chemical users thereof, the delivered price shall not be limited to one dollar etc., in excess of the price at the basing point nearest the consumer's plant. (Exceptions 1 and 2 amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 2155)

Exception 3. "Remote scrap" means all the kinds and grades of iron and steel scrap referred to in § 1304.13, Appendix A, having a shipping point and a point of origin within the States of Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Florida, Oregon, Utah, Washington, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Louisiana, Nebraska and Kansas shall be remote for shipping points having a maximum shipping point price of $13.00 per gross ton. Colorado scrap shall be remote scrap for Colorado consumers only. Shipping points in California having a maximum shipping point price of $13.00 per gross ton shall be remote for California consumers only. (Exception 3 amended by Amendment 8)

(i) The delivered price of remote scrap may exceed by more than $1.00 but not more than $5.00 the price at the basing point nearest the consumer's plant: Provided, That immediately upon delivery of such scrap, the consumer files with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., (a) a fully detailed statement under oath setting forth the name and address of the seller, the shipping point of the scrap, the grade, quantity and price at shipping point, delivered price, the mode of transportation employed and the transportation charges from the shipping point to the point of delivery, and (b) certified copies of all bills of lading covering the shipment of such scrap from the remote shipping point to the point of delivery.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 23 (7 F.R. 8478), provides that on and after October 24, 1942, no report filed with the Office of Price Administration pursuant to any price regulation need be notarized.]

(ii) Where the delivery price of remote scrap would exceed by more than $5.00 the price at the basing point nearest the consumer's plant, the consumer may not purchase or accept delivery of such scrap until his application to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for permission to absorb the additional transportation charges necessary to secure such scrap has been approved. Applications by consumers must be under oath and fully detailed, setting forth the name and address of the seller, point of shipment of the scrap, the grade, quantity and price at shipping point, proposed delivered prices, the mode of transportation to be employed, and the transportation charges from the shipping point to the consumer's plant. The application must also contain a statement by the consumer of its need for, and its willingness to accept, such scrap at the price quoted.

Immediately upon delivery of such scrap, the consumer must comply with the filing requirements of paragraph (i) (b) above. ((i) and (ii) amended by Amendment 1.)

Exception 4. Where scrap is shipped by vessel from Duluth, Minnesota, or Superior, Wisconsin, to consumers located in Buffalo, New York, Elyria, Ohio, Cleveland, Ohio, Saginaw, Michigan, Detroit, Michigan, or Chicago, Illinois, the delivered price shall not be limited to one dollar, etc., in excess of the basing point nearest the consumer's plant.

Exception 5. In computing the delivered price of Billet, Bloom and Forge crops originating in and shipped from the Pittsburgh Basing Point, the maximum transportation charges which may be added to the shipping point price shall be $2.65. (Exceptions 4 and 5 amended by Amendment 1.)

Exception 6. The delivered price of Item 14, Bar Crops and Plate Scrap, Item 16, Punchings and Plate Scrap, Item 25, Alloy Free Turnings, and Item 26, Heavy Turnings, produced in industrial plants in the State of Michigan and shipped directly to consumers located in or nearest, in terms of established transportation charges, to the Buffalo, N. Y., Pittsburgh, Brackenridge or Midland, Pennsylvania, basing point, shall not exceed by more than $3.00 plus any increase in transportation charges mentioned in paragraph (d) (3), the price at the basing point nearest the consumer's plant. (Exception 6 amended by Amendment 7.)

Exception 7. (i) Where scrap is shipped from a New England shipping point to a consumer outside New England, the maximum transportation charges which may be added to the shipping point price shall be $6.65 per gross ton.

(ii) Where scrap is shipped from a New England shipping point to a New England consumer, the delivered price shall not be limited to $1.00, etc., over the price at the nearest basing point, nor by the $6.65 per gross ton transportation allowance contained in (i) of this exception. (Exception 7 amended by Amendment 6)

Exception 8. If the maximum shipping point price at any shipping point is computed by using a vessel rate, and due to seasonal factors the water movement to which the vessel rate applied is unavailable, a consumer who could ordinarily receive scrap by water movement from such shipping point to the point of delivery at a delivered price not in excess of $1.00 etc. above the price at the basing point nearest the consumer's plant, may, so long as the water movement is unavailable, absorb the all-rail transportation charges incurred in the movement from such shipping point to the point of delivery. (Exception 8 added by Amendment 9)

Exception 9. (i) Where scrap is shipped pursuant to an allocation order issued by the War Production Board, the delivered price shall not be limited to $1.00 etc., in excess of the price at the basing point nearest the consumer's plant: Provided, however, That in all such cases, the most economical transportation facilities must be employed. For example, but not by way of limitation:

(a) If vessel or rail-vessel or vessel-rail facilities are available from shipping point to point of delivery, and use of such facilities will result in lower transportation charges than all-rail movement, the maximum transportation charges which may be added to the shipping point price may not exceed the charges which would apply if the cheapest available facility were employed;

(b) Where the most economical method available involves rail movement, the rail transportation charges must be computed on the basis of the rates for the highest minimum carload weight available.

(ii) Where scrap shipped pursuant to an allocation order issued by the War Production Board is stored, in transit, with a warehousing company, and the warehousing certificates for such scrap are pledged by the consumer as security for a loan to meet the consumer's indebtedness for the shipment, if the consumer defaults on the loan, and the scrap is resold to a consumer by the pledgee, the maximum delivered price upon the resale shall be the maximum shipping point price at the original shipping point, plus the established charges incurred in the movement from the shipping point to the point of storage, plus the established transportation charges incurred in the movement from the point of storage to the point of delivery. (Exception 9 added by Amendment 1 and amended by Amendment 7)

(e) Unprepared scrap. (1) The maximum prices established hereinabove are maximum prices for prepared scrap. The term "unprepared scrap" shall have its customary trade meaning and shall not include such demolition projects as bridges, box cars or graveyard automobiles, which must be so priced that the prepared scrap will deliver to the consumer within the maximum delivered price established hereinabove. ((e) amended by Amendment 7)

(2) For unprepared scrap, maximum prices shall be $3.50 (and in the case of the material from which No. 1, No. 2, and No. 3 bundles are made, $4.00) less than the maximum prices for the corresponding grade or grades of prepared scrap. In no case, however, shall electric furnace, acid open-hearth and foundry grades, listed in paragraph (a) of this section be used as the "corresponding grade or grades of prepared scrap." (2) amended by Amendment 10)

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, where scrap is to undergo preparation prior to its arrival at the point of delivery, such scrap is not at its shipping point, as that phrase is defined in paragraph (c) of this section, until after such preparation has been completed. ((3) amended by Amendment 8)

(4) Where a consumer purchases unprepared remote scrap in rail carload lots, if no adequate facilities for preparation exist at or near the shipping point, the consumer may designate a dealer or dealers to prepare such scrap on a preparation fee basis. The maximum preparation fee shall be $4.00 per gross ton for No 1, No. 2, and No. 3 bundles, and $3.50 per gross ton for all other grades. The maximum delivered price shall be the maximum shipping point price for the unprepared scrap at the remote shipping point, plus the rail transportation charges incurred in moving the scrap to the dealer's yard, plus the applicable maximum preparation fee, plus transportation charges from the dealer's yard to the point of delivery. The transportation charges from the dealer's yard to the point of delivery shall be computed in the same manner as the charges allowable under § 1304.13 (d) on an identical tonnage of scrap shipped by the dealer from his yard to the same point of delivery. The maximum delivered price of such scrap shall not exceed by more than $5.00 the price at the basing point nearest the consumer's plant except upon prior approval of the Office of Price Administration as provided in Exception 3 in paragraph (d) of this section. Every purchase of scrap on this preparation fee basis shall likewise be subject to all the filing and other requirements in Exception 3 of paragraph (d) of this section. At no time shall ownership of such scrap reside in the dealer to whom the preparation fee is paid.

(5) If unprepared scrap in rail carload lots is allocated by the War Production Board to a consumer lacking facilities for preparing such scrap, such consumer may designate a dealer or dealers to prepare such scrap in-transit on a preparation fee basis. The maximum preparation fee shall be the differential established in paragraphs (a) and (e) of this section between the unprepared scrap and the listed grade into which the scrap is prepared—e. g. $3.50 per gross ton for No. 1 heavy melting steel, $5.50 per gross ton for foundry steel, 1 foot and under, and $4.00 per gross ton for No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 bundles. If the unprepared scrap is scrap rails in random lengths, the maximum preparation fee shall be as follows: $2.00 per gross ton for rails cut 3 feet and under; $2.25 per gross ton for rails cut 2 feet and under; and $2.50 per gross ton for rails cut 18 inches and under. The maximum delivered price shall be the maximum shipping point price for the unprepared scrap at the original shipping point, plus the rail transportation charges incurred in moving the scrap to the dealer's yard, plus the applicable maximum preparation fee, plus transportation charges from the dealer's yard to the point of delivery. The transportation charges from the dealer's yard to the point of delivery shall be computed in the same manner as the charges allowable under § 1304.13 (d) on an identical tonnage of scrap shipped by the dealer from his yard to the same point of delivery pursuant to an allocation order. At no time shall ownership of such scrap reside in the dealer to whom the preparation fee is paid. ((4) and (5) added by Amendment 8 and amended by Amendment 10)

(6) If the War Production Board allocates machine shop turnings, Item 8, in rail carload lots to a consumer, such consumer may designate a dealer or dealers to prepare such scrap in-transit, into baled machine shop turnings, Item 28a. The maximum preparation fee for such service shall be $5.00 per gross ton. The maximum delivered price shall be the maximum shipping point price for machine shop turnings, Item 8, at the original shipping point, plus the rail transportation charges incurred in moving the scrap to the dealer's yard, plus the $5.00 per gross ton preparation fee, plus transportation charges from the dealer's yard to the point of delivery. The transportation charges from the dealer's yard to the point of delivery shall be computed in the same manner as the charges allowable under § 1304.13 (d) on an identical tonnage of scrap shipped by the dealer from his yard to the same point of delivery pursuant to an allocation order. At no time shall the ownership of such scrap reside in the dealer to whom the preparation fee is paid. ((6) added by Amendment 10)

§ 1304.14 Appendix B: Maximum prices for iron and steel scrap originating from railroads—(a) Scrap originating from railroads operating in a basing point named below. (All prices given below are per gross ton.) The scrap is at its point of delivery to the consumer when it has arrived for unloading at the plant of the consumer. Where used in this Appendix, the term "transportation charges" means the established charges for transporting the scrap to the point of delivery by the mode of transportation employed. The term "transportation charges" shall include any tax imposed upon the transportation charges from shipping point to point of delivery, and any increase in transportation charges resulting from a rise in rates which became effective after March 14, 1942; and where specific amounts of allowable transportation charges are mentioned, there may be superadded thereto 6% of such allowable charge and the amount of the tax on such charge. In no case shall the maximum delivered price include any charge or cost incurred in unloading the scrap at the point of delivery or in subsequent handling. ((a) amended by Amendment 9)

[1] Where the railroad originator of the scrap operates in two or more of the Basing Points named above, the highest of the maximum prices established above for such Basing Points shall be the maximum price of the scrap delivered to a consumer's plant at any point on the railroad's line.

[2] The term "rails for rerolling" includes any rails which are sold to be used for rerolling, irrespective of whether or not such rails are usable for re-laying.

(ii) Grades not listed. (a) The price at which a consumer located on the line of the railroad from which the scrap originated may purchase any grade of scrap not listed above shall not exceed the average price per gross ton which such railroad sold such grade delivered to the plant of a consumer, whether located on or off the line of the railroad, during the period commencing September 1, 1940, and ending January 31, 1941, or, in case no sale was made during the period, the price at which the grade was last sold by the railroad prior thereto, and, in either event, adjusted to allow for the average grade differentials of the railroad in a manner indicated in subdivision (b) below.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a) above, the maximum prices for any grade not listed in subparagraph (1) (i), shall be adjusted to allow for the average grade differentials of the railroad by:

First, computing the amount of the base grade differential for the railroad which shall be the difference between the average price per gross ton at which the railroad from which the scrap originated sold No. 1 railroad grade heavy melting steel scrap delivered to the plant of the consumer, whether located on or off the line of the railroad during the period commencing September 1, 1940, and ending January 31, 1941, and the railroad's maximum price established for such grade under subparagraph (1) (i); and

Second, by applying this base grade differential to the price to be adjusted by either subtracting the amount of such differential from such prices in case the railroad's average price of No. 1 railroad grade heavy melting steel scrap exceeds the railroad's maximum price established for such grade under paragraph (a) (1), or adding the same in case the railroad's average price is less than such maximum.

(2) Delivered to a consumer's plant located off the line of the railroad from which the scrap originated. Except in the case of allocation orders issued by the War Production Board and of shipments of scrap by vessel from Duluth, Minnesota, or Superior, Wisconsin, to consumers located in Buffalo, N. Y., Cleveland, Ohio, Elyria, Ohio, Detroit, and Saginaw, Michigan, and Chicago, Illinois, the maximum price is either of the following, whichever is greater:

(i) The maximum price established in subparagraph (1) above, for scrap delivered to a consumer on the line of the railroad from which the scrap originated, or, if the consumer can establish that he has been served by the same source of scrap in the past, the maximum price plus transportation charges (including off-the-line switching charges), from the railroad's line to the point of delivery, of not more than two dollars per gross ton for rails for rerolling, scrap axles and other scrap for rerolling, and of not more than one dollar per gross ton for all other grades of scrap; or

(ii) The prices listed in subparagraph (1) above, for the basing point nearest the consumer's plant.

(a) Where scrap is shipped by vessel from Duluth, Minnesota, or Superior, Wisconsin, to consumers located in Buffalo, New York, Elyria, Ohio, Cleveland, Ohio, Detroit and Saginaw, Michigan, and Chicago, Illinois, the maximum delivered price shall be the maximum price established in paragraph (1) above, for scrap delivered to a consumer on the line of the railroad from which the scrap originated, plus transportation charges from the railroad's line to the point of delivery.

(b) Where scrap is shipped pursuant to an allocation order issued by the War Production Board, the maximum delivered price shall be the maximum price established in subparagraph (1), for scrap delivered to a consumer on the line of the railroad from which the scrap originated, plus transportation charges from the railroad's line to the point of delivery. ((2) amended by Amendment 7).

(b) Scrap originating from railroads not operating in any of the basing points named above. Except in the case of allocation orders issued by the War Production Board and of rails for rerolling, the maximum price of any grade of such scrap delivered to consumers located on and off the line of the railroad shall not exceed:

(1) For the grades listed above, either of the following, whichever is less. (i) The average price per gross ton at which the railroad originator of the scrap sold any such grade to consumers located on and off the line of the railroad during the period commencing September 1, 1940 and ending January 31, 1941; or

(ii) The price at the basing point nearest, in terms of transportation charges, to the consumer's plant; and

(2) For the grades not listed above, either of the following, whichever is less. (i) The average price per gross ton at which the railroad originator of the scrap sold any such grade to consumers located on and off the line of the railroad during the period commencing September 1, 1940, and ending January 31, 1941; or

(ii) The average price per gross ton as determined in subdivision (i) hereof, minus the amount by which the average price of No. 1 railroad grade heavy melting steel scrap, as determined in (1), exceeds the price of No. 1 railroad grade heavy melting steel scrap at the basing point nearest, in terms of transportation charges, to the consumer's plant.

In the case of rails for rerolling, the maximum price of such scrap f. o. b. the line of the railroad originator thereof shall be the average price per gross ton at which the railroad originator sold such grade f. o. b. its line during the period commencing September 1, 1940, and ending January 31, 1941. The maximum price of rerolling rails shall be the f. o. b. line price thus established plus transportation charges from the railroad's line to the rerolling mill's point of delivery.

This exception for rails for rerolling applies only to railroads not operating in a basing point named in paragraph (a) (1) (i) hereof.

Where, pursuant to an allocation order issued by the War Production Board, any grade of scrap other than rails for rerolling is shipped to an off-line consumer, and the foreign line proportion of the through haul to such consumer exceeds the foreign line proportion of the through haul, if any, to the consumer whom the railroad supplied with the largest tonnage of the specific grade during the period from September 1, 1940 to January 31, 1941, then such excess may be added to the maximum price for such grade established in this paragraph.

Where any grade of scrap is shipped to an off-line consumer, there may be added to the maximum delivered price established under this paragraph, any increase in the foreign line proportion of the through haul resulting from a rise in rates which became effective after March 14, 1942, and any tax imposed upon such haul: Provided, however, That such increase and such tax shall be shown as separate items on the invoice. ((b) amended by Amendments 7 and 9)

(c) Railroad scrap prepared by a dealer. Railroad scrap prepared by a dealer shall be deemed to have lost its railroad origin, and the maximum prices of such scrap shall be governed by paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) Maximum prices for scrap which has lost its railroad origin, scrap originating from mines, logging roads, and similar sources and scrap originating from roads who did not within two weeks after February 9, 1942, file average price information with the Office of Price Administration. In the case of scrap which has lost its railroad origin, scrap originating from mines, logging roads, and similar sources, and any grade of scrap originating from a railroad which did not within two weeks after February 9, 1942, file the average price information for such grades as required under paragraphs (a) or (b) hereof and by § 1304.4, the maximum prices shall be as follows: ((c) and (d) amended by Amendment 2)

(1) In the case of scrap rails, scrap rails 3 feet and under, scrap rails 2 feet and under, scrap rails 18 inches and under, and rails for rerolling, the maximum shipping point price shall be computed by application of the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 1304.13, Appendix A, to the prices at the most favorable basing points in this Appendix. The switching charge deductions pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) (1) (i) and (c) (2) (i) of § 1304.13 shall be those listed in said paragraph, supplemented by the following switching charge deductions:

Basing point:	Switching charge deduction Cents per gross ton
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania	14
Wheeling, West Virginia	28
Wilmington, Delaware	28
Kansas City, Missouri	32

In no case need this maximum shipping point price fall below $14.00 per gross ton for scrap rails, $16.00 per gross ton for scrap rails 3 feet and under, $16.25 per gross ton for scrap rails 2 feet and under, $16.50 per gross ton for scrap rails 18 inches and under, and $15.50 per gross ton for rails for rerolling. The maximum delivered price shall be the shipping point price thus obtained plus transportation charges from the shipping point to the point of delivery. ((1) amended by Amendment 6)

(2) All other grades of such scrap shall be classified under § 1304.13, Appendix A, or § 1304.15, Appendix C, and their maximum prices shall be governed by the provisions of the applicable appendix, except that:

(i) In the case of railroad steel axles sold for rerolling or reforging use only, the basing point price for such grade at the applicable basing point under the provisions of § 1304.13, Appendix A, shall be $6.00 per gross ton over the basing point price for No. 1 heavy melting steel. The definition of "railroad steel axles" shall be: solid car and/or locomotive axles (free of axles with key-way between wheel seats, no axles of shorter lengths than distances between wheel seats to be included).

(ii) In the case of railroad steel wheels sold for electric furnace, acid open hearth and foundry use only, the basing point price for such grade at the applicable basing point under the provisions of § 1304.13, Appendix A, shall be $3.50 per gross ton over the basing point price for No. 1 heavy melting steel. The definition of "railroad steel wheels" shall be: solid cast steel, forged, pressed or rolled steel car and/or locomotive wheels, 36" and under in diameter.

(iii) In the case of railroad couplers and railroad knuckles sold for electric furnace, acid open hearth and foundry use only, the basing point price for such grade at the applicable basing point under the provisions of § 1304.13, Appendix A, shall be $3.00 per gross ton over the basing point price for No. 1 heavy melting steel. The definition of "railroad couplers and railroad knuckles" shall be: railroad car and/or locomotive steel couplers, knuckles and/or locks stripped clean of all other attachments.

(iv) In the case of railroad springs sold for electric furnace, acid open hearth and foundry use only, the basing point price for such grade at the applicable basing point under the provisions of § 1304.13, Appendix A, shall be $3.50 per gross ton over the basing point price for No. 1 heavy melting steel. The definition of "railroad springs" shall be: coil springs made of material less than 9/8" in diameter and elliptical springs made of material less than 1/4" in thickness, not over 18" width. ((2), (i), (ii) (iii) and (iv) amended by Amendment 2)

(v) In the case of railroad brake shoes, the maximum shipping point price shall be $4.75 per gross ton below the price of No. 1 cupola cast at the applicable shipping point. The definition of "railroad brake shoes" shall be: cast iron driving and/or car brake shoes of all types except composition filled shoes, suitable for foundry use ((v) amended by Amendment 3)

(13) [Revoked by Amendment 3]

(e) Unprepared scrap. (1) The maximum prices listed in paragraph (a) (1) (i) of this section of Appendix B are for prepared scrap. For such grades, in unprepared form, the maximum prices shall be $3.50 per gross ton under the maximum prices for the corresponding grade or grades of prepared scrap.

(2) Pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) (i) and paragraph (b) (2) of this section, Appendix B, the Office of Price Administration has authorized maximum prices for prepared grades of scrap originating from railroads that filed the required average price information. For such grades, in unprepared form, the maximum prices shall be $3.50 under the maximum prices for the corresponding grade of prepared scrap.

(3) Except as provided in (4) of this subparagraph, where scrap is to undergo preparation prior to its arrival at the point of delivery, such scrap is not at its shipping point as that phrase is defined in paragraph (c) of § 1304.13 hereof, until after such preparation has been completed. ((e) (1), (2) and (3) amended by Amendment 6)

(4) Where a consumer purchases grades of unprepared scrap for which maximum prices have been authorized under paragraph (a) (1) (ii) or paragraph (b) (2) of this section, the consumer may designate a dealer or dealers to prepare such scrap on a preparation fee basis. The maximum preparation fee shall be the applicable differential established in paragraphs (a) and (e) of § 1304.13 or paragraphs (a) and (e) of § 1304.14, whichever is applicable, between the unprepared scrap and the listed grade into which the scrap is prepared—e. g. $3.50 per gross ton for No. 1 heavy melting steel, $6.00 per gross ton for cut structural and plate scrap 1 foot and under, and $2.50 per gross ton for scrap rails 18 inches and under. In such cases the maximum delivered price shall be the maximum delivered price applicable to an identical shipment of the unprepared scrap direct to such consumer, plus the applicable maximum preparation fee. At no time shall ownership of such scrap reside in the dealer to whom the preparation fee is paid. ((4) amended by Amendment 10)

(f) Mixed shipments. (1) When grades of scrap commanding different maximum prices under the provisions of this Revised Price Schedule No. 4, are included in one vehicle, the maximum price for the scrap in such vehicle shall be the maximum price applicable to the lowest priced grade in the vehicle.

(2) The limitation in (1) of this paragraph shall not affect shipments involving vessel movement if each grade commanding a different maximum price under the provisions of Revised Price Schedule No. 4 is segregated in the vessel.

(3) Where one vehicle contains exclusively grades of scrap for which premiums for alloy content are established under the provisions of this Revised Price Schedule No. 4, such premiums shall not apply (and the limitations set forth in (1) of this paragraph shall apply), unless each such grade is segregated in the vehicle. ((f) amended by Amendment 8)

§ 1304.15 Appendix C: Maximum price for cast iron scrap other than railroad

(6) Mixed shipments. (i) When grades of scrap commanding different maximum prices under the provisions of this Revised Price Schedule No. 4, are included in one vehicle, the maximum price for the scrap in such vehicle shall be the maximum price applicable to the lowest price grade in the vehicle.

(ii) The limitation in (i) of this subparagraph shall not affect shipments involving vessel movement if each grade commanding a different maximum price under the provisions of Revised Price Schedule No. 4 is segregated in the vessel. ((2) to (6) inclusive added by Amendment 6)

(b) Maximum price delivered to a consumer. Scrap is at its point of delivery to a consumer when it has arrived for unloading at the plant of the consumer. In no case shall any charge or cost incurred in placing the scrap at the shipping point or any charge or cost incurred in unloading the scrap at the point of delivery, or in subsequent handling, be included in the maximum delivered price.

The maximum price at which any grade of cast iron scrap may be delivered to a consumer shall be:

(1) Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery is wholly or partially by rail or vessel, or combination of rail and vessel, the maximum delivered price shall be the shipping point price listed in paragraph (a) of this section, plus the established charge for transporting the scrap from the shipping point to the point of delivery by the mode of transportation employed. Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery includes a rail-truck movement to a consumer lacking adequate facilities for receiving rail deliveries of scrap, and the truck portion of such rail-truck movement occurs in a motor vehicle other than a public carrier, no established charges or costs incurred in unloading the scrap from the railroad car and hauling the scrap to point of delivery may be included in the delivered price. In lieu thereof, $1.00 per gross ton may be included in the delivered price. If the consumer has adequate facilities for receiving the scrap by rail, no charge may be made for the truck portion of such rail-truck movement. ((1) amended by Amendment 8)

(2) Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery is solely by motor vehicle. (i) Where transportation is by public carrier, the maximum delivered price shall be the shipping point price listed in paragraph (a) of this section, plus the established public carrier charge for transporting the scrap by motor vehicle from the shipping point to the point of delivery.

(ii) Where transportation is by other than public carrier, the maximum delivered price shall be the shipping point price listed in paragraph (a) of this section, plus the charge for transporting the scrap at the established rail carload rate for the lowest minimum weight, from the rail siding nearest the shipping point to the rail siding nearest the point of delivery, provided however that this charge need never fall below $1.00 per gross ton.

(iii) Where shipment of the scrap to the consumer is solely by motor vehicle, the delivered price shall not exceed the shipping point price unless the consumer shall receive a certificate made out to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and signed by the person from whose yard or point of accumulation the scrap was placed at its shipping point and by the person by whom or on behalf of whom the scrap was transported from shipping point to point of delivery. Such certificate shall, among other things, specify the quantity and grade of the scrap, the shipping point, the point of delivery, and the transportation charges from shipping point to point of delivery. The consumer shall acknowledge receipt of the material on the face of the certificate. Certification must be executed on the Office of Price Administration's Form 104.15 (or : copy thereof). Such forms may be secured from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., or from any Regional Office.

The above mentioned certificate, shall be preserved by the consumer as part of the record-keeping requirements outlined in § 1304.8. A copy shall likewise be preserved by all persons signing the certificate.

(3) In computing maximum delivered prices under this paragraph, any tax imposed upon the transportation charges from shipping point to point of delivery, and any increase in transportation charges from shipping point to point of delivery resulting from a rise in rates which became effective after March 14, 1942 may be included only if such tax and such increases are shown as separate items on the invoice. ((3) amended by Amendment 9)

(4) Where scrap shipped pursuant to an allocation order issued by the War Production Board is stored, in-transit, with a warehousing company, and the warehousing certificates for such scrap are pledged by the consumer as security for a loan to meet the consumer's indebtedness for the shipment, if the consumer defaults on the loan, and the scrap is resold by the pledgee, maximum delivered price upon the resale shall be the maximum shipping point price at the original shipping point, plus the established transportation charges incurred in the movement from the original shipping point to the point of storage, plus the established transportation charges incurred in the movement from the point of storage to the point of delivery. ((4) amended by Amendment 7)

(c) Definitions of grades referred to in paragraph (a).

Item 1. No. 1 cupola cast. Clean cast iron scrap, including machinery cast iron scrap, cast iron parts of agricultural machinery and iron castings of a miscellaneous nature. Must be cupola size, not over 24 inches by 30 inches, and no piece to weigh over 150 pounds. Must be free of stove plate, burnt iron and foreign material. (Item 1 amended by Amendment 10)

Item 2. [Revoked by Amendment 10]

Item 3. Clean auto cast. Clean auto blocks, free of all steel parts except camshafts, valves, valve springs and studs.

Item 4. Unstripped motor blocks. Automobile motors from which steel and nonferrous fittings have not been removed. Must be free of transmissions, parts of frames, drive shafts, and differentials. (Items 3 and 4 amended by Amendment 10)

(d) Unprepared scrap. Except in the case of heavy breakable cast, the maximum prices established hereinabove are maximum prices for prepared scrap. For unprepared scrap, exclusive of heavy breakable cast, maximum prices shall be $2.50 less than the maximum prices for the corresponding grade or grades of prepared scrap.

Where scrap is to undergo preparation prior to its arrival at the point of delivery, such scrap is not at its shipping point, as that phrase is defined in paragraph (a) hereof, until after such preparation has been completed.

§ 1304.16 Appendix D: Maximum prices for iron and steel scrap for export from the United States. (Per gross ton, f. a. s. and f. o. b. point of export)

(a) Other than railroad scrap. The maximum export prices of any grade of iron and steel scrap other than railroad scrap shall be the maximum shipping point price derived under § 1304.13, Appendix A, or § 1304.15, Appendix C, plus all transportation charges, as defined in paragraph (d) of § 1304.13, Appendix A, for transporting the scrap from the shipping point to the place of export. For scrap exported by ship this maximum export price shall be f. a. s. vessel at the place of export and actual costs incident to shipment for export may be added if shown as a separate charge on the invoice. For scrap exported by ship these maximum prices shall be f. a. s. vessel at the place of export and actual costs incident to shipment for export may be added if shown as a separate charge on the invoice. For scrap exported by means other than by ship, this maximum export price shall be f. o. b. railroad cars at the place of export. Commission of the domestic broker may be added as provided in § 1304.6 of Revised Price Schedule No. 4 and must be shown as a separate charge on the invoice.

§ 1304.17 Appendix E: Maximum prices for iron and steel scrap imported into the United States. With the exception of the Metals Reserve Corporation, only consumers, and persons acting as brokers on behalf of specific consumers, may enter into contracts to import iron and steel scrap.

Imported scrap is at its point of delivery to a consumer when it has arrived for unloading at the consumer's plant.

No such purchase of imported scrap may be made until after the consumer has filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a fully detailed statement under oath setting forth the name and address of the seller, the grade and quantity of the scrap, a detailed breakdown of all factors of which the price at the point of delivery is comprised; and until such application has been approved.

Immediately upon delivery of such scrap, the consumer must file certified copies of bills of lading covering the shipment of such scrap. (§ 1304.17 amended by Amendment 6)

AUTHORITY: §§ 1316.51 to 1316.62, inclusive, issued under E.O. 8734, 8875; 6 F.R. 1917, 4483.

[1] 7 F.R. 2132.

Executive authority superseded by Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, Pub Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

In June 1941, the Office of Price Administration, as a first step toward stabilizing prices for the major types of cotton textiles, issued Price Schedule No. 11, establishing maximum prices for six leading kinds of cotton grey goods. In August that Schedule was supplemented by maximum prices for other classes of grey goods. Now maximum prices are extended to further important types of grey goods, and to the principal types of cotton colored-yarn goods. For convenience, the carded-yarn fabrics already under maximum prices have been withdrawn from Price Schedule No. 11 and are included, along with numerous other textiles made of carded yarn, in Price Schedule No. 35; grey goods made of combed yarns will continue to be covered by Price Schedule No. 11.

§ 1316.51 Maximum prices for cotton goods. On and after the applicable ceiling date (as set forth in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1316.61), regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or other commitment, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer cotton goods, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of cotton goods, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1316.61, Appendix A, except that:

(a) The maximum prices established herein are not applicable to sales or deliveries of cotton goods to any person or persons outside the United States, its territories and possessions;

(b) Except as may be expressly provided elsewhere herein, the provisions of Price Schedule No. 35 are not applicable to sales or deliveries of cotton goods made by any wholesaler, jobber, or retailer in the performance of a recognized distributive function: Provided, That sales and deliveries of cotton goods (1) to a converter or finisher, or (2) by the manufacturer thereof or by any agent of such manufacturer shall not be made at prices higher than the established maximum prices.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that the prohibition contained in any price regulation against buying or receiving any commodity or service at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by such regulation shall not apply to any war procurement agency, or government whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

§ 1316.52 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1316.61, Appendix A, may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1316.53 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in Price Schedule No. 35 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery or transfer of cotton goods, alone or in conjunction with any other material, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

(b) No price agreed upon in any contract shall be changed by amendment of such contract, by substitution therefor of a new contract, or otherwise (whether or not such change is made pursuant to the terms of the original contract) if the change so effected results in an agreed price in excess of the maximum price applicable under § 1316.61 hereof, in accordance with the date the original contract was made, to the original contract or to deliveries pursuant thereto.

(c) No person shall, for the purpose of evading the price limitations set forth in this schedule, engage in or procure commission weaving or commission spinning.

§ 1316.54 Records and reports. Every person making purchases or sales of cotton goods after October 20, 1941, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of (a) each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer or the seller, the price paid or received, and the quantity in yards of each construction purchased or sold; (b) the quantity in yards of cotton goods (1) on hand, and (2) on order, as of the close of each calendar month; and (c) in the case of manufacturers, the quantity in yards or pounds of each construction of cotton goods manufactured during each calendar month.

Persons affected by Price Schedule No. 35 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.

§ 1316.55 Details required in contract of sale and invoice. (a) Every seller of cotton goods shall, with respect to each sale thereof, deliver to the purchaser a contract of sale which shall contain, in addition to the terms thereof, (1) the date on which the sale or contract of sale was made; (2) a full description of each construction of cotton goods sold, including (i) the width; (ii) in the case of grey goods, the cloth count; (iii) the number of yards per pound; (iv) where necessary to determine the applicable maximum price, the yarn numbers used in the warp and filling, or the average yarn numbers, as the case may be; and (v) where, in conformity with Price Schedule No. 35, a premium is charged or deduction made, the feature of the goods or of their manufacture for which such premium is allowed or deduction required; and (3) the discount, if any, allowed for prompt payment.

§ 1316.56 [Revoked]

§ 1316.57 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Price Schedule No. 35 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Price Schedule No. 35 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

[NOTE: The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 36, licensing sellers of yarns, textiles, textile products and services relating thereto, are applicable to all persons making sales under this Revised Price Schedule No. 35.]

§ 1316.58 Petitions for Amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Revised Price Schedule No. 35 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[1] (§1316.53 as amended by Supplementary Order 26, 7 F.R. 8948.)

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Supplementary Order No. 9 (7 F.R. 5444) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations with the exception of those on scrap, waste, and salvage materials.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on pending wage or salary increases requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

The maximum prices set forth in paragraph (a) are applicable to such types of goods only when they are delivered pursuant to a sale or contract of sale entered into prior to the above-mentioned date and only when the sale or contract of sale establishes a specific price for the entire contract; otherwise such goods are subject to the prices appearing in paragraph (b). (Paragraph amended by Amendment 11, 8 F.R. 155)

Paragraph (b) contains maximum prices for all cotton goods subject to Price Schedule No. 35. As qualified by paragraph (c), these maximum prices are applicable to all transactions except those subject to paragraph (a).

Paragraph (c) sets forth the conditions under which, in addition to the otherwise applicable maximum prices as found in paragraphs (a) and (b), premiums may be paid for (1) cotton goods made to special physical requirements established by the buyer, (2) cotton goods of demonstrably superior quality, and (3) window-shade cloth.

((a) amended by Amendment 11, F.R. 155)

(b) (1) Determination of maximum prices.[3] Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, and subject to the qualifications contained in paragraph (c) of this section, the maximum price for cotton goods shall be determined on the basis of the spot cotton price[4] of the business day immediately preceding that on which the contract of sale is made, regardless of any change in the spot cotton price subsequent thereto: Provided, That:

(i) Where the contract of sale was made on or before July 20, 1941, the maximum price shall be determined on the basis of a spot cotton price of 15.99 cents per pound;

(ii) For deliveries of woven tickings against contracts entered into prior to March 9, 1942, the maximum price shall be determined on the basis of a spot cotton price of 19.28 cents per pound; and

((3) amended by Amendment 3)

(4) Maximum price tables. In addition to the maximum prices set forth in the following tables, the following premiums for special manufacturing processes may be charged. None of the premiums allowable hereunder is applicable, however, to osnaburgs delivered against contracts entered into prior to January 23, 1942, or to print cloths of Class B or C; to any fabric excepted below; or to any fabric which, in its standard construction, is normally manufactured by means of the process on which such premium is predicated.

[3] Except as otherwise provided in this Revised Price Schedule No. 35, this method of determining the maximum price shall be used in connection with deliveries and transfers pursuant to contracts of sales made before, as well as on or after, the applicable ceiling date.

Sales under "open-price" contracts, pursuant to which the price is to be determined as of a date subsequent to that on which the contract is entered into, are permissible hereunder: Provided, That the contract (1) specifies the quantity of goods to be delivered and (2) fixes the exact date upon which the price is to be settled. In connection with such contracts the date on which the price is settled shall be regarded, for purposes of paragraph (b), as the day on which the sale or contract of sale is made.

[4] As used herein, the term "spot cotton price" means the average, published daily by the United States Department of Agriculture, of the price quotations for middling 15/16-inch cotton on ten designated spot markets.

(c) (1) In addition to the maximum prices set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) a premium may be demanded, charged, paid or accepted for cotton goods (other than those named in subparagraphs (4) and (5) below) made pursuant to specifications furnished by the buyer establishing special physical requirements which cannot be met by the most nearly comparable goods of commercial quality: Provided, That, except in accordance with permission granted under § 1316.61 (c) (3):

(2) [Revoked by Amendment 12]

(3) Application may be made by any buyer, or, where goods have been sold but not delivered prior to the applicable ceiling date, by any seller, to the Office of Price Administration for permission to pay or accept, in addition to the maximum prices appearing in paragraphs (a) or (b), a premium for (i) cotton goods made to such buyer's specifications issued on or after July 21, 1941; (ii) specification goods of a kind not manufactured by a seller during the 12 months immediately prior to June 1941 and for which the buyer considers it fair to pay such seller a premium of more than 5 per cent over the otherwise applicable maximum price; or (iii) specification goods of a kind manufactured and sold by a seller during the 12 months immediately prior to June 1941 under such circumstances that the highest differential in price charged (in cents over the then prevailing market price of the most nearly comparable goods of commercial quality) by such seller during said 12-month period does not represent a fair and equitable return for the additional manufacturing cost entailed in meeting the specifications for such goods. ((3) amended by Amendment 10, 7 F.R. 8937)

Such application, which shall be sworn to before a notary public, shall be accompanied by a yard-long sample of the fabric in its full width and shall state in detail (i) the construction of the cloth, including the width, thread count, and weight, and, with respect to both the warp and filling yarns, the yarn number and the staple, grade, and kind of cotton used; (ii) the specifications, if any, to which the goods are made; (iii) the use to which the goods are to be put; (iv) the reasons, if any, why goods of staple commercial quality would not be satisfactory for such use; and (v) the person or persons, if any, from whom the goods were purchased and the premiums, if any, paid (in cents over the prevailing market prices of the most nearly comparable goods of commercial quality) for such goods during the 3 years preceding the application. No permission will be granted hereunder unless it is shown that it is essential to the buyer's business to obtain goods of the type for which he seeks to pay a premium and that the seller is entitled to receive a premium for such goods, and unless the Administrator finds that production of such goods would not be inconsistent with the interests of national defense. Permission granted to any buyer or to any seller hereunder will constitute authority for the other to accept or pay, as the case may be, the premium approved therein. In granting any permission hereunder the Office of Price Administration will require appropriate reports to be filed by the buyer and seller.

[Note: Supplementary Order No. 23, (7 F.R. 8478) provides that on and after October 24, 1942, no report filed with the Office of Price Administration pursuant to any price regulation need be notarized.]

(iv) The maximum prices established in this subparagraph may not be increased by reason of any charge for containers other than the container differentials set forth herein, except that where sales of shellac varnish are made to the United States or any agency thereof, if the contract of sale requires special packaging, an additional charge may be made for the actual cost of such packaging provided that it is separately stated on the invoice.

(v) Notification to retailers by sellers determining maximum prices under subdivision (i) and (ii). Any seller who determines his maximum price for shellac varnish under subdivisions (i) and (ii) shall deliver invoices to retailers covering sales subject to this subparagraph (67) to § 1499.73 (a), and at the time of delivery attach to his first invoice to each such retailer on any sale at a price so determined a notice as follows:

The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum price on (manufacturer inserts description of shellac varnish herein) shellac varnish, -- pound cut, from (manufacturer inserts old price) to (manufacturer inserts new price) per (manufacturer inserts container size). This increase represents only that part of cost increases which we are unable to absorb. Retailers are authorized to, (a) maintain their March 1942 ceiling price on such shellac varnish, or (b) determine a ceiling price by multiplying the current net delivered cost to such retailer by 1.50, whichever is higher. If such retailer repackages this shellac in smaller packages and also elects to determine a new ceiling price, according to the method provided under (b) above, he may add the appropriate differential from the following list before multiplying by 1.50:

CONTAINER DIFFERENTIALS

Container	Size	Differential Per Gallon
⅛ barrel	25–30 gallon	$.05
Wooden container	5–15 gallon	.15

The Office of Price Administration requires retailers to keep this notice for examination.

PART 1351—FOODS AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[RPS 91,[1] as Amended February 11, 1943]

TEA

A new paragraph (i) is added to § 1351.261, and a new item is added to the list in § 1351.260a, so that Revised Price Schedule No. 91 as amended by Amendment 5, February 11, 1943, shall read as follows:

Wholesale prices of tea, which had remained fairly stable during the four months previous to the outbreak of war on December 7, 1941, have increased sharply since that date. This increase has occurred in spite of substantial stocks of tea in the United States and continued large imports after the outbreak of war. The primary cause of the price rise has been a speculative markup of inventories by importers and brokers in anticipation of a shortage of shipping space available for tea. Studies made by this Office show that the prices prevailing from October 1 to October 15, 1941, are fair and equitable to producers and consumers and, in view of the actual cost of tea on hand in this country, form a satisfactory basis for trading. The establishment of maximum prices at this level will, therefore, remove unfair speculative profits, achieve price stability, and prevent further unwarranted price increases.

Should unwarranted price rises occur at stages of distribution not covered by Price Schedule No. 91, appropriate action will be taken by this Office.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 8734, it is hereby directed that:

Sec.

§ 1351.251 Maximum prices for tea. On and after February 3, 1942, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment, except as provided in § 1351.254 hereof, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer tea, and no person shall buy, offer to buy, or accept delivery of tea at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as § 1351.261.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that the prohibition contained in any price regulation against buying or receiving any commodity or service at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by such regulation shall not apply to any war procurement agency, or government whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9804) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 34 (7 F.R. 10779) permits special packing expenses to be added to maximum prices on sales to procurement agencies of the United States.]

§ 1351.252 Exempt sales. Sales of tea, blended or unblended, in packages of less than half chest lots shall be excepted from the operation of this Schedule.

(§ 1351.252 amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 1857)

§ 1351.253 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than the maximum prices established by Revised Price Schedule No. 91 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1351.254 Permission to carry out contracts entered into prior to February 3, 1942. Any person who, prior to February 3, 1942, has entered into a contract of sale or other firm commitment calling for the delivery or transfer after that date, of tea, at prices higher than the maximum prices established by Revised Price Schedule No. 91 may petition the Office of Price Administration for permission to deliver such tea at its actual cost. Such petition shall be made and filed pursuant to the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1 [2] issued by the Office of Price Administration and shall be supported by affidavits setting forth (a) the name and address of the buyer and seller; (b) the quantity, type, and grade of tea involved; (c) the cost of that tea to the applicant; (d) the price contracted for with the buyer; and (e) the delivery date provided for in the contract. Permission will be granted only when necessary to protect the applicant against loss in the disposition of inventory acquired prior to February 3, 1942, at prices higher than the established maximum prices and held by the applicant on that date. Such application must be filed with the Office of Price Administration on or before April 1, 1942. No permission will be granted, in any case, to make delivery of tea on or after June 1, 1942, at prices higher than the established maximum prices.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

[Docket No. A-1452]

PETITION OF BITUMINOUS COAL CONSUMER'S COUNSEL

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER ADOPTING PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT, ETC.

In the matter of the petition of Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel for amendment of the marketing rules and regulations.

Memorandum opinion and order modifying and adopting as modified the proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law, and recommendations of the examiner and granting relief.

This proceeding was instituted on a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on May 13, 1942, by Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, seeking a change in Rule 1 (J) of section VII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations. The original petition, filed by Consumers' Counsel on May 13, 1942, requested only that Rule 1 (J) be amended to provide that "interest need not be charged on shipments to the War Department for the duration of the war and for six months thereafter." In accordance with the prayer of the petition and following an informal conference, the relief requested by Consumers' Counsel, limited to the War Department for the duration of the war and six months thereafter, was granted temporarily, pending final disposition of the petition.

In the Notice of and Order for Hearing, dated June 10, 1942, the issue raised by the original petition was broadened by the Director to include the propriety of amending Rules 1 (I) and (J) as to any particular agency of the Federal Government or of a state or local government because of its difficulties in making prompt payments for coal or transportation charges, or both, by reasons imposed by law or otherwise.

Thereupon the City of Chicago, a political subdivision of the State of Illinois, filed its petition of intervention, requesting that Rule 1 (J) be amended to permit payment by the City of Chicago of invoices for prepaid transportation charges at the time it is required to pay the invoices for the coal upon which such freight charges were prepaid. The City of Chicago also requested such other and further relief in the premises as may be proper.

Petitions of intervention were also filed by the Bituminous Coal Producers' Boards for Districts Nos. 1, 2, 7, 8 and 10.

A hearing in this matter was duly held before Scott A. Dahlquist, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C., at which all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard, and at which the petitioner and all intervening parties appeared. An appearance was also entered for the Navy Department. Consumers' Counsel availed itself of the opportunity presented by the enlarged scope of the hearing and introduced evidence relating to agencies other than the War Department. Thus evidence was adduced to show difficulties in compliance with the rules involved in connection with purchases of coal by Procurement Division, the Department of Agriculture, Immigration Service, Department of Justice, Federal Works Agency, Public Health Service, War Department, Navy, Tennessee Valley Authority, Department of the Interior, Veterans' Administration, Post Office Department and others.

On September 11, 1942, the Examiner made and entered herein his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendations.

Rule 1 (I) relates to the terms of payment of an account for the sale of coal and provides for the payment of interest in the circumstances set forth in the Rule. Rule 1 (J) relates to the prepayment of transportation charges and provides that the seller shall charge and the purchaser shall pay interest on the amount of such prepayment under circumstances set forth. The Examiner found and recommended that the Rules should be amended to the extent that Rule 1 (I) and the interest provisions of Rule 1 (J) should not apply to sales of coal to Federal, State or local Governments or agencies thereof.

An opportunity was afforded to all interested parties to file exceptions to the Examiner's Report, and supporting briefs, and District Board No. 1 filed exceptions together with a brief in support thereof. In its brief, District Board No. 1 objected to the generality of the relief recommended. It contended that the exemption accorded the United States Government and agencies thereof should be limited and that State and local Governments and agencies thereof should not be exempted from the operation of the Rules. There was no objection to the Examiner's Findings and Conclusions as they related to the City of Chicago.

I find that the evidence supports the conclusions and recommendations of the Examiner with respect to the United States Government and agencies thereof. The evidence clearly demonstrates that because of the restrictions imposed on such purchasers by law, the rules in question should not be applied to them.

However, the evidence does not support the Examiner's Recommendation that all State and local Governments or agencies thereof should be exempted from the provisions of the rules.

Evidence on behalf of the City of Chicago, Illinois, shows in detail the manner in which the City is required by law to make purchases and payments and justifies the limited relief from the provisions of Rule 1 (J) which the City requested. The City merely sought the amendment of Rule 1 (J) of section VII to permit payment by the City without liability for interest of prepaid freight charges at the same time as payment is due on the invoices for the coal itself. I find that relief in this respect should be limited to that request; there is no need or justification shown for granting the City general exemption from the provisions of Rules 1 (I) and 1 (J).

Moreover, there is no evidence warranting an extension of the general exemption which is demonstrated as necessary for federal agencies to State and local Governments. The Examiner apparently treated the evidence offered as to the City of Chicago as typical and, on the basis of that evidence, concluded that relief should extend to all State and local Governments. There was no proof offered, however, that conditions governing Chicago were typical nor was there evidence of similarity between Chicago and any State or local Government. Indeed, Consumers' Counsel itself stated that, relying on the remedy afforded to local governments under section 4 II (d), it had "not attempted to introduce evidence regarding the need for relief in so far as the various states and political subdivisions throughout the country are concerned." This is not a situation calling for the application of official knowledge or notice. Even if it were, it may very well be questioned whether regulations governing methods of payment in the case of Chicago would be found to be similar, even in principle, to those applicable to the various states or to the multitudinous local governments. Chicago is the second largest City in the United States. It is well known that such cities are confronted with conditions peculiar to themselves calling for equally peculiar and different treatment of fiscal and administrative affairs.

The Examiner was therefore in error in recommending that State and local Governments and agencies thereof generally be exempted from the provisions of the rules. In that respect the exceptions of District Board No. 1 are well taken and should be sustained. In all other respects the exceptions should be denied.

I find, therefore, that the exceptions of District Board No. 1 should be allowed to the extent indicated. I further find that the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Recommendations of the Examiner should be modified as herein indicated and, as thus modified, approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the Exceptions of District Board No. 1 to the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendations of the Examiner be, and they hereby are, granted to the extent set forth above, and in all other respects are denied.

It is further ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner be, and they hereby are modified as hereinabove set forth and, as thus modified, approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned.

It is further ordered, That Rule 1 (I) of section VII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations be, and the same hereby is, modified and amended to read as follows:

(I) Unless payment of an account for the sale of coal is received by the seller within ten (10) days after the due date of such an account as provided in these marketing Rules and Regulations, the seller shall charge and the buyer shall pay interest from and after the due date of the account at the rate of not less than five (5%) per centum per annum on the invoice price of the coal sold: Provided, however, That no interest need be charged on the account by the seller unless such interest exceeds fifty (50¢) cents on the total purchases for any one month, except where an account remains unpaid thirty (30) days after the due date thereof interest must be charged from the due date, regardless of the amount of such interest: Provided further, That in the case of sales made to State or local Governments, or any agency thereof, interest need not be paid at a rate in excess of, but shall be paid at a rate of not less than that prescribed by applicable statutes or rules as the maximum rate of interest governing such payments, where that prescribed maximum is less than five (5%) per centum per annum: And provided further, That the provisions of this Rule shall not apply in the case of sales made to the Federal Government or any agency thereof.

It is further ordered, That the last sentence of Rule 1 (J) of section VII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations be amended to read as follows:

(J) * * * Where the transportation charges are thus prepaid, the amount thereof shall, immediately upon receipt of the freight bill or notice of sight draft payment be invoiced to the buyer for immediate payment and unless payment for such transportation charges is received by the seller within ten (10) days from the date of the invoice, the seller shall charge and the buyer shall pay interest at the rate of five (5%) per centum per annum from the due date commencing on the day following the date payment is due, except as otherwise provided in the minimum price schedule: Provided, however, That in the case of sales made to State or local Governments, or any agency thereof, interest need not be paid at a rate in excess of, but shall be paid at a rate of not less than that prescribed by applicable statutes or rules as the maximum rate of interest governing such payments, where that prescribed maximum is less than five (5%) per centum per annum; Provided further, That in the case of sales made to the City of Chicago, interest need not be charged and paid unless payment for such transportation charges is not received by the seller on or before the date of payment as provided in this Rule on invoices for the coal sold; and Provided further, That no such charge or payment of interest is required in the case of sales made to the Federal Government or any agency thereof.

4. As of September 30, 1942, fixed capital, per books, amounted to $5,854,325.07. As of the same date the retirement reserve amounted to $474,930.22; thus the net fixed capital, per books, amounted to $5,379,934.85.

5. Included in the electric fixed capital account of the company are certain items which have been classified by the company as Electric Plant Adjustments (F. P. C. Account No. 107). These total $688,302.35.

Also included in the electric fixed capital account of the company are certain items which have been classified by the company as credits to Electric Plant Acquisition Adjustments (F. P. C. Account No. 100.5). These credit items total $201,923.25.

6. There appears below a tabulation setting forth, as of September 30, 1942, per books, the gross fixed capital account and the depreciable property segregated by classes of utilities, the retirement reserve, and a calculation of the net fixed capital and the percentage of the retirement reserve to gross depreciable fixed capital:

	Gross book value	Gross book value of depreciable property
Fixed capital:
Electric	$4,520,114.94	$3,656,976.77
Water	85,347.21	80,269.67
Ice	1,139,321.03	880,587.86
Construction work in progress	109,541.89
Total	5,854,325.07	4,617,834.30
Reserve for retirements	474,930.22	474,930.22
Net fixed capital	5,379,394.85

Percent of reserve to gross depreciable fixed capital, 10.28.

7. The gross book value of the ice property, as of September 30, 1942, was recorded at $1,139,321.03. This property is leased until June 1, 1950 to a non-affiliated corporation. The book amount has been calculated by the company to be not less than $787,486.03 in excess of the present value of the estimated rentals to be received during the term of the lease period, less expenses applicable thereto, plus the salvage or going concern value of the ice property at the end of the lease period.

8. No dividends have been paid on the $6 Cumulative Preferred stock of the company since February 15, 1934. As of September 30, 1942, the accumulated undeclared dividend arrearages on this class of stock amounted to $51.75 per share, or a total of $544,772.25. Of this amount the arrearages applicable to the 6,327 shares held by the public amounted to $327,422.25, and the arrearages applicable to the 4,200 shares held by General Gas & Electric Corporation amounted to $217,350.

9. No dividends have been paid on the common stock of the company since February 1932.

10. As of September 30, 1942, capital surplus was carried on the books of the company at $66,835.89 and represented primarily the difference between the recorded amount of net assets acquired and the consideration paid for the same. On the same date the earned surplus account was carried on the books as a deficit of $55,187.90.

11. According to calculations of the company, if a transfer from the fixed capital account to the retirement reserve is made of items which have been classified by the company as credits to Electric Plant Acquisition Adjustments (F. P. C. Account No. 100.5), amounting to $201,923.25, the retirement reserve, as of September 30, 1942, will remain inadequate by not less than $96,113.53. Increasing the retirement reserve by this latter amount will correspondingly increase the deficit in the earned surplus account.

12. The 4,200 shares of preferred stock of Georgia Power and Light Company owned by its parent, General Gas & Electric Corporation, were acquired in April, 1942, for a cash consideration of $75,600, the said consideration being equivalent to $18 per share.

13. Writing off the Electric Plant Adjustments (F. P. C. Account No. 107) in the amount of $688,302.35, reducing the carrying value of the ice property from the book amount of $1,139,321.03 to an estimated present value of $351,835.00, increasing the retirement reserve by the charge to earned surplus (deficit) in the amount of $96,113.53, setting up the entire amount of preferred stock at its liquidating value of $1,052,700 in lieu of the stated value of $952,986.79, and provision for cumulative dividend arrearages of $544,772.25 on the entire amount of preferred stock would increase the earned surplus deficit, as of September 30, 1942, from the book figure of $55,187.90 to $2,271,575.27. As of the same date, the common stock and capital surplus accounts, per books, amounted to $1,462,770.00 and $66,835.89, respectively. The total of these two amounts was $1,529,605.89, which is less than the adjusted earned surplus deficit of $2,271,575.27. This indicates that there would then be no asset value for the common stock.

14. Setting up only the publicly-held preferred stock at the liquidating value of $632,700 and the parent-held preferred stock at its acquisition cost of $75,600, and providing for cumulative dividend arrearages of $327,422.25 on only the publicly-held preferred stock, plus the other adjustments set forth in Paragraph 13 pertaining to the fixed property and retirement reserve accounts, would increase the earned surplus deficit, as of September 30, 1942, from the book figure of $55,187.90 to $1,709,825.27. As of the same date, the common stock and capital surplus accounts, per books, totaled $1,529,605.89 (as indicated in Paragraph 13 above), which is less than the adjusted earned surplus deficit of $1,709,825.27. This indicates that there would then be no asset value for the common stock.

15. Set forth below is the capital structure, including surplus, of Georgia Power and Light Company, per books, as of September 30, 1942, and adjusted to give effect to (a) the write-off of Electric Plant Adjustments (F.P.C. Account No. 107), (b) the reduction in the book value of the ice property, (c) the increase in the retirement reserve, (d) setting up the entire preferred stock at liquidation value, and (e) setting up cumulative dividends in arrears on the entire amount of preferred stock. This adjusted capital structure is further adjusted to set forth only the publicly-held preferred stock at liquidation value including arrearages, and the parent-held preferred stock at acquisition cost.

[1] "Preferred stock and arrears" reflects liquidation value of $100 per share and arrears of $51.75 per share for all preferred shares.

[2] "Preferred stock and arrears" reflects liquidation value of $100 per share and arrears of $51.75 per share for publicly held preferred shares, and $75,600 to parent, General Gas & Electric Corporation, for 4,200 shares, or $18 per share. No interest on said parent's preferred stock investment cost is reflected (if any be allowable) in lieu of dividends.

16. As of September 30, 1942, the ratio of total debt to net fixed property, per books, adjusted to reflect the write-off of Electric Plant Adjustments (as described in paragraph 5 above), the increase in the retirement reserve (as described in Paragraph 11 above), and the reduction in the book value of the ice property (as described in paragraph 7 above), amounted to 83.46%.

17. As of September 30, 1942, the ratio of total debt and preferred stock at liquidation value for all shares, including dividend arrears, to total net fixed property, adjusted as indicated in Paragraph 16 above, plus other net assets, including deferred debits, amounted to 118.36%. This indicates that there would then remain no asset value for the common stock.

18. As of September 30, 1942, after adjustment to reflect liquidation value and dividend arrears thereon for only the publicly held preferred stock and to reflect acquisition cost to General Gas & Electric Corporation for its preferred stock holdings, the ratio of total debt and preferred stock to the total of net fixed property, adjusted as indicated in Paragraph 16 above, plus other net assets, including deferred debits, amounted to 104.44%. This indicates that there would then remain no asset value for the common stock.

20. Except for the purpose of electing directors, all of the voting power of Georgia Power and Light Company is vested in the common stock, all of which is held by General Gas & Electric Corporation. For the purpose of electing the Board of Directors, the preferred stock votes share for share with the common stock as follows:

Class of stock	Number of votes	Percent of voting power
Preferred stock in the hands of the public	6,327	19.7
Preferred stock owned by General Gas & Electric Corporation	4,200	13.0
Common stock, all owned by General Gas & Electric Corporation	21,650	67.3
Total number of votes	32,177	100.0

It appears that on December 4, 1942, an application-declaration was filed by the above named respondents and Florida Power Corporation, Florida Public Service Company, Sanford Gas Company, and Santa Fe Land Company (File No. 70-641), proposing certain transactions, as part of which Florida Public Service Company, Sanford Gas Company and Santa Fe Land Company would be merged into Florida Power Corporation. The filing further proposes that the merged company will authorize a new series of preferred stock, designated 6% preferred stock, $50 par value, to be issued only in exchange for $6 no par preferred stock of Georgia Power and Light Company held by the public, on a share for share basis, such offer to be conditioned upon acceptance by 95% (or such smaller percentage as may be determined by the merged company from time to time, but not less than 75%) of all shares of the outstanding preferred stock of Georgia Power and Light Company within a reasonable time. The proposal is also made that, upon the consummation of the exchanges referred to, respondent, General Gas & Electric Corporation, will sell to the merged company for $1 all of its holdings of the common stock (21,650 shares) and its 4,200 shares of $6 preferred stock of Georgia Power and Light Company. It is further proposed, as a part of the said application-declaration, that when, as and if the merged company shall have acquired not less than 10,211 shares of Georgia Power and Light Company preferred stock, the entire amount of preferred stock so acquired and 5,000 shares of common stock will be returned to Georgia Power and Light Company for cancellation.

The said application-declaration also proposes that Georgia Power and Light Company will record on its books the original cost of its Electric Fixed Capital as determined by the company, and the difference (amounting to $688,302.35) between this amount and the amount of its Electric Fixed Capital as stated upon its books will be charged to the deficit in the Earned Surplus Account and thence to Capital Surplus; it would also create a reserve (in the sum of $787,486.03) for the amount by which its Ice Fixed Capital exceeds the present value of such ice property, the present value being calculated by discounting at 5% the estimated lease rentals to be received for the remainder of the lease, plus the estimated salvage or going concern value of the ice property at the end of the lease.

The said application-declaration further proposes that Georgia Power and Light Company will add to its Reserve for Depreciation of Fixed Capital the sum of $298,036.78, by transferring from the Electric Fixed Capital account certain items presently classified by the company as credits to Electric Plant Acquisition Adjustments (F. P. C. Account No. 100.5) in the sum of $201,923.25 and by charging the sum of $96,113.53 to Earned Surplus, thereby increasing the Earned Surplus deficit by a like amount.

The said application-declaration further proposes that the respondent, General Gas & Electric Corporation, contribute to the merged company and the merged company in turn contribute to the respondent, Georgia Power and Light Company, $300,000 in cash, which, with $50,000 or more of Georgia Power and Light Company's own funds, will be applied by the respondent, Georgia Power and Light Company to the retirement of its First Mortgage Bonds.

The capitalization of Georgia Power and Light Company, as of September 30, 1942, after giving effect to the transactions proposed in the application-declaration referred to above, would be as follows:

First Mortgage 5% Bonds, due 1978	$2,760,500.00
Serial notes payable to R. E. A. (due serially after one year)	67,174.95
Common stock—16,650 shares, no par value	1,123,875.00
Capital surplus	1,886.27
Total Capitalization and Surplus	3,953,436.22

It therefore appearing to the Commission, in the light of the foregoing, that it is appropriate and in the public interest, and in the interest of investors and consumers, to institute proceedings against Georgia Power and Light Company and General Gas & Electric Corporation, under sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, to determine whether certain orders should be entered pursuant to the provisions of said sections:

It is hereby ordered, That proceedings be instituted pursuant to sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of the Act and that Georgia Power and Light Company and General Gas & Electric Corporation are hereby made Respondents in these proceedings, and said Respondents shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before the 1st day of March, 1943, their answers admitting, denying or otherwise explaining their positions with respect to the allegations heretofore made in Paragraphs 1 to 20 of this order. Such answers may also include a statement by Respondents of their views as to what action, if any, should be taken to bring about a fair and equitable distribution of voting power among the security holders of Georgia Power and Light Company; to restate the fixed property account, retirement reserve, capital accounts, surplus and other accounts, so as to segregate, dispose of, and eliminate write-ups and other inflationary items in the fixed capital and other accounts, set up adequate reserves for depreciation of fixed property, and make other adjustments in conformity with the standards of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, with respect to Georgia Power and Light Company; and to take such other action as may be necessary or appropriate under the provisions of sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of said Act with respect to said Respondents.

It appearing that the above-named Respondents have joined in the filing of an application-declaration (File No. 70-641), and that certain phases of the said application-declaration relate to the reorganization of Georgia Power and Light Company; and a hearing having been ordered by this Commission on the said application-declaration, and hearings having been held before a trial examiner, further hearings in the proceeding having been continued indefinitely; and

It further appearing that the proceedings embraced by File No. 70–641 and the present matter are related, and that evidence offered in respect to such proceedings may have a bearing upon the matter which is the subject of this notice under sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a), and that substantial savings of time and expense will result if the matters are consolidated;

It is hereby ordered, That such proceedings in File No. 70–641 are consolidated with the present proceeding in File No. 59–62; and

It is further ordered, That a hearing be held on the 9th day of March, 1943, at 10 o'clock a. m., E. W. T., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on such date by the hearing room clerk in room 318. At such hearing, in addition to the issues presented by the application-declaration bearing File No. 70–641, (as set forth in Holding Company Act Release No. 3996), and without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the matters in the consolidated proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the within hearing for the purpose of determining the following matters and questions:

1. Whether voting power is unfairly or inequitably distributed among security holders of Georgia Power and Light Company;

2. What action, if any, is necessary and should be required to be taken by Georgia Power and Light Company, for the purpose of effecting an equitable distribution of voting power among its security holders;

3. What action, if any, is necessary and should be required to be taken by General Gas & Electric Corporation to ensure that the corporate structure of the holding company system, insofar as the relationship of General Gas & Electric Corporation and Georgia Power and Light Company is concerned, is not unduly complicated;

4. What action shall be taken to limit the participation of General Gas & Electric Corporation as a holder of preferred stock of Georgia Power and Light Company to the amount of the acquisition cost thereof;

5. What action, if any, is necessary and should be required to be taken by Georgia Power and Light Company to restate its fixed property account, retirement reserve, capital accounts, and surplus and other accounts, so as to segregate, dispose of, and eliminate write-ups and other inflationary items in the fixed property or other accounts, set up adequate reserves for depreciation of plant and property, and make other adjustments in conformity with the standards of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and

6. What other or further action, if any, should be required to be taken by the Respondents to meet the requirements of the applicable Sections of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and more especially the requirements of sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of the Act.

At the outset of said hearing, consideration will be given to such issues, if any, as may arise from the allegations in Paragraphs 1 to 20 hereof, in Respondents' Answers hereinbefore provided for, and in any other papers filed herein by interested persons. To the extent that any allegations set forth above are not controverted in the Respondents' Answers and are not controverted by any other interested person, such facts shall be deemed to be admitted for the purposes of this proceeding.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to Georgia Power and Light Company and to General Gas & Electric Corporation, Respondents, not less than 15 days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed within which Respondents may file their answers; and that notice of the entry of this order and of said hearing is hereby given to all security holders of Georgia Power and Light Company and of General Gas & Electric Corporation, to all consumers of said Georgia Power and Light Company, to all States, municipalities and political subdivisions of States within which are located any of the utility assets of Georgia Power and Light Company, to all State commissions, State securities commissions and all agencies, authorities or instrumentalities of one or more States, municipalities or other political subdivisions having jurisdiction over Georgia Power and Light Company, or over any of the businesses, affairs or operations of said Respondents, and to all other persons, such notice to be given by a general release of the Commission distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER not later than 15 days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed within which Respondents may file their answers.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, either for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues or questions which may arise in these proceedings, and to take such other action as may appear necessary to the orderly and economical disposition of the issues involved.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

POLICY ON NON-DEFERRABLE ACTIVITIES AND OCCUPATIONS

The majority of all registrants of military age are now deferred from military training and service under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, on grounds of dependency without regard to occupation. Some of these registrants are engaged in activities or occupations not essential to the war effort—activities and occupations which cannot in time of war be considered as entitled to share manpower with the armed forces. Deferment of such registrants from military service on the grounds of dependency can no longer be permitted if the manpower requirements of our armed forces and of essential civilian activities are to be met.

To the end that the maximum number of physically qualified registrants may be made available for military service in the armed forces with the minimum disruption of war production, agriculture and other essential civilian activities, I do hereby declare the following policy:

I. Except as may be necessary to avoid undue hardship in exceptional cases, no person registered under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, who is of military age, and who, on or after April 1, 1943, is engaged in an activity or occupation designated by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission as a "non-deferrable" activity or occupation, or who is not on or after that date normally engaged in any activity or endeavor, may be deferred from training and service under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, on grounds of dependency.

II. The Chairman shall from time to time designate, and modify prior designations of, activities or occupations, or both, found by him to be non-deferrable activities or occupations for the purposes of this policy.

PAUL V. MCNUTT,
Chairman.

§ 53.21 Disposition of certificates. The original certificate, and not to exceed two copies, shall be delivered or mailed immediately to the applicant or a person designated by him. One copy shall be filed in the office of the official grader and one copy forwarded to the Director. Copies of certificates shall be kept on file until other disposition is ordered by the Director. Copies will be furnished to other financially interested parties as outlined in § 53.41 (d).

§ 53.22 Advance information. Upon request of an applicant, all or any part of the contents of the certificate may be transmitted by telegraph or telephone to him, or to any person designated by him, at his expense.

GRADE IDENTIFICATION

§ 53.23 Evidence of grade. As evidence to applicants, purchasers, consumers and others of the class, quality (grade), or condition of products graded under the act, all such products or the immediate and shipping containers thereof shall bear a mark or marks when and as required by the Director, which shall show in plain, prominently displayed characters the true grades of such products in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(a) Products officially graded shall be identified for grade. Products graded under the act and in accordance with the regulations in this part shall be stamped, branded, or otherwise marked with appropriate grade-identifying device bearing a name or symbol to show the true grade of such products according to the U. S. standards, or their compliance with specifications, except that such marks may not be required when an applicant desires official certificates only for class, quality (grade), or condition.

(b) Supervision of grade identifications. Official graders shall stamp, brand, label, tag, seal, or otherwise identify the correct grade on products or supervise such operations when they are performed by others.

(c) Grade-identifying devices. The Director may authorize or approve devices for branding, stamping, or imprinting the official grade on products or the containers thereof or for indicating the compliance of such products with specifications.

(d) What grade-identification device shall show. Each grade-identifying device shall bear a name or appropriate symbol approved by the Director clearly indicating the grade of the product, as determined by an official grader, and such other marks or symbols as may be required by the Director for service identification purposes.

(e) Name or trade mark of applicant may be used on grade-identifying device. Subject to the approval of the Director, the name or trade mark, or both, of an applicant may be included as inserts in a grade-identifying device in such form and order as the Director may approve. Such inserts shall be furnished by the applicant without cost to the Administration.

§ 53.24 Custody of grade-identifying devices. All grade-identifying devices including those indicating compliance with specifications approved by the Director shall be kept in the custody of the Administration and accurate records shall be kept by the Administration of all grade-identifying and other related devices. Each office of grading shall keep a record also of the devices assigned to it. Such devices shall be distributed only by authorized employees of the Administration who shall maintain complete records of same.

§ 53.25 Alteration or imitation of grade-identifying devices forbidden. No brand, stamp, tag or other grade-identifying device, or any words, symbols or legends thereof authorized in this part for use of official graders to indicate the Federal grades shall be altered, defaced, imitated or simulated in any respect and used for the purpose of misrepresentation or deception. (See § 53.44.)

APPEAL GRADING

§ 53.26 When appeal may be made. A request for appeal grading may be made by any financially interested party whenever he is dissatisfied with the class, quality (grade), or condition as shown on the officially graded and identified product or as stated in the applicable certificate.

§ 53.27 How to obtain appeal grading. Appeal grading may be obtained by filing a request for same with the Director (a) direct, or (b) through the official in charge of the meat grading service at nearest designated market, or (c) through the grader who did the original grading. The request for appeal grading shall state the reasons therefor, and may be accompanied by a copy of any previous grading certificate or report, or any other information which the applicant may have received regarding the product at the time of the original grading. Such request may be made orally, in writing, by telegraph, telephone, or otherwise. If made orally, the person receiving the request may require that it be confirmed in writing as specified in §§ 53.9 and 53.10. Requests for appeal grading received through the office of grading or an official grader shall be transmitted promptly to the Director for instructions.

§ 53.28 When appeal may be refused. If it shall appear that the reasons stated in a request for appeal grading are frivolous or unsubstantial, or that the quality or condition of the products has undergone a material change since the original grading, or that the products cannot be made accessible for thorough examination and grading, or that the identity has been lost, or that the regulations in this part have not been complied with, the request may be refused.

§ 53.29 When appeal may be withdrawn. A request for appeal grading may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the regrading has been performed upon payment of any expenses incurred by the Administration in connection therewith.

§ 53.30 Order in which appeal gradings shall be made. Appeal gradings shall be performed as far as practicable in the order in which requests are received. They shall take precedence over all other pending grading requests.

§ 53.31 Who shall make appeal gradings. Appeal grading of products shall be made by official graders designated therefor by the Director or by the person in charge of an office of grading when so authorized by the Director, and such grading shall be conducted jointly by two official graders when practicable. No official grader shall pass upon the correctness of his own grading or of a certificate issued by him.

§ 53.32 Appeal grading certificate. Immediately after an appeal grading has been made a certificate designated or marked as "appeal grading certificate" shall be prepared, signed, and issued referring specifically to the original certificate and stating the class, quality (grade), or condition of the product as shown by the appeal grading. In all other respects the provisions of §§ 53.6 to 53.22 shall apply to such appeal grading certificates except that if the applicant for appeal grading be not the original applicant, a copy of the appeal grading certificate shall be mailed to the original applicant.

§ 53.33 Superseded certificate. When an original grading certificate shall have been superseded by an appeal grading certificate, the original grading certificate shall become null and void and shall not thereafter represent the class, quality, or condition of the product described therein. If the original and all copies of the superseded certificate are not delivered to the person with whom the application for appeal is filed, the officer or officers issuing the appeal grading certificate shall forward notice of such issuance and of the cancelation of the original certificate to such persons as he considers necessary to prevent fraudulent use of the canceled certificate.

§ 53.34 When request for regrading is not an appeal. Gradings requested to determine the condition of products which have been graded previously and which may have undergone material change since the original grading shall not be considered appeal gradings within the meaning of this section. Regrading requested for the purpose of obtaining an up-to-date certificate and not involving any question as to the correctness of the original certificate covering the products in question, shall not be considered appeal grading within the meaning of §§ 53.26 to 53.34.

LICENSED GRADERS

§ 53.35 Who may be licensed as graders. Persons showing proper qualifications may be licensed by the Secretary as graders of products which may be graded under the act. Such license shall be countersigned by the Chief, Livestock Branch, or by other official designated by him.

§ 53.36 Suspension of license. Any license may be suspended, pending final action by the Secretary, by the Director, or by the Chief of the Livestock Branch whenever such official shall deem such action to be for the good of the service. Within 7 days after any such suspension the licensee may file an appeal in writing to the Secretary, supported by any argument or evidence that he may wish to submit in his behalf.

§ 53.37 Applicant to be examined for competency. Each applicant for a license shall be examined as directed by the Director for the purpose of determining his competency, at such times and places and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Director or by any officer of the Administration designated by him for the purpose.

§ 53.38 License, property of Department. Each license shall be the property of the Department, but the licensee to whom issued, except as provided in § 53.36, shall have the right to the possession thereof.

§ 53.39 Return of license. If any license shall have been superseded, suspended, canceled, or revoked the same shall be returned to the Secretary through its office of grading to which the licensee is assigned.

§ 53.40 Conditions governing license. Each licensed grader shall be governed by the rules and regulations in this part and be under the supervision of official graders designated by the Director as supervisors of grading.

CHARGES FOR GRADING SERVICES

§ 53.41 Fees and costs. A charge shall be made and collected in the form of fees for services rendered, at rates established herein, to cover the cost of maintaining the service as specified below.

(a) Basis for charges. Fees and charges for grading services at designated markets shall be based on the actual time required to render the services, including the time required for travel of the official grader in connection therewith, at the rate of two dollars and twenty cents ($2.20) per hour for each official grader assigned, unless otherwise provided by special agreement approved by the Director: Provided, That no grading services shall be rendered for less than a minimum charge of one dollar and ten cents ($1.10): And provided further, That the Director may, in lieu of the fixed charge of $2.20 per hour, fix other reasonable charges for the grading and certification of products at rates that, in his judgment, will cover the costs of the services.

(b) Charges under cooperative agreement. Charges for grading under cooperative agreements shall be those provided herein unless otherwise stipulated in such agreements.

(c) Charges for appeal grading. Fees for appeal grading shall be double those for original grading; except that appeal grading requested by Federal Government agencies shall be at actual cost: Provided, That when on an appeal grading it is found that there was error in the original grading equal to or exceeding 10 percent of the total weight of the products graded, no charge will be made unless special agreement with the applicant is made in advance.

(d) Charges for extra copies of grading certificates. For not to exceed three copies of a certificate to any person financially interested in a product involved in addition to those issued in accordance with § 53.21 the fee shall be one dollar ($1.00).

§ 53.42 How fees shall be paid. Fees and other charges shall be paid by the applicant in accordance with directions on the fee bill furnished him, and in advance if required by the official grader.

§ 53.43 Disposition of fees. Fees and other moneys collected for grading services rendered shall be handled as indicated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

(a) By graders employed by the Department. Fees for grading done by graders exclusively employed by the Department shall be remitted to the Administration by check, draft, or money order made payable to the Treasurer of the United States upon presentation of appropriate billing.

(b) By graders under cooperative agreements. Fees for grading done by graders acting under cooperative agreements with a State or municipal organization, or other cooperating party, shall be handled in accordance with the terms of such agreements.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 53.44 Fraud or misrepresentation. (a) Any willful misrepresentation or any deceptive or fraudulent practice made or committed by any person in connection with the making or filing of an application, the use of a grading, regrading, or appeal grading certificate or of a grade label authorized or approved under the regulations in this part, any fraudulent or unauthorized use or simulation of any official grade stamp, brand, tag, mark, or approved label, or the alteration or imitation of grade-identifying devices (§ 53.25), or any willful violation of the regulations in this part or of the supplementary rules and instructions issued by the Director may be deemed sufficient cause for debarring from any further benefits of the act the person found guilty thereof after opportunity for hearing has been accorded him. Pending investigation and hearing, the Director may, without hearing, direct that such person shall be denied the benefits of the act.

(b) Any official grader who may be a party to any fraud, deception or misrepresentation outlined in this section and in § 53.25, or who may conceal knowledge thereof shall, at the discretion of the Secretary, be dismissed from the Department with prejudice or disciplined according to the gravity of his offense.

§ 53.45 Interfering with a grader. Any further benefits of the act may be denied to an applicant who either personally or through an agent or representative interferes with or obstructs, by intimidation, threats, assault, or any other improper means, a grader in the performance of his duties.

§ 53.46 Identification. All official graders, licensed graders, and supervisors of grading shall have in their possession at all times Administration identification cards and shall identify themselves by such cards on request.

§ 53.47 Correction of errors in grading. When an official grader, supervisor of grading, or other responsible employee of the Administration has evidence of misgrading, or of incorrect grade identification on a product, or of incorrect certification, he shall report same to his immediate superior officer and to the party having possession of the product. The supervisor of grading or the officer in charge of grading shall cause such errors to be corrected.

§ 53.48 Publications. Publications under this part shall be made in the Service and Regulatory Announcements of the Administration and through such other media as the Director may from time to time designate for the purpose.

§ 53.49 Political activity. All official graders and supervisors of grading and others authorized, either by appointment or license from the Secretary to grade and to issue grading certificates under the act and this part are forbidden, during the period of their appointment or license to take an active part in political management or in political campaigns. Political activity in city, county, State, or national elections, whether primary or regular, or in behalf of any party or candidate, or any measure to be voted upon, is prohibited. This applies to all appointees, including temporary and cooperative employees, and employees on leave of absence with or without pay. Willful violation of this section will constitute grounds for dismissal in the case of appointees, and revocation of licenses in the case of licensees.

Chapter X—Food Production Administration

PART 1202—FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

FARM CREAM SEPARATORS

The following is an interpretation of the application of Food Production Order No. 3[1] to farm cream separators which are listed under the heading "Dairy Farm Machines and Equipment" in Schedule I.

INTERPRETATION 9

A question has arisen as to whether the words "Farm cream separators, capacity 251 lbs. to 800 lbs. per hour" include farm cream separators with a capacity of 800 lbs. per hour.

Food Production Order No. 3 is interpreted to include such farm cream separators. In other words, farm cream separators with a capacity of 800 lbs. per hour are subject to the provisions of Food Production Order No. 3 just as farm cream separators with capacities of less than 800 lbs. per hour. Only if a farm cream separator has a capacity of more than 800 lbs. per hour is it excluded from the provisions of Food Production Order No. 3.

Issued this 13th day of February 1943.

Director of Food Production.

Chapter XI—Food Distribution Administration

[Food Directive 3]

PART 1400—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION WITH RESPECT TO FOOD RATIONING

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280 of December 5, 1942, and in order to enable the Office of Price Administration effectively to administer and enforce rationing programs with respect to food, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1400.3 Food Directive 3: control over food. (a) The Office of Price Administration is authorized and directed to perform the functions and exercise the power, authority, and discretion conferred upon the President by Title III of the Second War Powers Act, 1942, with respect to the exercise of control over the sale, transfer, delivery, or other disposition of rationed food by or to any person and over the use of rationed food by any person. In performing such functions and in exercising such power, authority, and discretion, the Office of Price Administration may regulate or prohibit the sale, transfer, delivery, or other disposition of rationed food to, or acquisition or use of rationed food by, any person who has acted in violation of any food rationing or restriction regulation or order prescribed by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The authority herein delegated to the Office of Price Administration shall not include the power to limit or restrict the quantity of rationed food which may be obtained by or for the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, War Shipping Administration, Maritime Commission, Veterans' Administration, or the Food Distribution Administration, or by or for governmental agencies or other persons to the extent to which they acquire such food for export to, or consumption or use in, any foreign country, or by or for such other governmental agencies as the Secretary of Agriculture from time to time may designate.

(c) Nothing contained herein shall affect the authority of the Secretary of Agriculture to determine the need for and the time and extent of civilian food rationing, including the prescription of differential rations and eligibility classifications therefor; to determine supplies of rationed food available for distribution for civilian consumption, including the fixing of individual processor quotas of rationed food available for such distribution; and to control the distribution of non-rationed food to all users.

(d) (1) The term "food" as used herein shall have the same meaning as is given such term by Executive Order No. 9280 of December 5, 1942.

(2) The term "rationed food" as used herein means any food the civilian consumer rationing of which has been authorized by the War Production Board or by the Secretary or which hereafter may be directed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

(3) The term "person" as used herein includes an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(e) This Directive supersedes the delegation of authority to the Office of Price Administration made by War Production Board Directive No. 1, issued by the Chairman of the War Production Board on January 24, 1942 (7 F.R. 562), and by Supplementary Directives No. 1E (7 F.R. 2965), 1-M, (7 F.R. 7234) and 1-R (7 F.R. 9684, 10372), and the delegation of authority to the Office of Price Administration made by Food Directive No. 1 issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on January 16, 1943 (8 F.R. 827), to the extent that such Directives and Supplementary Directives confer authority with respect to control over food: Provided, however, That the existing authority of the Office of Price Administration with respect to control over sugar, meat, coffee, and processed foods, and with respect to control over all materials in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands (7 F.R. 5043, 8731), and the Panama Canal Zone (7 F.R. 7200, 7281) (insofar as such authority relates to control over food), is in all respects hereby ratified, confirmed, and continued in full force and effect as though provided in and made a part of this Directive: And provided further, however, That all action heretofore taken (including, without limitation, regulations or orders heretofore issued) by the Office of Price Administration pursuant to said War Production Board Directive No. 1, said Supplementary Directives, and said Food Directive No. 1 is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed, and the authority delegated by such Directives and Supplementary Directives shall continue to remain in full force and effect with respect to all such action for all purposes, including the purpose of allowing or sustaining any suit, action, prosecution or administrative or other proceeding heretofore or hereafter commenced with respect to any violation heretofore committed or right or liability heretofore incurred under or pursuant to the terms thereof.

(f) Except as is otherwise expressly provided herein, nothing contained herein shall be construed to limit or modify any regulation or order heretofore issued by the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to the authority of Executive Order No. 9280 of December 5, 1942, nor to delegate to the Office of Price Administration the power to extend, amend, or modify any such regulation or order.

(g) This Food Directive No. 3 shall become effective February 15, 1943.

Issued this 15th day of February 1943.

This will be done, however, only where it appears that the oversight represents an isolated instance and not a continued course of neglect. [Docket No. A-462]

PART 324—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 4

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Memorandum opinion and order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board 4 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 4.

An original petition pursuant to section 4, Part II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by the above-named party, requesting, the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines located in District No. 4 not heretofore classified and priced, including the coals produced by Oliver Slay at the Slay Mine, located in Perry County, Ohio, in Subdistrict 6, of District No. 4.

An order granting temporary and conditionally final relief was issued in the above-entitled matter on December 23, 1940, 6 F.R. 122 in which, however, minimum prices and price classifications were not established for the coals of the said Slay Mine, for the reason that it appeared at that time that said petition proposed minimum prices and price classifications for the Slay Mine, Mine Index No. 1011, operated by the said Oliver Slay, Perry County, Ohio, in Subdistrict 6, of District No. 4, for which minimum prices and price classifications had been theretofore established.

However, it now appears that the mine referred to in the original petition was a new mine, also known as the Slay Mine, and also located in Perry County, Subdistrict 6, of District No. 4. Accordingly, the Director is of the opinion that minimum prices and price classifications, both temporary and permanent, should now be established for this new mine, to be retroactively effective as of December 23, 1940, the date upon which the order granting temporary and conditionally final relief was issued in this matter.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That, effective December 23, 1940, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for Truck Shipments, § 324.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas), be, and the same hereby is, amended and supplemented to include the following effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices and price classifications, in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas, which reflect the twenty cents per net ton increase established by the order issued in General Docket No. 21 on August 28, 1942, for the Slay Mine, a deep mine, Mine Index No. 3127, operated in Seam 5 of Subdistrict No. 6, of District No. 4, Clayton Township, Perry County, Ohio, by Oliver Slay:

An order having been issued on January 6, 1943, 8 F.R. 1262, Granting Temporary Relief and Conditionally Providing for Final Relief in the above-entitled matter; and

It appearing that in Supplement T § 329.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area) annexed to and made a part of said order a price of $1.14, instead of $1.15, is inadvertently shown for the Size Groups 13 and 14 coals produced for truck shipments at the Midkiff Mine (Mine Index No. 1046) of C. P. Midkiff; and that in Supplement R § 329.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) annexed to and made a part of said order permission was inadvertently omitted for the Howton-Parrish Mine (Mine Index No. 301) of Roy Walker to load coals at Providence, Kentucky, on the L & N Railroad as well as on the I C Railroad;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the schedule marked Supplement T § 329.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into any market area) annexed to and made a part of the Order dated January 6, 1943, 8 F.R. 1262, Granting Temporary Relief and Conditionally Providing for Final Relief in the above-entitled matter be, and it hereby is, amended to provide a price of $1.15 in the Size Groups 13 and 14 coals produced for truck shipments at the Midkiff Mine (Mine Index No. 1046) of C. PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-236]

KRAUSS, JACOBY & KRAUSS

Krauss, Jacoby & Krauss, Jamaica, New York, is a partnership engaged in the construction business. The partners of this concern also own For-Win Realty Company, Inc., Jamaica, New York, a corporation also engaged in the construction business. On or about September 5, 1942, the Berger Department Store, located in Utica, New York, was damaged by fire and For-Win Realty Company, Inc. was retained to reconstruct the damaged building at an estimated cost of $45,000. This firm thereupon began the construction despite the fact that no authorization to begin such construction was applied for or obtained from the War Production Board. The contract for this work was later assigned to Krauss, Jacoby & Krauss which company completed the reconstruction of the damaged building. This construction constituted a violation of Conservation Order L-41 by both companies. During this time each company was familiar with the restrictions contained in that order.

These violations of Conservation Order L-41 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.236 Suspension Order S-236. (a) Deliveries of material to For-Win

Realty Company, Inc., or Krauss, Jacoby & Krauss, their respective successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to For-Win Realty Company, Inc., or Krauss, Jacoby & Krauss, their respective successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) No person shall apply or extend any preference rating assigned by any preference rating order, preference rating certificate, or general preference order, whether heretofore or hereafter issued, for the purpose of obtaining the delivery of material for any Defense Housing project or other construction with which For-Win Realty Company, Inc., or Krauss, Jacoby & Krauss, their successors and assigns, shall be directly or indirectly connected, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve For-Win Realty Company, Inc., or Krauss, Jacoby & Krauss from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect on February 15, 1943, and shall expire on May 15, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 12th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

(f) Restrictions of deliveries under toll agreements. Except pursuant to specific authorization or direction of the Director General for Operations, no person shall make or accept delivery under any toll agreement whereby one person melts alloy iron, alloy steel or electric furnace carbon steel for another person.

(g) Exceptions. The provisions of this order shall not apply to "tool steel" as defined by Supplementary Order M-21-h, or to alloy iron, alloy steel or electric furnace carbon steel castings.

(h) Special provisions with respect to stainless steel. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this order, and regardless of the approval of any melting schedule, no producer shall use ferrochrome (including all prepared forms of chromium) in the melting of stainless steel to an extent where the aggregate chromium content derived from ferrochrome for all stainless steel melted by him in any calendar month exceeds 60 percent of the chromium content of all high carbon stainless steel (carbon over .10 percent) melted by him during such month, plus 70 percent of the chromium content of all low carbon stainless steel (carbon .10 percent maximum) melted by him during such month.

In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(j) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(k) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order issued by the Director General for Operations, or to be issued by him hereafter, limits the use of any material to a greater extent than the limitations imposed by this order, the restriction of such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

The word "manufacture" in line two of paragraph (c) (1) of § 3063.1 (Conservation Order M-217), refers to the operation whereby the features mentioned in subdivisions (i) to (xvii), inclusive, of said paragraph became a part of the footwear.

Illustration: Subdivision (iv) refers to full overlaid tips or full overlaid foxings except on work shoes. The order prohibits the placing of full overlay tips or full overlay foxings on dress shoes after October 31, 1942. But it does not prohibit the completion of the shoe if an overlaid tip or an overlaid foxing has been affixed prior to said date. (Issued October 6, 1942.)

PART 3173—ELECTRIC MOTOR CONTROLLERS

[General Conservation Order L-250]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials and facilities used in the manufacture of electric motor controllers for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3173.1 General Conservation Order L–250—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any enterprise to the extent that it is engaged in the business of manufacturing controllers, and includes sales and distribution outlets and warehouses controlled by any such person.

(3) "Manufacture" means the production, fabrication or assembly of any controller, or of any part thereof.

(4) "Controller" means any new device or equipment used to stop, start or regulate electric motors or to protect electric motors against overheating or overloading; including manual and magnetic starters and controllers, contactors and relays, speed regulators, drum switches, shunt or series coil type thermal or magnetic overload relays (except switch gear induction type relays), motor field rheostats, and solenoid, thrustor and torque motor brakes; and related pilot devices such as push button stations, and limit, pressure and float switches. The term does not include wiring devices or snap switches rated 15 amperes or less; safety switches; fuses; air circuit breakers; oil circuit breakers; domestic type thermostats, refrigeration controls or furnace controls; or any replacement part for a passenger automobile, truck, truck trailer, passenger carrier, or off-the-highway motor vehicle, as defined in Limitation Order L–158, as amended.

(5) "Commercial" as applied to a size, type or rating of a product means any size, type or rating thereof heretofore normally produced by any producer as a standard item, for his inventory or for general distribution, and not in fulfillment of special orders.

(b) Restrictions on orders. On and after March 1, 1943, no manufacturer shall accept any order, or commence manufacture in fulfillment of any order, for any controller or part thereof, unless the order bears a preference rating of AA–5 or higher.

(c) Restrictions on manufacture. (1) Except as otherwise provided herein, on and after March 1, 1943, no manufacturer shall accept any order, or commence manufacture in fulfillment of any order, for any controller or part thereof unless such controller or part is to be manufactured in accordance with the standards prescribed in subparagraph (2) below. On and after May 14, 1943, no manufacturer shall deliver any controller or part thereof, unless it has been manufactured in accordance with such standards. The limitations of this subparagraph shall not apply to any order for, or delivery of any controller or part which was completely fabricated on or before February 13, 1943.

(2) Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, all controllers and parts thereof shall be manufactured in compliance with the following requirements and shall be otherwise of the simplest practicable design:

(i) All control circuit wiring shall follow a straight line between terminals except where, and to the extent that deviation therefrom is necessary to avoid electrical or mechanical interference.

(ii) All wiring carrying 15 amperes or less shall have no greater copper content than size No. 14 AWG wire; except when and to the extent that a larger copper content is required to avoid abnormal voltage drop or heating.

(iii) All buses, connecting straps and terminals, except for oil immersed controllers, shall be of the smallest commercial size copper necessary to prevent the bus, strap or terminal from exceeding a temperature rise of 50° over 40° C. ambient temperature when carrying the full load current of the motor with which the controller will be used.

(iv) All control circuit wiring insulation between terminals on a controller shall be of one color for each voltage.

(v) No controller of a type listed in Appendix A, for a single motor, shall include a contactor having an ampere rating in excess of the maximum rating prescribed in the appendix for such controller; except where operation requires repeated opening of stalled motor current (such as plug-stop or jogging (inching) duty) at a rate in excess of 5 per minute.

(vi) No general purpose controller, for a single motor, of the type listed below rated 600 volts or less shall include control circuit fuses or a control circuit disconnect switch:

(a) Alternating current magnetic across the line type starters;

(b) Alternating current magnetic reduced voltage autotransformer, reactor, impedance, or primary resistance type starters;

(c) Alternating current combination across the line starters and thermal or magnetic circuit breakers;

(d) Alternating current combination across the line starters and motor circuit switches.

(f) Direct current, reduced voltage controllers with motor circuit switches or thermal or magnetic circuit breakers.

(vii) No general purpose controller, for a single motor, of the types listed below rated 600 volts or less shall include a control transformer unless master switches or pilot devices of the necessary rating are not obtainable as a commercial product:

(a) Alternating current magnetic across the line type starters;

(b) Alternating current magnetic reduced voltage autotransformer, reactor, impedance, or primary resistance type starters;

(c) Alternating current combination across the line starters and thermal or magnetic circuit breakers;

(d) Alternating current combination across the line starters and motor circuit switches.

(viii) No alternating current controller of the reduced voltage autotransformer, reactor, impedance, or primary resistance type shall be provided for a polyphase induction motor of 20 horse power or less, rated 600 volts or less.

(ix) No controller or control equipment of the types listed below, rated 600 volts or less, shall be provided with a floor mounting type steel enclosing case or steel cabinet:

(a) Magnetic controller for main mill or auxiliary motors, for a metal rolling mill (mill duty controllers);

(b) Magnetic controllers for cab operated cranes;

(c) Protective panels for cranes;

(d) Magnetic or manual controllers for fire pumps;

(e) Magnetic controllers for elevators;

(g) Magnetic, manual, or combination magnetic and manual controllers for synchronous motors.

(h) Magnetic controllers of the across-the-line or reduced voltage type for a single motor.

(i) Resistor banks for secondary or armature control, mounted separately from the controller; except where forced draft or air circulation is required to meet the temperature limitation.

The limitations of this subparagraph shall not apply to any controller or control equipment used below the level of the ground in a mine or quarry; or to any controller to be used in a Class 1 hazardous location as defined in paragraph 5005, article 500, chapter 5 of the National Electrical Code, approved by the American Standards Association, August 7, 1940, or in a Class 2 hazardous location as defined in paragraph 5006, article 500 of the above mentioned code; or to be used generally in an atmosphere which is corrosive, or which contains such quantities of metal particles, dust or fumes as to be destructive of an open type controller; nor shall such limitations apply in any case where the controller is to be installed permanently outdoors without other protection.

(x) No controller shall be supplied with built in test jacks or test receptacles.

(xi) No alternating current motor controller of less than 1,000 horsepower, and no direct current motor controller of 50 horsepower or less, shall include instruments, meters, potential transformers, or current transformers or shunts to be used for metering, mounted on the controller panel or enclosure; but this restriction shall not apply to controllers used to regulate a series of direct current motors driving a common load, nor to alternating current line ammeter and direct current field ammeter to be installed on synchronous motor controllers nor to ampere hour meters to be installed on industrial truck or locomotive control panels.

(xii) No aluminum, copper, chromium nickel, cadmium, or alloys or finishes thereof shall be used in the manufacture of enclosing cases, name plates, identification plates or door handles for controllers.

(xiii) No stainless steel shall be used in the manufacture of any controllers or part; except where necessary to provide non-magnetic properties required for operation or to prevent sticking or binding of moving parts.

(3) The limitations of paragraph (c) shall not apply to any controller delivered for use aboard any ship owned or operated by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

(d) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve, for not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales. All such persons shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as the Director General for Operations shall request from time to time.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(3) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order may be filed by either the manufacturer or the purchaser or proposed purchaser. Any such appeal shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. On appeals from the provisions of paragraph (c) (2) (viii), the letter shall include the following data:

(i) Horsepower, voltage, frequency and phase of the motor to be controlled;

He may also direct the manner in which war-use mahogany, war-use Philippine mahogany and war-use Albarco shall be processed to satisfy the categories of orders specified in paragraph (b) above. Such allocations and directions will be made to insure the satisfaction of war requirements in the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made in the discretion of the Director General for Operations, without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular purchase orders or contracts. The Director General for Operations may also take into consideration the possible dislocation of labor and the necessity of keeping a plant in operation so that it may be able to fulfill war and essential civilian requirements.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time, except to the extent that paragraph (b) hereof is in conflict with the provisions of Priorities Regulations Nos. 1 and 3 to which extent the provisions of this order shall be controlling.

PART 3096—PAPER AND PAPERBOARD

[General Conservation Order M–241 as Amended Feb. 15, 1943 [1]]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply, for defense, for private account and for export, of various materials and facilities required in the manufacture and distribution of paper and paperboard; and the following order is deemed necessary in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

[1] NOTE: The purpose of this amendment is to amend the item "Wrapping Paper" in List A.

§ 3096.1 General Conservation Order M–241—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Produce" includes all operations connected with the production of paper and paperboard, including operations in the finishing room and packaging, but does not include processes or operations applied to paper and paperboard after the primary papermaking, such as printing, waxing, gumming, coating, bag manufacture, cup manufacture and envelope manufacture, box and container manufacture, and the fabrication of paper into paper articles.

(3) "Mill" means a congregation of pulp preparation and roll and sheet finishing equipment, paper machines and subsidiary facilities located and operated together as a single producing unit for the production of paper and paperboard.

(4) "Base period" means the six month period from October 1, 1941 through March 31, 1942.

(5) "Paper merchant" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying and reselling paper and/or paperboard.

(c) Restrictions on production of paper and paperboard. (1) Unless specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations pursuant to subparagraph (5) of this paragraph (c), no person or persons shall produce paper or paperboard in any mill which has not produced paper or paperboard since August 1, 1942.

(2) Each manufacturer of paper and/or paperboard shall for each mill operated by him determine quarterly a production quota, calculated as follows:

(i) Determine, separately for each class of paper and paperboard on List A the quantity thereof produced at such mill during the period from October 1, 1941 through March 31, 1942;

(ii) Subtract from the result for each class the quantity produced at such mill during such period of each of the grades of paper or paperboard on List B falling within such class;

(iii) Multiply the remainder for each class by percentage figure set opposite the particular class on List A;

(iv) Add together the several tonnages obtained by (iii), and divide by two.

The quantities shall be measured, to the nearest ton, in tonnage delivered from the paper machine. The method and basis for determining such tonnage shall be that method and basis followed at the particular mill in the past, or any other practicable method and basis, provided the same method and basis are used to determine both current production and production during the base period. If any machine unit of any mill was shut down during the base period for as much as 72 consecutive hours, excluding vacations and holidays, there may be added to (i) for such mill for the class of paper or paperboard principally produced on such machine unit, whatever quantity thereof could have been produced on such machine unit during the down time at the average rate of operation during the preceding month.

The Director General may from time to time by amendment change the classification and/or percentages on List A or change List B, specifying a particular date for the change to take effect. Quotas for production after any such date shall be calculated according to Lists A and B as amended, until further amended. If the effective date of any such amendment is other than the first day of a calendar quarter, the quota for the quarter within which such date falls shall be recalculated by adding together (i) the proportion of the old quota which equals the proportion of the quarter preceding such date and (ii) the proportion of the new quota which equals the proportion of the quarter following such date, including such date.

(3) No person or persons shall during the first calendar quarter of 1943 or any calendar quarter thereafter produce at any mill any quantity of paper and/or paperboard in excess of the quota for such mill for such quarter determined according to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (c), except:

(i) To the extent and upon the conditions stated in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph (c); or

(ii) To the extent specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations pursuant to paragraph (5) (c) of this order, subject to any conditions imposed by the Director General for Operations in such authorization: and, Provided, That,

(i) Within such quota there may be produced at any mill any quantities of any one or several kinds of paper and/or paperboard, provided that the aggregate during any quarter does not exceed such mill's quota for that quarter; and

(ii) Regardless of and over and beyond any such quota, any person may produce at any mill, unless restricted by paragraph (c) (1) or by paragraph (e), any quantity of any kind of paper on List B.

(4) If one person owns only one mill, and such mill is equipped with only one machine unit for the manufacture of paper and/or paperboard, such person may, unless restricted by paragraph (c) (1) or by paragraph (e), produce at such mill during any calendar week any quantity of paper and/or paperboard required to occupy such machine 120 hours during such week: Provided, That such person shall in no other week during the same calendar quarter operate such mill in excess of 120 hours.

(5) If any person owns more than one mill, and can show that by combining or exchanging the several quotas of such mills, or parts thereof, significant quantities of critical materials will be saved, transportation reduced, labor released in areas where needed, or other materials or facilities required in the national defense conserved, he may submit to the Director General for Operations, in writing, a plan for such combination or exchange, stating the quantity and kinds of paper and/or paperboard produced at each mill involved during each month of the year from October 1, 1941 through September 30, 1942, the quantity and kinds of paper expected to be produced at each such mill during each quarter under such plan, how long he proposes to operate under such plan, his reasons for desiring to adopt such plan, and the respects wherein he conceives that such plan will accomplish the purposes mentioned. The Director General for Operations may thereupon approve, modify, or disapprove such plan or may impose upon the execution of any such plan whatever conditions he may deem appropriate to this order. Upon receipt from the Director General for Operations of approval in writing of such a plan the proponent may produce at the mills designated in such plan the quantities and kinds of paper and/or paperboard provided for in such plan, subject to any modifications or conditions imposed by the Director General for Operations in his approval. No person shall undertake or attempt to carry into effect any such plan unless and until he receives such approval.

(d) Reserve production. Each manufacturer of paper and/or paperboard shall reserve in the production schedule of each of his mills for the month of January, 1943, and for each calendar month thereafter, time and supplies sufficient to produce and deliver within such month, at the order of the Director General for Operations, 2% of such mill's quota for the current calendar quarter. In general this should amount to approximately 6% of each month's production. The Director General for Operations may on or before the 15th of any month, by telegram or letter, direct any manufacturer to employ such reserve to produce any kind of paper and/or paperboard usually produced at such mill, and any quantity thereof, not to exceed in the aggregate for any one month 2% of such mill's quota for the current quarter, and sell and deliver the same within the month to any person named by the Director General for Operations. The manufacturer may refuse so to produce and deliver only for the reasons specified for the refusal of rated orders in § 944.2 (b) of Priorities Regulation No. 1. If the manufacturer does not on or before the 15th of any month receive from the Director General for Operations directions as to the disposition of such reserve (or has received directions as to the disposition of a part but not of the remainder) he may employ the same (or such remainder) as he may desire, consistent with the other provisions of this order.

(e) Restrictions on inventory. Unless specifically authorized by the Director General, by telegram or letter, or excepted by paragraph (e) (5):

(1) No person shall knowingly deliver, and no person shall accept delivery of any quantity of newsprint, if the inventory of newsprint in the hands of the person accepting delivery is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either (i) in excess of two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than seventy five days' supply, on the basis of either his average rate of consuming newsprint for the preceding quarter or his average rate of consuming newsprint as projected for the then current quarter;

(2) No person shall knowingly deliver to any person except a paper merchant and no person except a paper merchant shall accept delivery of, any quantity of any grade of paper or paperboard other than newsprint, if the inventory of such grade in the hands of the person accepting delivery is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either (i) in excess of two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads greater than sixty days' supply, on the basis of either his average rate of consuming such grade of paper or paperboard for the preceding quarter or his average rate of consuming such grade of paper or paperboard as projected for the then current quarter;

(3) No person shall knowingly deliver to a paper merchant, and no paper merchant shall accept delivery of, any quantity of any grade of paper or paperboard other than newsprint, if the inventory of such grade in the hands of such paper merchant is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either (i) in excess of two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than ninety days' supply, on the basis of either his average rate of distributing such grade of paper or paperboard for the preceding quarter or his average rate of distributing such grade of paper or paperboard as projected for the then current quarter;

(4) No person shall produce at any mill any quantity of any grade of paper or paperboard other than newsprint, if his inventory of such grade at such mill is, or will by virtue of such production become, in excess of (i) two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than sixty days' supply, on the basis of either the average rate of shipment of such grade from such mill for the preceding quarter or the average rate of shipment of such grade from such mill as projected for the then current quarter.

(5) The term "grade of paper or paperboard" refers to the classification on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Form WPB-514, as revised November 7, 1942, each caption (except those which are further broken down by following captions) representing a separate grade. If a person's gross inventory of a grade is in excess of two carloads or sixty days' supply, as above, but his inventory of a particular item within that grade is less than thirty days' supply (or, in the case of a paper merchant, less than sixty days' supply), he may accept delivery of or produce, and others may deliver to him, any quantity of such item as may be required to provide him with thirty days' supply (or in the case of a paper merchant sixty days' supply). The restrictions of this paragraph (e) apply equally to paper and paperboard of foreign and domestic origin, and apply to intra company deliveries as defined in § 944.12 of Priorities Regulation No. 1. They do not, however, apply to those papers commonly reported on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Form WPB-514, as revised November 7, 1942, under the captions "Photographic and other sensitized" (07611) and "Cigarette" (08512), or to any paper or paperboard after it is printed or converted beyond waxing or coating, or to inventories held by or for any agency or government referred to in § 944.1 (b) (1) and (2) of Priorities Regulation No. 1, or by or for the United States Government Printing Office.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(2) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(3) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(6) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall unless otherwise directed, be addressed to, War Production Board, Pulp and Paper Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-241.

Issued this 15th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. PART 1426—WOOD PRESERVATION AND PRIMARY FOREST PRODUCTS

[MPR 324]

NORTHERN WHITE CEDAR FENCE POSTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of Northern white cedar fence posts by a specific maximum price regulation. This commodity designation embraces fence posts produced in a defined area of the northern States. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration of the prices of Northern white cedar fence posts prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such revelant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the Industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been prepared, issued simultaneously herewith, and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 324 is hereby issued.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

Additions for selected stock:

All diameters, ten feet long, turning stock posts, add $0.20 each.

(b) Sizes not specifically priced. Sizes of northern white cedar fence posts not specifically priced in subsection (a) above, are nevertheless subject to this regulation. Maximum prices for such posts shall be determined as follows:

(1) The maximum price shall bear the October 1941 relationship to the "yardstick" size, which is a post 3" round and 7' long. The seller should find the difference between the price received for the "yardstick" size and the item to be priced during October 1941, or the first month prior to October 1941 in which he made sales of both sizes. He should then determine the price at which he sold northern white cedar fence posts 3" round and 7' long during that same month. The difference between these amounts shall be added to the maximum here established for the yardstick ($0.185), where the item is of greater value than the "yardstick" size, or subtracted from the maximum established for the yardstick if it is of less value. The resulting amount shall be the tentative maximum price. If the seller made no sales of the "yardstick" size, he may use the nearest comparable size to make this computation.

This tentative price shall be submitted to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within 10 days of the use of the price, together with certified copies of the invoices of the sales which were used to determine the maximum price. If, within thirty days after receipt of the request for approval, the Office of Price Administration does not adjust or require further justification of the maximum price, it shall be considered approved and shall thereafter be the maximum price for that seller for that item. Pending approval or action by the Office of Price Administration, the seller may deliver the item and receive payment therefor, subject to the condition that a refund will be made if the price is in excess of that finally approved by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) For any size of northern white cedar fence posts for which a specific maximum price is not provided, and which cannot be priced under paragraph (a) of this section, the maximum price shall be the price established by the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., after full facts have been submitted in support of any request for the establishment of such a maximum price. This maximum price may be established by a letter or telegram.

§ 1426.202 Scope of this regulation—(a) Products covered. The term "Northern white cedar fence posts" is used to describe round or split, peeled or unpeeled, fence posts which are cut from white cedar (Thuja occidentalis) produced in the states of Michigan, Minnesota, and Wisconsin.

(b) Persons covered. Any person who buys (in the course of trade or business) or sells Northern white cedar fence posts is subject to this regulation. The term "person" includes: an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized groups, their legal successors or representatives; the United States or any government, or any of its political subdivisions; or any agency of the foregoing.

§ 1426.203 Maximum prices for sales to a person other than a consumer. (a) The following are the maximum prices at which Northern white cedar fence posts may be sold to any person other than a consumer. These prices are f. o. b. concentration yard or other loading-out point in the producing area. Where sales are made on a delivered basis the maximum price shall be established by adding the appropriate transportation addition as provided in § 1426.205 (Transportation additions):

§ 1426.204 Maximum prices for sales to consumers. The maximum delivered prices at which northern white cedar fence posts may be sold to consumers shall be the sum of the following:

(a) The prices listed in § 1426.203;

(b) The transportation addition provided in § 1426.205 (a) (2); and

(c) 33⅓ percent of the sum of (1) and (2).

§ 1426.205 Transportation additions. (a) To the maximum prices set forth in § 1426.203 may be added transportation from the applicable basing point, which as used in this regulation means either Gemmell, Minnesota; Rexton, Michigan; or Rhinelander, Wisconsin. (1) Where sale is made to a person not a consumer, the basing point is the one nearest the shipper's loading out point. (2) When sale is to a consumer, the basing point shall be the one nearest the retailer if sold by a retail yard, or nearest the consumer, if sold by any other person.

For example, a concentration yard operator in computing a delivered price to a retailer must use the basing point nearest the concentration yard. The retailer, selling to consumers, on the other hand, must use the basing point nearest the retail yard in arriving at his maximum price.

(b) The addition shall be computed as follows:

(1) When the estimated weights in § 1426.203 are used, the weight times the carload freight rate from the applicable basing point to the actual destination is the maximum permissible addition, even if the estimated weights are higher than the actual weights. Estimated weights higher than those given in § 1426.203 may not be used.

(2) When estimated weights are not used, the amount for transportation shall be the actual weight times the rate from the applicable basing point.

§ 1426.206 Display of maximum prices. Any person selling Northern white cedar fence posts to consumers shall display in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public the maximum prices permitted under this regulation. Such display shall be headed "Ceiling Prices" and shall list the prices by diameter and length.

§ 1426.207 Prohibited practices. (a) General. Any practice which obtains the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the price is as much a violation of this Regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to the use of commissions, serviced, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings, and the like.

(b) Adjustable pricing. A price may not be adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the product has been completed, but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1426.208 Applications for adjustments and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that a maximum price in this regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of any northern white cedar fence posts which are essential to the war program and which are or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) The term "government contracts" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the Government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An act to promote the defense of the United States". It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(3) As soon as the application is filed, contracts, deliveries, and payments may be made at the requested price, subject to refund if the requested price is disapproved or lowered. The seller must advise the buyer that the delivery is made subject to this refund.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1426.209 Records. Any person, other than a consumer, who buys or sells 200 or more Northern white cedar fence posts in any one month, must keep records of the items sold, names and addresses of buyers, date of sale, and price. The records must be kept for two years for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1426.210 Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

[2] 7 F.R. 5087, 5664
[3] 7 F.R. 8961.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or any regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 18 (§ 1305.22)[4] licensing persons selling lumber, lumber products, or building materials, are applicable to every person, except producers making sales of Northern white cedar fence posts for which maximum prices are established by this regulation. This order, in brief, provides that a license is necessary, except for producers, to make sales under this regulation. A license is automatically granted to all sellers making these sales. It is not necessary to apply specially for the license, but a registration may later be required. The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Supplementary Order 18 tell the circumstances under which licenses may be suspended. The license cannot be transferred.

§ 1426.211 Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation. Any sale or delivery covered by this maximum price regulation is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Maximum Export Price Regulation. The maximum price for export sales of Northern white cedar fence posts is governed by the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[5]

§ 1426.212 Effective date. (a) This Maximum Price Regulation 324 (§§ 1426.201 to 1426.212, inclusive) shall become effective February 18, 1943.

(b) If Northern white cedar fence posts have been received before February 18, 1943, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to a buyer, the shipment is not subject to this regulation. It remains subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.[6]

PART 1337—RAYON

RAYON WASTE

The preamble of Revised Price Schedule No. 90,[1] Rayon Waste, is amended and §§ 1401.51 to 1401.61, inclusive, are renumbered, redesignated and amended as set forth below:

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 90 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the rayon waste industry. In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are, and will be, generally fair and equitable and comply with the requirements of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and will effectuate the purposes of said act.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[2] issued thereunder by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 90 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1337.101 to 1337.108, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong., Executive Order 9250, 7 F.R. 7671.

§ 1337.101 Prohibition against dealing in rayon waste at prices above the maximum or engaging in certain other practices; lower prices permitted—(a) Prohibition against dealing in rayon waste at prices above the maximum. No person shall sell or deliver and no person shall buy or receive any rayon waste at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this regulation and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing: Provided, That until March 19, 1943, deliveries may be made against contracts entered into prior to February 19, 1943, at prices in compliance with the maximum prices established by Revised Price Schedule No. 90.

(b) Less than maximum prices. Prices lower than the maximum prices established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

(c) Other prohibited practices. Any practice which is a device to obtain the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the ceiling price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to commissions, premiums, extra charges for services, tying agreements, trade understandings and similar devices.

§ 1337.102 To what transactions, products, persons and geographical areas this regulation applies—(a) What transactions are covered. This regulation covers all sales and deliveries of rayon waste. Such sales and deliveries are not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation[3] or Supplementary Regulation No. 1.[4] However, the maximum price at which rayon waste may be exported shall be determined in accordance with the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[5] This regulation does not cover sales of rayon tops and rayon noils.[6]

(b) What products are covered. As used herein, the term "rayon waste" means unprocessed waste resulting from the manufacture of staple fiber and continuous filament yarn produced chemically from cellulose or with a cellulose base. The regulation does not cover waste resulting from the manufacture of such products as spun yarns, knitted and woven fabrics and garments made from rayon staple fiber or continuous filament yarn. Nor does the regulation cover processed waste: i. e., waste which has been subjected to such mechanical operations as stripping, picking, carding or garnetting.

(c) What persons are covered. This regulation covers all persons, including any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group, their legal successors or representatives, the United States, or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing.

(d) What geographical areas are covered. This regulation applies to the continental United States, including the District of Columbia, and the territories and possessions of the United States.

§ 1337.103 The maximum prices—(a) Terms of sale. The following maximum prices are established on a basis of f. o. b. shipping point, net weight and net 10 days. The maximum prices include all commissions and other charges except those expressly provided for herein.

(b) Maximum prices for sales of rayon waste by producers. The prices set forth below are maximum prices for sales of rayon waste by producers, including any person who owns or controls a plant which produces rayon waste.

Mixed open and thread waste, mixed deniers bleached and or unbleached	.12
Undesulphured or unbleached threads, mixed deniers	.12
Staple fiber waste	.11

As used herein, "coarse" includes all deniers over 5, "semi-coarse" includes all deniers from $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 5, inclusive, and "fine" includes all deniers less than $2\frac{1}{2}$; "unbleached" waste is waste which has been washed at least twice in a solution customarily used for the removal of sulphur from rayon waste; and "undesulphured" waste is waste which has never been desulphured or bleached.

(c) Maximum prices for sales of rayon waste by persons other than producers. The maximum price for the sale of rayon waste by a person other than a producer shall be the applicable maximum price set forth in Table I plus an amount equal to 7 per cent of this price.

§ 1337.104 What records must be kept. Every person making sales of rayon waste after February 18, 1943, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect complete and accurate records showing for each sale of rayon waste: (a) the date; (b) the name and address of the purchaser; (c) the grade of rayon waste sold; (d) the price contracted for or received therefor; and (e) the quantity sold.

§ 1337.106 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 5,[1] Licensing, are applicable to every dealer selling rayon waste to consumers. Insofar as such sales are subject to Supplementary Order No. 5, the term "consumer" includes any person who performs for his own account any or a combination of the processes of sterilizing, dusting, stripping, dyeing, picking, carding, oiling or garnetting on rayon waste or who uses rayon waste in any manufacturing process.

§ 1337.107 Who may file petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

§ 1337.108 Effective date of this regulation. This regulation (§§ 1337.101 to 1337.108, inclusive) shall become effective February 19, 1943.

Issued this 13th day of February 1943.

PART 1351—FOODS AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 329]

PURCHASES OF MILK FROM PRODUCERS FOR RESALE AS FLUID MILK

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, to establish maximum prices for purchases of "milk" from producers at the highest prices paid by individual buyers for milk delivered during January 1943.

The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices received by producers for "milk" prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined to be of general applicability.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Regulation are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The maximum prices established are not below the highest of the price standards required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, and after consultation with and with the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, Maximum Price Regulation No. 329 is hereby issued.

Sec.

1351.402 Maximum prices for purchases of "milk" from producers.
1351.403 Transfer of business or stock in trade.
1351.404 Definitions.
1351.405 Exempt sales.
1351.406 Records and reports.
1351.407 Petitions for amendment.
1351.408 Petitions for adjustment.
1351.409 Adjustable pricing.
1351.410 Evasion.
1351.412 General Maximum Price Regulation and Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 superseded.
1351.413 Export sales.
1351.414 Geographical applicability.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1351.401 to 1351.414, inclusive, issued pursuant to Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1351.401 Prohibition against purchases of "milk" from producers above maximum prices. On and after February 13, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no purchaser, in the course of trade or business, shall buy or receive "milk" from any producer at a price higher than the maximum permitted by this regulation. No purchaser shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. Lower prices may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1351.402 Maximum prices for purchases of "milk" from producers. (a) The maximum price for each grade of "milk" shall be the highest price each purchaser of "milk" from a producer paid that producer for "milk" of the same grade received during January 1943, or the minimum producers' price established under the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, whichever is higher.

(b) If the purchaser's maximum price cannot be determined under the above paragraph (a), his maximum price shall be the weighted average price he paid to producers for the lowest priced 60% (by volume) of "milk" of the same grade received during January 1943.

Example. Distributor A received milk during January 1943 from 5 producers, as shown below:

Producer	Pounds of milk	Butterfat test	Basic test	Price (cwt. b. f. o. b. plant per cwt. for milk of basic test)
		Percent	Percent
No. 1	6,000	3.8	3.5	$3.30
No. 2	11,000	3.9	3.5	3.30
No. 3	9,000	3.6	3.5	3.30
No. 4	10,000	3.7	3.5	3.30
No. 5	9,000	3.8	3.5	3.45
Total	45,000

[1] Butterfat differential = 5 cents per point of butterfat.

60% of total receipts—27,000 pounds. Since 26,000 pounds were purchased at $3.30 f. o. b. plant for 3.5% milk from producers 1, 2, and 3, 1,000 pounds of the higher priced milk purchased from producer No. 4 will be added to determine the average price for the lowest priced 60% of total milk receipts, as follows:

Pounds of milk	Price for basic test
6,000 or 60 cwt.	× $3.30 per cwt.	= $198.00
11,000 or 110 cwt.	× 3.30 per cwt.	= 363.00
9,000 or 90 cwt.	× 3.30 per cwt.	= 297.00
1,000 or 10 cwt.	× 3.45 per cwt.	= 34.50
Total....27,000 or 270 cwt.		Total.... 892.50

To determine the weighted average price for the lowest priced 60% of distributor A's milk receipts during January, divide the total of $892.50 by 270 cwt. This results in a price of $3.30½, which is the maximum price for milk of basic test (3.5%).

To determine the maximum price for milk of other than the basic butterfat test, the butterfat differential should be applied.

(c) If a purchaser did not purchase milk received during January 1943 on a butterfat test basis, but purchased it on a weight or volume basis, he may continue to purchase on the same basis.

If he desires to change to a butterfat basis for payment to producers, he shall apply to the Regional Administrator for the determination of the butterfat basis and differential on which to pay producers.

(d) No purchaser shall participate in any change of customary allowances, discounts, price differentials, or other trade practices applicable to purchases made by him unless such change results in a lower price.

(e) No purchaser shall pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or supply of "milk" than he paid on deliveries during January 1943.

§ 1351.403 Transfer of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets, or stock in trade of any purchaser is sold or otherwise transferred on or after February 13, 1943, the maximum prices for purchases by the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no transfer had occurred, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the latter to maintain records required by this regulation.

§ 1351.404. Definitions. When used in this regulation, the term:

(a) "Milk" means liquid cows' milk in a raw, unprocessed state, which is purchased for resale for human consumption as fluid milk. "In a raw, unprocessed state" means unpasteurized, and not sold and delivered in glass or paper containers.

(b) "Grade" refers to the butterfat content and the quality standards established by public health authorities, except as provided in paragraph (c) of § 1351.402.

(c) "Producer" means a farmer, or other person or representative, who owns, superintends, manages, or otherwise controls the operation of a farm on which milk is produced. Farmers' cooperatives are producers, and hence their sales of "milk" are covered by this regulation when (1) they do not own or lease physical facilities for receiving, processing, or distributing milk, and (2) they do own or lease physical facilities for receiving, processing, or distributing milk, but they act as selling agents for producers, whether members or not.

(d) "Purchaser" means any person who buys "milk" from a producer for resale.[2]

(e) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or other organized group of persons, or any legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions or agencies.

(f) Unless the context manifestly otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, shall apply to other terms herein.

§ 1351.405 Exempt sales. (a) This regulation shall not apply to sales and deliveries of "milk" at retail; or at wholesale in glass or paper containers, as defined and covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation; and it shall not apply to those bulk sales and deliveries at wholesale in any other type of container covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 280.[4]

(b) This regulation shall not apply to purchases of "milk" from a producer at a price lower than $2.75 per cwt. for milk of 4% butterfat content.

(c) This regulation shall not apply to purchases of bulk milk from producers for use in manufactured dairy products, such as butter, cheese, evaporated or condensed milk, powdered milk, casein, ice cream, and commercial or industrial milk products.

§ 1351.406 Records and reports. (a) Every person who purchases "milk" from a producer shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all his existing records relating to prices paid for such products received during January 1943, together with the name and address of each producer, and shall prepare on or before February 13, 1943, on the basis of available information or records, and keep for examination by the Office of Price Administration, a statement, showing:

(1) The highest price paid each producer for said products received during January 1943; and

(2) The customary allowances, discounts, and other price differentials applicable to himself.

(b) Every person who purchases "milk" from a producer shall keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration records of the same kind that he customarily kept relating to prices which he paid to producers for milk received during January 1943, and, in addition, records showing prices paid to each producer since January 1943.

(c) Such person shall submit reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep other records, in addition to or in lieu of those required in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, which the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1351.407 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for Amendment in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.408 Petitions for adjustment. (a) Any person seeking an adjustment of maximum prices established by this regulation may file a petition for adjustment in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 where:

(1) An existing or threatened shortage in the supply of "milk" for any particular locality will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting maximum producers' prices; and

(2) The adjustment will not tend to create a shortage or need for price increases in other localities, and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) In any locality where the prices for producers' sales of "milk" are regulated by an order, agreement, or license issued pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, the Regional Administrator may not adjust maximum prices below the required minimum fixed by such order, agreement, or license.

(c) Any person may file a petition for adjustment in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, requesting an increase in the maximum prices payable to producers under this regulation with respect to any particular locality, wherever such increase will not necessitate, under the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, any increase in the maximum prices for fluid milk sold at wholesale or retail.

(d) Such petitions for adjustment shall be filed with the appropriate regional office. Each Regional Administrator is authorized to act upon petitions under paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section, and is authorized further to make such adjustments of the maximum prices within his region as are necessary to keep prices in the various localities within his region in appropriate relationship to one another and in appropriate relationship to the prices in other regions.

§ 1351.409 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to and at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In appropriate situations where a petition for amendment requires extended consideration, the Price Administrator may, upon application, grant permission that the parties agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition thereof.

§ 1351.410 Evasion. The price limitations of this Regulation shall not be evaded by direct or indirect methods, by means of, or in connection with, any

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 110 to Supp. Reg. 14[1] to GMPR[2]]

CORRECTIVE EYE GLASSES

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of Amendment No. 110 has been prepared and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* A new subparagraph (68) is added to paragraph (a) of § 1499.73 to read as set forth below:

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided:

* * * * *

(68) Corrective eye glasses sold to the ultimate user and services involving the examination and refraction of eyes. (i) The extent to which sales to the ultimate user of corrective eye glasses and of services involving the examination and refraction of eyes are subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation shall be as follows:

(a) All sales other than manufacturers' sales of corrective eye glasses and spectacles are subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) The charge to a person for services involving the examination and refraction of eyes is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation if the seller is not selling corrective eye glasses or spectacles to that person, either as part of the same transaction or as part of the general course of dealing.

(c) If a seller is rendering to any person services involving the examination and refraction of eyes, and he is also selling corrective eye glasses or spectacles to that person, either as part of the same transaction or as part of the same general course of dealing, the following rules apply:

(1) If the seller makes a single charge for the sale of both the glasses and the services, the joint sale is subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(2) If the seller makes a separate charge for the sale of the glasses and a separate charge for the sale of the services, and during March 1942 he customarily made separate charges, then the charge for the services is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation. The sale of the glasses, however, is subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(3) If the seller makes a separate charge for the sale of the glasses and a separate charge for the sale of the services, but in March 1942 he did not customarily make separate charges, and made a single charge for the services and the glasses, then the sum of the charge for the examination and refraction of eyes, plus the charge for the sale of the glasses shall not exceed the highest charge made in March 1942 for the same combination of services and glasses. In order to maintain the correct maximum prices on the sale of the eye glasses, the sale of the glasses and the sale of the services shall be treated as a joint sale of the glasses and the services and shall be subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) Effective dates. * * *

(1*0) Amendment No. 110 to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 (§ 1499.73 (a) (68)) shall become effective February 19, 1943.

the petroleum industry in the area over which such committee has jurisdiction so as to provide, so far as possible, for the concentration of supplies of Principal Petroleum Products at points which will permit the maximum efficient use of available transportation facilities. The Director of Refining, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, shall furnish to the Director of Petroleum Supply, a suggested monthly schedule for the succeeding month assigning among the several refineries in District One the crude petroleum to be shipped into District One and showing the monthly quantity and the quality of the Principal Petroleum Products to be manufactured at each refinery in District One during such month. Copies of all suggested schedules provided for in this section, effective for the following calendar month, shall be forwarded to the appropriate committees or subcommittees and to the Persons named therein.

(b) Section 1510.29 Petroleum Directive 59, as Amended December 12, 1942, (7 F.R. 10621) is hereby amended by changing § 1510.29 (a) and (e) to read as follows:

§ 1510.29 Supply and distribution program for District One. (a) A suggested schedule showing the sales position of each original supplier in each of the six zones described in Exhibit A hereof and for all of District One for each of the principal petroleum products. The determination shall be based on sales made during the calendar year 1941, and shall be expressed as a percentage of the total sales of each of such products made by all original suppliers in the same areas and for the same period. In making such determination the subcommittee may make allowances for seasonal variations in sales volume on a monthly basis. In order to avoid duplication in the determination of the sales position of any Person, sales and deliveries made by one original supplier to another original supplier shall be included as sales of the receiving supplier and deducted from the sales made by the delivering supplier. In order to reflect true zone sales positions in the preparation of such schedules, adjustments shall be made for sales made in one zone for shipment to another zone and for any complete or substantial discontinuance of any class of business in any zone since January 1, 1942.

(e) Subject to the supervision of the District Director of Marketing, District One, the subcommittee shall arrange for purchases, sales, exchanges, and loans of the Principal Petroleum Products among the original suppliers so as to provide each such original supplier with a proportionate part of each of the principal petroleum products available for distribution in each zone on the basis of the sales position of each such original supplier as determined under § 1510.29 (a) hereof. Subject to the supervision of the said Director, the subcommittee may withhold from the amount of each product expected to be available for distribution as shown by the supply forecasts referred to in § 1510.28 hereof, an amount not to exceed three per cent of motor fuel and five per cent of the other principal petroleum products as a supply subject to distribution to original suppliers by the subcommittee under the supervision of the said Director to meet emergency, extraordinary, or unexpected conditions that may arise with respect to any original supplier. The terms and conditions of any sale, loan, or exchange to be made pursuant to this section shall be negotiated between the individual parties to any such transaction: Provided, however, That: * * *

ISSUANCE OF NECESSITY CERTIFICATES

Amendments to regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy, with the approval of the President, governing the issuance of necessity certificates under section 124 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The regulations governing issuance of necessity certificates under section 124 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, prescribed by the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy and approved by the President May 22, 1942 (7 F.R. 4233), are amended as follows:

1. In paragraph 1 strike out the word "corporations" appearing in the first sentence and substitute in lieu thereof the word "persons".

2. In paragraph 2 (a) strike out "June 10, 1940" and substitute in lieu thereof "December 31, 1939".

3. In paragraph 2 (b) strike out "June 10, 1940" and substitute in lieu thereof "January 1, 1940".

4. Paragraph 2 (c) is amended to read as follows:

"Taxpayer" means a person as that term is defined in section 3797 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

5. In paragraph 5 (a) strike out "June 10, 1940" and substitute in lieu thereof "December 31, 1939".

6. Paragraph 6 is amended to read as follows:

Form of application. The standard form of application for a necessity certificate with accompanying instructions may be obtained from the certifying authority. In cases where time does not permit preparation of a formal application, an informal written application will be accepted, pending the filing of a formal application. The formal application need not follow the standard form nor repeat any of the language of these regulations; but it should clearly and concisely set forth the information called for in the standard form, with particular reference to such of the considerations set forth in Article 3 of these regulations as may be relevant to the application. The application must be duly sworn to and should give the name of the person authorized to represent the taxpayer for the purpose of the application.

7. Paragraph 7 is amended to read as follows:

Place and time of filing of application; making of election. An application for a necessity certificate is filed when received at the office of the certifying authority in Washington, D. C., or at any other office designated by the certifying authority. The application must be thus filed within six months after the beginning of the construction, reconstruction, erection, or installation, or the date of acquisition, of the facilities sought to be certified, or before December 1, 1941, whichever is later; except that (a) in the case of an emergency facility completed or acquired by a corporation after December 31, 1939, and before June 11, 1940, the application must be filed on or before April 21, 1943, and (b) in the case of an emergency facility completed or acquired after December 31, 1939, by a person other than a corporation, the application must be filed before the expiration of six months after the beginning of construction, reconstruction, erection, or installation of the emergency facility or the date of its acquisition, or on or before April 21, 1943, whichever is later.

The part of any facility which was constructed, reconstructed, erected, or installed not earlier than six months prior to the filing of an application for a certificate, is deemed a separate facility for the purpose of determining the timeliness of the filing, notwithstanding that the other part of such facility was constructed, reconstructed, erected, or installed earlier than six months prior to the filing of the application.

The application should be filed in time to enable the certifying authority to issue a necessity certificate before expiration of the taxpayer's time of making of election, as set forth in section 124 (f) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

These amendments shall be effective as of October 21, 1942.

HENRY L. STIMSON,
Secretary of War.

JAMES FORRESTAL,
Acting Secretary of the Navy.

Notice is hereby given that answer to the complaint must be filed with the Division at its Washington Office or with any one of the statistical bureaus of the Division, within twenty (20) days after date of service thereof on the Code Member; and that failure to file an answer within such period, unless otherwise ordered, shall be deemed to be an admission of the allegations of the complaint herein and a consent to the entry of an appropriate order on the basis of the facts alleged.

Notice is also hereby given that if it shall be determined that the Code Member has wilfully committed any one or more of the violations alleged in the complaint, an order may be entered either revoking the membership of the Code Member in the Code and the Code Member's right to an exemption from the taxes imposed by section 3520 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, or directing the Code Member to cease and desist from violating the Code and regulations made thereunder.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the complaint filed by said complainant alleging that Leroy Hubler, trading under the name and style of Alder Run Mining Company, R. F. D. No. 1, Morrisdale, Pennsylvania, whose code membership became effective as of September 13, 1938, operator of the Shannon Mine, Mine Index No. 461, located in Subdistrict No. 8, District No. 8, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, has wilfully violated the Act, the Code, and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by selling and delivering, coal produced at the aforesaid mine, in the following transactions:

I. By selling and delivering for rail shipment, subsequent to October 14, 1940, substantial tonnages of coal produced by said code member at the aforesaid mine, notwithstanding the fact that minimum prices, temporary or final, had not been established therefor by the Division including:

Sales during the period October 21, 1940, to March 25, 1941, both dates inclusive, of approximately 3,218.05 net tons of run of mine coal to R. S. Walker, trading under the name and style of Bradford Coal Company ("Walker"), Bigler, Pennsylvania, and delivering said coal at rail sidings other than at Alder Run, Pennsylvania, to Walker at his railroad sidings located at Bigler, Munson, Shawville, and Morrisdale, Pennsylvania, who resold and shipped said coal by rail from his said rail sidings to various purchasers, so that each such transaction constituted a wilful violation of the Order of the Director issued in General Docket No. 19 dated October 9, 1940, which became effective October 14, 1940; or

II. By selling and delivering by truck subsequent to September 30, 1940, coal produced at the aforesaid Shannon Mine at prices below the effective minimum price for said coal plus transportation charges, handling, or incidental charges from the transportation facilities at the mine to the points at which all such charges were assumed and directly paid by the purchaser, including the following transactions:

The sale and delivery during the period from October 21, 1940, to March 25, 1941, both dates inclusive, of approximately 3,222.05 net tons of run of mine coal to Walker at prices ranging from $1.85 to $2.00 per net ton f. o. b. his railroad sidings, located at Bigler, Munson, Shawville, and Morrisdale, Pennsylvania, whereas such coal was classified as Size Group No. 3 and priced at $2.25 per net ton f. o. b. said mine, to which minimum price there should have been added, as required by the applicable price instruction, the transportation, handling, and other charges from the transportation facilities at the mine to said points of delivery, where all such charges were assumed and directly paid by said purchaser, so that each of said transactions constituted a sale and delivery of coal in wilful violation of section 4, Part II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code.

III. By selling subsequent to September 30, 1940, below the effective minimum prices therefor, coal produced at his aforesaid mine, including the sale and delivery of approximately 454.525 net tons of run of mine coal (Size Group 3) during the period October 5, 1940, to January 31, 1941, both dates inclusive, to Kristianson & Johnson Coal Company, Inc., ("Kristianson") Lanse, Pennsylvania, and allowing Kristianson deductions, unauthorized discounts, or commissions in the amount of 12 cents per net ton from the applicable f. o. b. mine price at $2.25 per net ton established therefor, resulting in sales by said Code Member at $2.13 per net ton for said coal to Kristianson, so that each such transaction constituted a wilful violation of section 4 Part II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code.

[Docket Nos. A-1847, A-1847, Part II]

DISTRICT BOARD 18

MEMORANDUM OPINION, ETC.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 18 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the Green Raney Mine.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 18 for revision of the boundaries of District No. 18 to include therein all coal producing counties in the state of Arizona.

Memorandum opinion and order severing Docket No. A-1847 Part II from Docket A-1847, and notice of and order for hearing in Docket No. A-1847 Part II.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with this Division by the above-named party requesting (1) the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Green Raney Mine, Mine Index No. 176, of Gus D. Raney, in Subdistrict 6 of District No. 18 for shipment by truck; and (2) revision of the boundaries of District No. 18 to include therein all coal producing counties in the State of Arizona and all coal producing counties in the State of New Mexico except Colfax County, New Mexico.

As stated in the order issued in Docket No. A-1847, a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of the relief requested by petitioner as to the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Green Raney Mine, Mine Index No. 176, of Gus D. Raney in Subdistrict 6 of District No. 18 for shipment by truck. Further, as stated in the above-mentioned order, petitioner's request that all coal producing counties in the State of New Mexico, except Colfax County, be included in District No. 18, appears to have been satisfied by the order issued in Docket No. 898-FD, on October 23, 1940.

The Director is of the opinion that no relief, either temporary or permanent, should be granted in connection with petitioner's request that the boundary of District No. 18 be revised to include therein all coal producing counties in the State of Arizona, pending a hearing in this matter.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-1847 relating to the proposed revision of boundaries of District No. 18 to include all coal producing counties in the State of Arizona be, and the same hereby is, severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1847 and designated as Docket No. A-1847, Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-1847 Part II, under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules and regulations of the Division be held on March 15, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Cuff, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 11, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in Docket No. A-1847, Part II, and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 18 for revision of the boundaries of District No. 18 to include therein all coal producing counties in the State of Arizona.

Dated: February 12, 1943.

J. H. SMITH, DRAGOON, ARIZ.

ORDER REVOKING LICENSE AND DIRECTING ITS SURRENDER

Proceedings for revocation of the Federal explosives license, issued under the Federal Explosives Act of December 26, 1941 (55 Stat. 863) to the above-named licensee, were begun on October 30, 1942, by the filing of Specification of Charges setting forth violations of the act and regulations by J. H. Smith. Following receipt of a reply from the licensee, dated November 7, 1942, a Notice of Hearing, dated December 4, 1942, was transmitted to him. A hearing was held on the charges on December 18, 1942, in Phoenix, Arizona, before the Hearing Officer duly designated by me, at which hearing the licensee failed to appear, although he received due notice thereof, and evidence was adduced bearing upon these charges.

The Report of the Hearing Officer, transmitted to me on December 24, 1942, found in its findings of fact and conclusions of law that the licensee had violated various provisions of the act and regulations and recommended the revocation of his license and that he be denied any future license. A copy of the Hearing Officer's Report, together with notification of the transmittal of the case record and Hearing Officer's Report to me, were sent to the licensee on December 24, 1942, and he was advised that he was allowed 15 days from the date of the receipt thereof to file an original and two copies of a statement in writing setting forth such exceptions to the Report or to any other part of the record or proceedings (including rulings upon all motions and objections) as he might desire and an original and two copies of a brief in support of his exceptions. The licensee was also advised of his right to request permission to argue the matter orally before me. The time granted to the licensee within which to file exceptions and brief, allowing a reasonable time for the delivery of the notice, has expired and nothing has been received from the licensee.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by sections 8 and 18 of the Federal Explosives Act and § 301.22 of the regulations issued pursuant thereto (7 F.R. 5901), I, R. R. Sayers, Director of the Bureau of Mines, having reviewed the record,

Order

That the Hearing Officer's Report, including its findings, conclusions and recommendations be and it is hereby approved and adopted as my own;

That Vendor's License No. 235577 and any and all other Federal explosives licenses heretofore issued to J. H. Smith of Dragoon, Arizona, be and they are hereby revoked;

That the licenses mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall be surrendered by delivering them to me on or before March 1, 1943, or by depositing them on or before that date in the United States Mail with postage prepaid addressed to me; and

That the revocation of the licenses mentioned above shall be with prejudice to the right of the licensee to secure new licenses under the Federal Explosives Act and regulations, and no such license shall be granted to him in the future.

Dated: February 10, 1943.

HAINES GAS STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Hubert H. Peterson and Robert J. Boyle, co-partners, Haines Gas Station, 6503 Georgia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondents, were duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Washington, D. C., on November 27, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondents. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Chairman of the Industry Council, it is hereby determined:

(a) Respondents are dealers in gasoline and operate a gasoline filling station located at 6503 Georgia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondents have violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1502), in that on various occasions between July 22 and November 16, 1942, respondents transferred gasoline to consumers without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons or other evidences.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Washington, D. C., respondents' violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Chairman of the Industry Council that further violations by respondents are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken: It is hereby ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 211 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondents shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale at their filling station at 6503 Georgia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

(2) Respondents shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline at their filling station at 6503 Georgia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

(3) No person shall in any manner, directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondents for resale at their filling station at 6503 Georgia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 211 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

This Suspension Order No. 211 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. February 23, 1943, and unless sooner terminated shall expire 12:01 a. m. March 25, 1943.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216); Supplementary Directive 1Q (7 F.R. 9121))

In the matter of proceeding under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to determine whether the registration of New Premier Consolidated Mines Company common stock, $1 par value, nonassessable, should be suspended or withdrawn.

I

It appearing to the Commission:

That New Premier Consolidated Mines Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Utah, is the issuer of Common Stock, $1.00 Par Value, Non-Assessable; and

It further appearing to the Commission:

That Rule X-13A-1, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does require that an annual report for each issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall be filed on the appropriate form prescribed therefor; and

That Rule X-13A-2, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does prescribe Form 10-K as the annual report form to be used for the annual reports of all corporations except those for which another form is specified, and that no other form was or is specified for use by the said New Premier Consolidated Mines Company, and

That said Rule X-13A-1 requires that said annual report be filed not more than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year or such other period as may be prescribed in the instruction book applicable to the particular form; that the Instruction Book for Form 10-K does not prescribe any period other than such 120 days; and that pursuant to said Rule X-13A-1 the annual report must be filed within such period unless the registrant files with the Commission a request for an extension of time to a specified date within six months after the close of the fiscal year; and

REFUNDS OF EXCESS PAYMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation by the Federal Crop Insurance Act, approved Febuary 16, 1938, as amended, the 1942 Cotton Crop Insurance Regulations[1] are amended as follows:

Section 411.27 of said regulations is amended to read as follows:

(1) The cash equivalent of any refund of premium shall be determined by multiplying the amount to be refunded, in terms of pounds of lint cotton of the grade and staple constituting the premium for the insurance contract with respect to which the payment was made, by the cash equivalent price per pound applicable for the day the payment was tendered: Provided, however, That if payments on the note for the insurance contract are made on more than one day such payments shall be applied in the order in which tendered and the refund shall be made from the payments tendered, starting with the last, any portion of which was not used in payment of the note, and each such payment or portion thereof not so used shall be considered as a separate payment in the application of the foregoing formula for determining the amount of such refund.

(2) No refund shall be made except upon receipt of a written request unless the cash equivalent of such refund is one dollar or more.

(b) Refund of excess payments received after maturity of note. Payments received after the maturity date for the note shall be refunded in the actual amount of money paid to the Corporation in excess of that determined to be necessary to pay such note: Provided, however, That no refund of less than one dollar shall be made unless a written request for such refund is received.

Such purchases shall be made only on orders approved by the Director as to quantities and types of tea. The total quantity which any qualified distributor shall be eligible to purchase shall not exceed a portion of the available supply of tea determined by the Director as nearly as may be practicable on the basis of the ratio of his annual imports of tea for the years 1940 and 1941 to the average annual total imports of tea of all qualified distributors for the years 1940 and 1941.

(c) Qualified distributors. (1) The Director shall designate as qualified distributors tea importers who have indicated a willingness to act as such and who are, in the judgment of the Director, by reason of their experience, facilities and personnel, able efficiently to distribute tea to packers and otherwise to discharge the functions and duties which they may be called upon to perform under this order.

(2) Any importer of tea not designated as a qualified distributor, who believes that he is qualified to act as such may appeal to the Director within 15 days after publication of the list of qualified distributors. On such appeal he shall set forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to be designated as a qualified distributor. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate. If, on appeal, the Director designates any tea importer as a qualified distributor, such designation shall not affect sales made to other qualified distributors prior to such designation.

(3) The Director may terminate the status of a qualified distributor who fails to enter into the contract offered by Commodity for the purchase of tea and the performance of services incident to the importation and handling of tea, or who upon entering into such contract fails to comply therewith, or who violates any provision of this order or Food Distribution Order No. 18 or any Director Food Distribution Orders supplementary thereto.

(4) A qualified distributor may terminate his status as a qualified distributor upon giving the Director at least 30 days' written notice. Such termination shall not affect any existing contractual relationship with Commodity.

(2) After consulting with the members of the Tea Distribution Committee, the Director shall, within the limits of the respective quantities of tea which qualified distributors are eligible to purchase hereunder and packers quotas established under Food Distribution Order No. 18, make allocations to qualified distributors and packers of the types of tea available so as to meet, as nearly as may be possible, the requirements of packers' orders received by qualified distributors, and shall approve or, if necessary, modify and approve distributors' orders of tea from Commodity in accordance with such allocations.

(f) Records and reports. All qualified distributors shall maintain such records for such periods of time, and shall execute and file such reports and submit such information, as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(g) Audits and inspections. Every qualified distributor shall permit inspection during reasonable business hours of his books, records, and accounts by the Director.

(h) Appeals. Except as provided by paragraph (c) (2) hereof, any person affected by this order, who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and undue hardship on him, may appeal to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts in justification of such appeal, together with the statement of the nature of the relief requested. The Director may, upon the basis of such appeal and other information, take such action as he deems appropriate.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any person who, in the judgment of the Director, is found to have violated any of the terms or provisions of this order, may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of tea, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concernings this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref. FD-21.

The amount of such payment shall be credited against the tax imposed by section 211 (a) or 231 (a) upon the shareholder.

§ 19.504–6 Overpayments and deficiencies—(a) Overpayments. If, as a result of the application of section 186 of the Revenue Act of 1942, any overpayment is established or determined with respect to the personal holding company tax for any year and a claim is filed within one year after October 21, 1942, for the credit or refund of such overpayment, and if, on October 21, 1942 or within one year thereafter, such credit or refund would otherwise be prevented, then notwithstanding any other provision of law or rule of law (other than section 186 (h) of the Revenue Act of 1942, and other than section 3761 of the Internal Revenue Code or section 3229 of the Revised Statutes, or such section as amended by section 815 of the Revenue Act of 1938, relating to compromises), such overpayment shall be refunded or credited in the same manner as in the case of an income tax erroneously collected.

(b) Deficiencies. If, as a result of the application of section 186 of the Revenue Act of 1942, a deficiency is established or determined with respect to the personal holding company tax for any year, and if, on the date of the filing of the consents referred to in subsection (e) of that section, or on the date of filing of the claim referred to in subsection (g) (1) of that section, or within one year from the date of filing such consents or claim, as the case may be, the assessment or collection of such deficiency is prevented, then, notwithstanding any other provision of law or rule of law, the deficiency shall be assessed and collected if assessment is made within one year from the filing of such consents or claim, as the case may be.

(c) Amounts not included in shareholder's return. If a shareholder fails to include in his gross income for the proper taxable year the amount specified in section 186 (g) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1942, such failure shall have the same effect with respect to the deficiency resulting therefrom, as is provided in section 272 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to a deficiency resulting from a mathematical error appearing on the face of the return.

PAR. 13. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.506–1 the following:

(1) Amendment of Internal Revenue Code. The first sentence of section 506 (c) (1) is amended to read as follows: "For the purposes of this subchapter, the term 'deficiency dividends' means the amount of the dividends paid, on or after the date of the closing agreement or on or after the date the decision of the Board or the judgment becomes final, as the case may be, and prior to filing claim under subsection (d), which would have been includible in the computation of the basic surtax credit for the taxable year with respect to which the deficiency was asserted if distributed during such taxable year."

* * * * *

(f) Effective date of amendments. The amendments made by subsections (a) to (e), inclusive, shall be effective as of the date of enactment of the laws amended thereby.

(g) Retroactive application. The amendments made by subsections (a) to (d), inclusive, shall not apply with respect to any distribution, which is a dividend solely by reason of the last sentence of section 115 (a) of the applicable revenue law, made prior to the date of enactment of this Act by a corporation which, under the law applicable to the taxable year in which the distribution is made, is a personal holding company, or which, for the taxable year in respect of which it is made under section 504 (c) or section 506 or a corresponding provision of a prior income tax law, is a personal holding company under the law applicable to such taxable year, unless:

(1) The corporation (under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary) files, within one year after the date of the enactment of this Act, a claim for the benefit of this section on account of such distribution;

(2) Such claim is accompanied by signed consents made under oath by each person to whom the corporation made such distribution agreeing to the inclusion of the amount of such distribution to him in his gross income as a taxable dividend. If any such person is no longer in existence or is under disability then the consent may be made by his legal representative; and

(3) Each such consent filed is accompanied by cash, or such other medium of payment as the Commissioner may by regulations authorize, in an amount equal to the amount that would be required by section 143 (b) or 144 of the applicable revenue law to be deducted and withheld by the corporation if the amount of the distribution to the shareholder had been paid to the shareholder in cash as a dividend. The amount accompanying such consent shall be credited against the tax under the applicable revenue law imposed by section 211 (a) or 231 (a) upon the shareholder.

(h) Overpayments and deficiencies. If the refund or credit of any overpayment for any taxable year, to the extent resulting from the application of subsections (e) and (g) of this section is prevented on the date of the enactment of this Act or within one year from such date, then, notwithstanding any other provision of law or rule of law (other than this subsection and other than section 3761 of the Internal Revenue Code or section 3229 of the Revised Statutes, or such section as amended by section 815 of the Revenue Act of 1938, relating to compromises), such overpayment shall be refunded or credited in the same manner as in the case of an income tax erroneously collected if claim therefor is filed within one year from the date of the enactment of this Act. If the assessment or collection of any deficiency for any taxable year, to the extent resulting from the application of subsections (e) and (g) of this section, is prevented on the date of the filing of the shareholders' consents referred to in subsection (e) or on the date of filing of the claim referred to in subsection (g) (1) or within one year from the date of filing of such consents or claim, as the case may be, then, notwithstanding any other provision of law or rule of law, such deficiency shall be assessed and collected if assessment is made within one year from the date of the filing of such consents or claim, as the case may be. The failure of a shareholder to include in his gross income for the proper taxable year the amount specified in the consent made by him referred to in subsection (g) (2) shall have the same effect, with respect to the deficiency resulting therefrom, as is provided in section 272 (f) of the applicable revenue law with respect to a deficiency resulting from a mathematical error appearing on the face of the return.

Such election must be made by the filing of a claim (under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary) within such six-month period and after the payment of the dividend, specifying the taxable year or years with respect to which such dividend applies, setting forth the amount of the dividend to be apportioned to each taxable year, and claiming the benefit of this subsection by reason of such dividend.

(2) Effect of election. If the corporation exercises the election authorized under paragraph (1) of this subsection—

(A) The credit or refund shall be computed, and credited or refunded without interest, as provided in subsection (b) and at the rates provided therein or in subsection (g), as the case may be, but shall be subject to the limitations in subsection (f). In any case where a dividend is apportioned to more than one taxable year the credit or refund shall be determined for each taxable year on the basis of the amount of the dividend apportioned thereto; and

(B) The dividends paid credit for the taxable year in which paid and for a prior taxable year or years shall be determined as provided in subsection (c) (2).

(2) The corporation is required to make an election within six months after October 21, 1942, to have the amount of a dividend paid within such six-month period treated as a deficiency dividend;

(3) The election must be made by the filing of a claim for credit or refund within such six-month period;

(6) No credit or refund shall be made under section 506 (j), with respect to any amount of tax paid on or after October 21, 1942; and

(7) No interest shall be allowed on the credit or refund.

(7) The amount claimed as a credit or refund; and

(8) Such other information as may be required by the claim form.

§ 19.506–12. Effect of election. If the corporation elects to have a distribution made within six months after October 21, 1942, considered as a deficiency dividend as provided in section 506 (j), and files the claim required by that section:

(a) The credit or refund shall be computed, and credited or refunded without interest, as provided in section 506 (b) and at the rates provided therein or in section 506 (g), as the case may be. However, such credit or refund shall not be allowed with respect to any deficiency attributable, in whole or in part, to fraud with intent to evade the tax or to a fail-

Such regulations shall prescribe the amount of the net operating loss deduction of each member of the group which is attributable to a deduction allowed for a taxable year beginning in 1941 on account of property considered as destroyed or seized under section 127 (relating to war losses), and the allowance of the amount so prescribed as a deduction in computing the net income of the group shall not be limited by the amount of the net income of such member.

(c) Computation and payment of tax. In any case in which consolidated income-tax and excess-profits-tax returns are made or are required to be made, the taxes shall be determined, computed, assessed, collected, and adjusted in accordance with the regulations under subsection (b) prescribed prior to the last day prescribed by law for the filing of such returns; except that the tax imposed under section 15 or section 204 shall be increased by 2 per centum of the consolidated corporation surtax net income of the affiliated group of includible corporations. SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 4. Sections 19.141–1, 19.141–2, and 19.141–3 are amended to read as follows:

§ 19.141–1 Consolidated income tax returns of affiliated corporations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938, but before January 1, 1942—(a) In general. The regulations prescribed under section 141 (b), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942, have been promulgated as Regulations 104 and are applicable to the making of consolidated income tax returns by affiliated corporations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938, in the case of railroad corporations, and after December 31, 1939, in the case of Pan-American trade corporations, but, in either case, before January 1, 1942, and to the determination, computation, assessment, collection, and adjustment of income tax liabilities under consolidated returns for such years. For definition of taxable year, see section 48.

(b) Formation of and changes in affiliated group. An affiliated group of railroad corporations, within the meaning of section 141, prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942, is formed at the time that the common parent corporation becomes the owner directly of at least 95 percent of the stock (as defined by subsection (d) of such section) of another corporation. A corporation becomes a member of such an affiliated group at the time that one or more members of such group become the owners directly of at least 95 percent of its stock. A corporation ceases to be a member of such an affiliated group at the time that the aggregate of its stock owned directly by the members of such group becomes less than 95 percent. As to when Pan-American trade corporations are deemed to be an affiliated group of corporations, see section 152.

(c) Corporations to be included in consolidated returns. The privilege of filing consolidated returns for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938, in the case of railroad corporations, and after December 31, 1939, in the case of Pan-American trade corporations, but, in either case, before January 1, 1942, is limited to corporations constituting an "affiliated group" as defined in sections 141 (d) and 152 prior to their amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942. The Internal Revenue Code requires each corporation to be either (1) a corporation whose principal business is that of a "common carrier by railroad," (2) a corporation whose assets consist principally of stock in such corporations and which does not itself operate a business other than that of a "common carrier by railroad," or (3) a Pan-American trade corporation as defined in section 152. The term "common carrier by railroad" includes steam and electric railroads, street, suburban, and interurban electric railways, street and suburban trackless trolley systems of transportation, and street or suburban bus systems of transportation operated as a part of street or suburban electric railway or trackless trolley systems, but does not include express, refrigerator, or sleeping car companies. If a "common carrier by railroad" as above defined has leased its railroad properties and such properties are operated as such by another common carrier by railroad, the business of receiving rents for such properties is considered as the business of a common carrier by railroad. (As to what constitutes a Pan-American trade corporation, see §§ 19.152–1 and 19.152–2.)

A consolidated return must include every domestic corporation which is a member of the "affiliated group"; but shall not include a foreign corporation (except as provided in section 141 (h) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942); a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922; or a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 251.

PAR. 5. Section 19.141–4 is amended by redesignating such section as paragraph "(d)" of § 19.141–1, and by amending the first sentence of such paragraph to read as follows:

In the case of a domestic corporation owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, the entire capital stock (exclusive of directors' qualifying shares) of a corporation described in section 141 (d) (3), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942, and organized under the laws of Canada or of Mexico and maintained solely for the purpose of complying with the laws of such country as to title and operation of property, such foreign corporation may, at the option of the domestic corporation, be treated for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938, as a domestic corporation.

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately after § 19.141–1 (d) the following new section:

§ 19.141–2 Consolidated income and excess profits tax returns of affiliated corporations for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941—(a) In general. Section 141, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, prescribes rules for the making, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, of both consolidated income and excess profits tax returns by an affiliated group of corporations. Regulations promulgated as Regulations 104 applicable to consolidated income tax returns, and as Regulations 110 applicable to consolidated excess profits tax returns, as amended to reflect the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1942, under the authorization contained in section 141 (b), are applicable to the making of consolidated income and excess profits tax returns for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, and to the determination, computation, assessment, collection, and adjustment of income and excess profits tax liabilities of the affiliated group and each member thereof both during and after the period of affiliation. For definition of taxable year see section 48.

(b) Formation of and changes in affiliated group. An affiliated group of corporations, within the meaning of section 141, is formed at the time that the common parent corporation, which is an includible corporation, becomes the owner directly of stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 95 per cent of each class of the nonvoting stock (not including nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends) of another includible corporation. A corporation becomes a member of such an affiliated group at the time that one or more members of such group become the owners directly of stock possessing at least 95 percent of the voting power of all classes of its stock and at least 95 percent of each class of its nonvoting stock (not including nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends).

(c) Corporations to be included in consolidated returns. The privilege of filing consolidated income and excess profits tax returns for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, is extended to all includible corporations constituting an "affiliated group" as defined in section 141 (d). In case a corporation is a member of an affiliated group for a fractional part of the year, the consolidated returns shall include the income of such corporation for the part of the year during which it is a member of the group. However, a corporation which is not a member of such group after March 31, 1942, of the last taxable year of such group which begins before April 1, 1942, shall not be considered a member of such group for consolidated income tax return purposes for such year, but shall be considered a member of such group for consolidated excess profits tax return purposes for such year. An "includible corporation" is defined by section 141 (e) to mean any corporation except:

(1) A corporation exempt under section 101 from the tax imposed by Chapter I;

(2) An insurance company subject to taxation under section 201 or 207 (except as provided in section 141 (f));

(3) A foreign corporation (except as provided in section 141 (g));

(4) A corporation entitled to the benefits of section 251, by reason of receiving a large percentage of its income from sources within possessions of the United States;

(5) A corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922; and

(6) A regulated investment company subject to tax under Supplement Q.

The consolidated income tax return and the consolidated excess profits tax return must include every includible corporation which, under the provisions of section 141, is a member of the affiliated group. In no case may a consolidated return be filed by subsidiary corporations as an affiliated group unless the common parent corporation through which the subsidiaries are connected is a member of the group. For instance there will not be recognized as an affiliated group two domestic industrial corporations the common parent corporation of which is a regulated investment company subject to tax under Supplement Q. In addition, no corporation which is connected by stock ownership with an affiliated group of includible corporations through a nonincludible corporation may be included in the consolidated return of such group.

Every corporation which is a member of an affiliated group making consolidated returns under section 141 is a member of such group both for consolidated income tax and consolidated excess profits tax return purposes, regardless of any exemption to which it might have been entitled if separate returns had been made. (See sections 725 (b) and 727.)

(d) Consolidated returns of insurance companies. An insurance company subject to tax under section 204 is an includible corporation and may be included in an affiliated group together with corporations other than insurance companies taxable under section 201 or section 207. Insurance companies subject to tax under section 201 or 207 are not includible corporations under section 141 (e) (2). Under section 141 (f), however, a domestic insurance company taxable under section 201 may be included in an affiliated group comprised solely of other domestic insurance companies taxable under section 201; it may not be included in an affiliated group with other corporations. Similarly, a domestic insurance company taxable under section 207 may be included in an affiliated group comprised solely of other domestic insurance companies taxable under section 207; it may not be included in an affiliated group with other corporations. An affiliated group of domestic insurance companies taxable under section 201, or a group of domestic insurance companies taxable under section 207 may not include a domestic insurance company taxable under section 204.

(e) Foreign corporations which may be treated as domestic corporations. In the case of a domestic corporation owning or controlling directly or indirectly, the entire capital stock (exclusive of directors' qualifying shares) of a corporation organized under the laws of Canada or of Mexico and maintained solely for the purpose of complying with the laws of such country as to title and operation of property, such foreign corporation may, at the option of the domestic corporation, be treated as a domestic corporation. The option to treat such foreign corporation as a domestic corporation must be exercised at the time of making the first consolidated income and excess profits tax returns under the Internal Revenue Code as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, and cannot be exercised at any time thereafter. If the election is exercised to treat such foreign corporation as a domestic corporation, it must be included in both the consolidated income and excess profits tax returns of the affiliated group of which it is a member for each year for which such group makes or is required to make a consolidated return.

(f) Computation of tax. The surtax imposed by section 15 or section 204 upon an affiliated group making a consolidated income tax return shall be increased by 2 percent of the consolidated corporation surtax net income. In case the consolidated corporation surtax net income exceeds $25,000 but not $50,000, the surtax on the first $25,000 is $3,000 instead of $2,500 as provided in section 15 (b) (2) in the case of corporations not making a consolidated return.

(a) If 95 per centum or more of the gross income of such domestic corporation for the three-year period immediately preceding the close of the taxable year (or for such part of such period during which the corporation was in existence) was derived from sources other than sources within the United States; and

To so qualify, the following tests must be met:

(a) Its entire business must be carried on within the geographical limits of North, Central, or South America, or in the West Indies, or in Newfoundland; and

A corporation which claims exemption as a Western Hemisphere Trade Corporation shall attach to its income tax return a statement showing that its entire business is done in one or more of the designated countries, and for the 3-year period immediately preceding the close of the taxable year (or for such part thereof during which the corporation was in existence) (1) its total gross income from all sources, (2) the amount thereof derived from the active conduct of a trade or business, (3) a description of such trade or business and the facts upon which the corporation relies to establish that such trade or business was actively conducted by it, and (4) the amount of its gross income, if any, from sources within the United States. (A) In a receivership proceeding, or

(B) In a proceeding under section 77 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, to a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended; organized or made use of to effectuate a plan of reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding. * * * * *

(d) Taxable years to which applicable. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1939.

§ 19.112 (b) (9)–1 Nonrecognition of loss upon transfer of property of railroad corporation. For the purpose of section 112 (b) (9), it is unnecessary that the transfer be a direct transfer by the corporation undergoing reorganization or that such reorganization constitute a reorganization within the meaning of section 112 (g). It is sufficient if the transfer is made in pursuance of an order of the court and is an integral step in the consummation of a plan of reorganization approved by the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding. If these conditions are satisfied, no loss is recognized to the transferor upon the ultimate transfer of the property, or to the transferor upon any intermediate transfer.

Section 112 (b) (9) applies only to a transfer resulting in a loss and has no application if the transfer therein described results in a gain.

* * * * *

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 6. Section 19.113 (a) (2)–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5137, approved April 11, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing subsection (a) to read as follows:

(a) Property included. Section 113 (a) (2) applies to all property acquired after December 31, 1920, by gift. It does not apply:

(2) To property acquired by an instrument which, under section 113 (a) (5), is to be treated as though it were a will; or

(3) For taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, to property acquired as a gift made by a transfer in trust.

Section 113 (a) (2) applies to all gifts of whatever description, whenever and however made, perfected, or taking effect; whether in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the donor's death; or whether made by means of the exercise (other than by will) of a power of appointment or revocation, or any other power. For the purpose of determining basis for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, section 113 (a) (2) does not apply to property acquired as a gift made by a transfer in trust. See section 113 (a) (3). For the purpose of determining basis for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, section 113 (a) (2) applies whether the gift was made by a transfer in trust or otherwise.

(B) By changing the second sentence of the first paragraph of paragraph (b) to read as follows:

For the purpose of determining loss, the basis is as so determined, except that in any case in which such basis, adjusted for the period prior to the date of the gift as provided in section 113 (b), is greater than the fair market value of the property at the time of the gift, the basis is such fair market value.

(C) By inserting after the third sentence of the second paragraph of paragraph (b) the following sentence:

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, such uniform basis applies to the property in the hands of the trustee or the beneficiary under a gift instrument, both during the term of the trust and after the distribution of the trust corpus.

(D) By relettering paragraph (d) as paragraph (e), and by inserting immediately after paragraph (c) the following:

(d) Reinvestments by fiduciary. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, if the property is an investment by the fiduciary under the terms of the gift (as, for example, in the case of a sale by the fiduciary of property transferred under the terms of the gift, and the reinvestment of the proceeds), the cost or other basis to the fiduciary is taken in lieu of the basis specified in paragraph (b) of this section.

PAR. 7. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.113 (a) (3)–1 the following:

SEC. 143. BASIS OF GIFTS. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(b) Transfers in trust after December 31, 1920. Section 113 (a) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) Transfer in trust after December 31, 1920. If the property was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a transfer in trust (other than by a transfer in trust by a gift, bequest, or devise) the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the grantor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the grantor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made.

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 8. Section 19.113 (a) (3)–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5137, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing the second sentence of paragraph (a) to read as follows:

It does not apply to property acquired by bequest or devise, by an instrument which, under section 113 (a) (5), is to be treated as though it were a will, or, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, to property acquired as a gift by transfer in trust made at any time after December 31, 1920.

(B) By inserting at the end of paragraph (a) the following sentence:

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, if the property was acquired as a gift by transfer in trust, it is not within section 113 (a) (3), but is within section 113 (a) (2) or section 113 (a) (4).

PAR. 9. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.113 (a) (5)–1 the following:

SEC. 144. BASIS OF PROPERTY IN CASE OF OPTIONAL VALUE FOR ESTATE TAX PURPOSES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Basis of property. Section 113 (a) (5) (relating to basis of property transmitted at death) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "In the case of an election made by the executor under section 811 (j), the time of acquisition of the property shall, for the purpose of this paragraph, be the applicable valuation date of the property prescribed by such section in determining the value of the gross estate."

(b) Property to which amendment applicable. The amendment made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to property includable in the gross estate of a decedent dying after the date of the enactment of this Act.

PAR. 10. Section 19.113 (a) (5)–1 is amended as follows:

(A) By changing the first sentence of paragraph (b), following Basis, to read as follows:

Section 113 (a) (5) provides three rules for determining the basis of property transmitted at death, first a rule governing property generally, second a special rule governing stock in a foreign personal holding company, and third a special rule applicable to both the first and second rules in certain cases where for estate tax purposes the decedent's gross estate is valued at the optional valuation dates.

(B) By changing the first part of the first sentence of paragraph (b) (1), reading "Except as prescribed in paragraph (2)", to read "Except as prescribed in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph".

(C) By inserting immediately preceding paragraph (c) the following:

(3) Special rule where property valued at optional valuation dates. Section 113 (a) (5), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, provides a special rule applicable in determining the basis of property described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection where:

(i) Such property is includible in the gross estate of a decedent who died after October 21, 1942, and

(ii) The executor elects for estate tax purposes under section 811 (j) to value the decedent's gross estate at the optional valuation dates prescribed in such section.

In such cases, the time of acquisition of such property for the purposes of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph and the remainder of this section is considered to be the date at which such property is valued for estate tax purposes. Thus, in such cases, generally the basis will not be the value at the date of the decedent's death but (with certain limitations) the value at the date one year after his death or, in the case of such property distributed by the executor (or trustee, in certain cases) within one year after the decedent's death, the value as of the time of such distribution. See § 81.11 of Regulations 105.

(D) By changing paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) Fair market value. For the purposes of this section, the value of property as of the date of the death of the decedent as appraised for the purpose of the Federal estate tax or the optional value as appraised for such purpose, whichever is applicable as provided in (3) of paragraph (b), or if the estate is not subject to such tax, its value appraised as of the date of the death of the decedent for the purpose of State inheritance or transmission taxes, shall be deemed to be its fair market value at the time of acquisition.

PAR. 11. There is inserted immediately after § 19.113 (a) (19)–2 the following:

SEC. 142. NONRECOGNITION OF LOSS AND DETERMINATION OF BASIS IN CASE OF CERTAIN RAILROAD REORGANIZATIONS. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

* * * * *

(b) Basis of property acquired by certain railroad corporations. Section 113 (a) (relating to the basis of the property) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(20) Property acquired by railroad corporation. If the property of a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, was acquired after December 31, 1939, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of such corporation—

(A) In a receivership proceeding, or

(B) In a proceeding under section 77 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, and the acquiring corporation is a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, organized or made use of to effectuate a plan or [sic] reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding, the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the railroad corporation whose property was so acquired. The term "reorganization" as used in this paragraph, shall not be limited by the definition of such term in section 112 (g).

* * * * *

(d) Taxable years to which applicable. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1939.

§ 19.113 (a) (20)–1 Property acquired by railroad corporation in a receivership or bankruptcy proceeding. Section 113 (a) (20) sets forth certain conditions under which the basis of property acquired by a railroad corporation is the same as it would have been in the hands of the railroad corporation whose property was acquired. For the purpose of section 113 (a) (20), it is unnecessary that the acquisition in question be a direct transfer from the corporation undergoing reorganization or that such reorganization constitute a reorganization within the meaning of section 112 (g). It is sufficient if the acquisition is in pursuance of an order of the court and is an integral step in the consummation of a reorganization plan approved by the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding.

If the conditions of section 113 (a) (20) are satisfied, then for the purpose of determining basis, the provisions of section 113 (a) (20) only shall apply, notwithstanding that the transaction might also fall within another provision of section 113 (a).

SEC. 142. NONRECOGNITION OF LOSS AND DETERMINATION OF BASIS IN CASE OF CERTAIN RAILROAD REORGANIZATIONS. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(c) Basis of property acquired pursuant to railroad reorganization under section 77B of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended. Section 113 (a) (relating to the basis of the property) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(21) Property acquired by street, suburban, or interurban electric railway corporation. If the property of any street, suburban, or interurban electric railway corporation engaged as a common carrier in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce was acquired after December 31, 1934, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of such corporation in a proceeding under section 77B of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, and the acquiring corporation is a street, suburban, or interurban electric railway engaged as a common carrier in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce, organized or made use of to effectuate a plan of reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding, then, notwithstanding the provisions of section 270 of Chapter X of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, the basis, for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1939, shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the corporation whose property was so acquired. The term "reorganization", as used in this paragraph, shall not be limited by the definition of such term in section 112 (g).

(d) Taxable years to which applicable. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1939.

§ 19.113 (a) (21)–1 Property acquired by electric railway corporation in bankruptcy proceeding. Subject to the limitations and conditions set forth in section 113 (a) (21), if the reorganization under section 77B of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, of an electric railway corporation results in the acquisition of the property of such corporation by another corporate entity, the basis of such property in the hands of the acquiring corporation is the same as it would be in the hands of the old corporation. It is requisite to the application of the section that both corporations be street, suburban, or interurban electric railway corporations engaged in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce, and that the acquisition is in pursuance of an order of the court and is an integral step in the consummation of a reorganization plan approved by the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding. If section 113 (a) (21) applies, section 270 of Chapter X of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, relating to the adjustment of basis by reason of the cancellation or reduction of indebtedness in a bankruptcy proceeding, is inapplicable. Moreover, if the transaction is within the provisions of section 113 (a) (21) and may also be considered to be within any other provision of section 113 (a), then the provisions of section 113 (a) (21) only shall apply.

PAR. 12. There is inserted immediately after § 19.113 (b) (3)–2 the following:

SEC. 115. IMPROVEMENTS BY LESSEE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(b) Basis of real property upon which improvements have been made by lessee. Section 113 (relating to basis for determining gain or loss) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(c) Property on Which Lessee Has Made Improvements. Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of the lessor of such property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of such property and excludible from gross income under section 22 (b) (11). If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of such property was included in gross income of the lessor for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1942, the basis of each portion of such property shall be properly adjusted for the amount so included in gross income.

§ 19.113 (b) (3)–3 Property on which lessee has made improvements. In any case in which a lessee of real property has erected buildings or made other improvements upon the leased property and the lease is terminated by forfeiture or otherwise resulting in the realization by such lessor of income which, were it not for the provisions of section 22 (b) (11) of the Internal Revenue Code, would be includible in gross income of the lessor, the amount so excluded from gross income shall not be taken into account in determining the basis or the adjusted basis of such property or any portion thereof in the hands of the lessor. If, however, in any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1942, there has been included in the gross income of the lessor an amount representing any part of the value of such property attributable to such buildings or improvements, the basis of each portion of such property shall be properly adjusted for the amount so included in gross income. For example, A leased in 1930 from B for a period of 25 years unimproved real property and in accordance with the terms of the lease B erected a building on the property. It was estimated that upon expiration of the lease the building would have a depreciated value of $50,000, which value the lessor elected to report (beginning in 1931) as income over the term of the lease. In 1942 B forfeits the lease. The amount of $22,000 reported as income by A during the years 1931 to 1941, both years inclusive, shall be added to the basis of the property represented by the improvements in the hands of A. If in such case A did not report during the period of the lease any income attributable to the value of the building erected by the lessee and the lease was forfeited in 1940 when the building was worth $75,000, such amount, having been included in gross income under the law applicable to that year, is added to the basis of the property represented by the improvements in the hands of A. As to treatment of such property for the purposes of capital gains and losses, see section 117.

PAR. 13. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.115–1 the following:

SEC. 146. EFFECT ON EARNINGS AND PROFITS OF WASH SALE LOSSES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Wash sale losses not recognized. Section 115 (1) (relating to earnings and profits of corporations) is amended by inserting after the third sentence thereof the following new sentence: For the purposes of this subsection, a loss with respect to which a deduction is disallowed under section 118, or a corresponding provision of a prior income-tax law, shall not be deemed to be recognized.

(b) Effective date of amendment. The amendment made by this section shall be effective as if it were made by section 501 of the Second Revenue Act of 1940.

SEC. 147. DISTRIBUTIONS IN LIQUIDATION. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Section 115 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Distributions in liquidation. Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in full payment in exchange for the stock, and amounts distributed in partial liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock. The gain or loss to the distributee resulting from such exchange shall be determined under section 111, but shall be recognized only to the extent provided in section 112. In the case of amounts distributed (whether before January 1, 1939, or on or after such date) in partial liquidation (other than a distribution to which the provisions of subsection (h) of this section are applicable) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits. If any distribution in partial liquidation or in complete liquidation (including any one of a series of distributions made by the corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all its stock) is made by a foreign corporation which with respect to any taxable year beginning on or before, and ending after, August 26, 1937, was a foreign personal holding company, and with respect to which a United States group (as defined in section 331 (a) (2)) existed after August 26, 1937, and before January 1, 1938, then, despite the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the gain recognized resulting from such distribution shall be considered as a gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for not more than 6 months.

SEC. 166. TECHNICAL AMENDMENT TO DEFINITION OF "DIVIDEND". (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Section 115 (a) (relating to definition of dividends) is amended by striking out "(except in section 203 (a) (3) and section 207 (c) (1), relating to insurance companies)" and inserting the following "(except in section 201 (c) (5), section 204 (c) (11) and section 207 (a) (2) and (b) (3) (where the reference is to dividends of insurance companies paid to policy holders))."

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 14. Section 19.115–1 is amended by changing the parenthetical expression appearing after the words "chapter 1" in the first sentence of the first paragraph to read as follows:

(except when used in section 201 (c) (5), section 204 (c) (11) and section 207 (a) (2) and (b) (3) where the reference is to dividends of insurance companies paid to policyholders).

PAR. 15. Section 19.115–5, as amended by Treasury Decision 5086, approved October 10, 1941, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing the last sentence of the first paragraph of subdivision (b) to read as follows:

For this purpose the term "complete liquidation" includes any one of a series of distributions made by a corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all of its stock in accordance with a bona fide plan of liquidation and under which the transfer of the property under the liquidation is to be completed within a time specified in the plan, but not exceeding, from the close of the taxable year during which it is made the first of the series of distributions under the plan, (1) three years if the first of such series of distributions is made in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1937, but not after December 31, 1941, or (2) two years, if the first of such series of distributions was made in a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1938.

(B) By inserting immediately preceding subdivision (c) the following:

Example. A, an individual who makes his income tax returns on the calendar year basis, owns 20 shares of stock of the P Corporation, a domestic corporation. 10 shares of which were acquired in 1931 at a cost of $1,500, and the remainder of 10 shares in December 1941, at a cost of $2,900. He receives in April 1942, a distribution of $250 per share in complete liquidation, or $2,500 on the 10 shares acquired in 1931, and $2,500 on the 10 shares acquired in December 1941. The gain of $1,000 on the shares acquired in 1931 should be included in A's gross income to the extent of 50 percent, or $500; the loss of $400 on the shares acquired in 1941 should be deducted in computing A's net income to the extent of 100 percent, or $400. (See section 117.)

(C) By changing the first sentence of paragraph (c) to read as follows:

In the case of amounts distributed in a partial liquidation of a corporation, the amount of the gain or loss recognized is subject to the limitations contained in section 117, but, with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938, and not after December 31, 1941, the entire amount of the gain recognized shall be considered as a short-term capital gain despite the provisions of section 117.

(D) By inserting at the end thereof the following:

Example. A, an individual who makes his income tax return on the calendar year basis, owned 20 shares of participating preferred stock of the Z Corporation, 10 shares of which were acquired in 1933 for $1,700 and 10 shares of which were acquired in January 1942, for $1,120. In May 1942, the corporation in a transaction qualifying as a partial liquidation redeemed the entire issue of preferred stock by paying the holders thereof $152 per share. A received $1,520 on the 10 shares acquired in 1933, and $1,520 on the 10 shares acquired in January 1942. The loss of $180 on the shares acquired in 1933 should be deducted in computing A's net income to the extent of 50 percent, or $90; the gain of $400 on the shares acquired in January 1942, should be included in A's gross income to the extent of 100 percent, or $400. (See section 117.)

PAR. 16. Section 19.115–12, as added by Treasury Decision 5024, approved December 19, 1940, is amended by striking out the third sentence of the second paragraph and substituting therefor the following sentences:

A loss (other than a wash sale loss with respect to which a deduction is disallowed under the provisions of section 118 or corresponding provisions of prior revenue laws) may be recognized though not allowed as a deduction (by reason, for example, of the operation of sections 24 (b) and 117 and corresponding provisions of prior revenue laws) but the mere fact that it is not allowed does not prevent decrease in earnings and profits by the amount of such disallowed loss. Wash sale losses, however, disallowed under section 118 and corresponding provisions of prior revenue laws, are deemed nonrecognized losses and do not reduce earnings or profits.

PAR. 17. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.116–1 the following:

SEC. 148. INCOME FROM SOURCES WITHOUT UNITED STATES IN CERTAIN CASES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Exclusion of Earned Income From Foreign Sources. Section 116 (a) (relating to earned income from sources without the United States) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Earned Income From Sources Without the United States.—

(1) Foreign resident for entire taxable year. In the case of an individual citizen of the United States, who establishes to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he is a bona fide resident of a foreign country or countries during the entire taxable year, amounts received from sources without the United States (except amounts paid by the United States or any agency thereof) if such amounts would constitute earned income as defined in section 25 (a) if received from sources within the United States; but such individuals shall not be allowed as a deduction from his gross income any deductions properly allocable to or chargeable against amounts excluded from gross income under this subsection.

(2) Taxable year of change of residence to United States. In the case of an individual citizen of the United States, who has been a bona fide resident of a foreign country or countries for a period of at least two years before the date on which he changes his residence from such country to the United States, amounts received from sources without the United States (except amounts paid by the United States or any agency thereof), which are attributable to that part of such period of foreign residence before such date, if such amounts would constitute earned income as defined in section 25 (a) if received from sources within the United States; but such individual shall not be allowed as a deduction from his gross income any deductions properly allocable to or chargeable against amounts excluded from gross income under this subsection.

(b) Taxable years to which amendment applicable. The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942, and so much of the amendment made by subsection (a) as inserts paragraph (2) in section 116 (a) shall also be applicable to taxable years beginning in 1942.

SEC. 149. RECIPROCAL EXEMPTION OF COMPENSATION OF EMPLOYEES OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF THE PHILIPPINES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Section 116 (h) (relating to reciprocal exemption of official compensation) is amended to read as follows:

(h) Compensation of employees of foreign governments or of the Commonwealth of the Philippines.

(1) Rule for exclusion. Wages, fees, or salary of an employee of a foreign government or of the Commonwealth of the Philippines (including a consular or other officer, or a nondiplomatic representative) received as compensation for official services to such government or such Commonwealth—

(A) If such employee is not a citizen of the United States, or is a citizen of the Commonwealth of the Philippines (whether or not a citizen of the United States); and

(B) If the services are of a character similar to those performed by employees of the Government of the United States in foreign countries or in the Commonwealth of the Philippines, as the case may be; and

(C) If the foreign government, or the Commonwealth of the Philippines, whose employee is claiming exemption grants an equivalent exemption to employees of the Government of the United States performing similar services in such foreign country or such Commonwealth, as the case may be.

(2) Certificate by Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the names of the foreign countries which grant an equivalent exemption to the employees of the Government of the United States performing services in such foreign countries, and the character of the services performed by employees of the Government of the United States in foreign countries. If the Commonwealth of the Philippines grants an equivalent exemption to the employees of the United States performing services in such Commonwealth the Secretary of State shall certify such fact to the Secretary of the Treasury and the character of the services performed by employees of the Government of the United States in such Commonwealth.

(b) The amendment made by this section shall be applicable only to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1939.

SEC. 19.116–1 Earned income from sources without the United States. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942, there is excluded from gross income earned income in the case of an individual citizen of the United States provided the following conditions are met by the taxpayer claiming such exclusion from his gross income: (a) It is established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer has been a bona fide resident of a foreign country or countries throughout the entire taxable year; (b) such income is from sources without the United States; (c) the income constitutes earned income as defined in section 25 (a) if received from sources within the United States; and (d) such income does not represent amounts paid by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof. Hence, a citizen of the United States taking up residence without the United States in the course of the taxable year is not entitled to such exemption for such taxable year. However, once bona fide residence in a foreign country or countries has been established, temporary absence therefrom in the United States on vacation or business trips will not necessarily deprive such individual of his status as a bona fide resident of a foreign country. Whether the individual citizen of the United States is a bona fide resident of a foreign country shall be determined in general by the application of the principles of §§ 19.211–2, 19.211–3, 19.211–4 and 19.211–5 relating to what constitutes residence or nonresidence, as the case may be, in the United States in the case of an alien individual.

For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, in the case of an individual citizen of the United States, there shall be excluded from gross income earned income from sources without the United States derived during the period of his foreign residence if (a) such citizen was a bona fide resident of a foreign country or countries for at least two years prior to the date upon which he becomes a resident of the United States and ceased to be a resident of such foreign country or countries; (b) such amounts would constitute earned income as defined in section 25 (a) if received from sources within the United States; and (c) such income does not represent amounts paid by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof. The application of this provision may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. A, a United States citizen making his return on a calendar year basis, has been a resident of X Country for a period of four years ended June 30, 1942, upon which date he becomes a resident of the United States and ceases to be a resident of X Country. Throughout the years 1940 and 1941, A had rendered personal services in the X Country payment for which was not made until August 1942, at which time he was paid for such services the sum of $50,000. Such amount may be excluded from gross income of A for the calendar year 1942.

In any case in which any amount otherwise constituting gross income is excluded from gross income under the provisions of section 116 (a), there shall not be allowed as a deduction from gross income any items of expenses or losses or other deductions properly applicable to or chargeable against the amounts so excluded from gross income.

PAR. 18. Section 19.116–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5124, approved March 5, 1942, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing the number "19.116–1" to "19.116–2".

(B) By inserting immediately after "(But see section 116 (a).)" the following:

Subject to the same conditions, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1939, wages, fees, or salaries of an employee of the Commonwealth of the Philippines received as compensation for official services rendered to such commonwealth are exempt from Federal income tax subject to the same kind of certification by the Secretary of State to the Secretary of the Treasury. Such latter exemption does not apply to a citizen of the United States unless he is also a citizen of the Commonwealth of the Philippines. (See section 251.)

PAR. 19. Section 19.116–2, as it existed prior to this Treasury decision, is amended by changing the number "19.116–2" to "19.116–3".

(Secs. 105 (e) (2), 115 (b), 137 (a), 137 (b), 138, 141, 142, 143, 144, 146, 147, 148, 149 and 166 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Cong.), and sec. 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 26 U.S.C., 1940 ed., 62))

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1743]

PART 328—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 8

AMENDMENT OF RELIEF ORDER

Order amending order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 8 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 8.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting, among other things, the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the No. 4 Mine, Mine Index No. 5823, of the Crystal Block Coal and Coke Company and the Blue Gem Mine, Mine Index No. 5905 of the Gatliff Coal Company in District No. 8; and

An order granting temporary and conditionally final relief as prayed for having been issued hereon December 21, 1942, 8 F.R. 341; and

A motion having been filed by the petitioner on January 29, 1943 with the Division, requesting (1) that the temporary and conditionally final relief heretofore granted by said order be modified with respect to the said No. 4 Mine, Mine Index No. 5823 and to the said Blue Gem Mine, Mine Index No. 5805, by extending said temporary and conditionally final relief to April 3, 1943; and (2) that the seam designation of coals produced from the Ridge View Mine, Mine Index No. 407 of the Ridge View Coal Company be changed from "Cedar Grove and No. 2 Gas" to "No. 2 Gas"; and

It appearing from said motion that petitioner has not been able to secure commercial testing analyses of coals and other data with regard to the relative market values of the coals produced at the said No. 4 Mine, Mine Index No. 5823 and the said Blue Gem Mine, Mine Index No. 5805; and

It further appearing from said motion that Ridge View Coal Company has discontinued mining coals from the Cedar Grove seam and that this producer is now engaged in removing rail and other mining equipment from its operations in the Cedar Grove seam; and

It further appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of said motion; that no petitions of intervention and no motions in opposition to the granting of said motion have been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and that the following action is deemed necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That said motion be, and the same hereby is, granted and that the temporary relief heretofore granted by the order issued herein on December 21, 1942, 8 F.R. 341, be, and the same hereby is, continued to April 3, 1943, at which time such relief shall become final unless otherwise ordered during the intervening period.

It is further ordered, That the seam designation of coals produced from the Ridge View Mine, Mine Index No. 407 of the Ridge View Coal Company be, and the same hereby is, changed from "Cedar Grove and No. 2 Gas" to "No. 2 Gas."

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within 45 days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

PART 623—CLASSIFICATION PROCEDURE

[Amendment 127, 2d Ed.]

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION BY EXAMINING PHYSICIAN

By virtue of the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 885, 50 U.S.C., Sup. 301-318, inclusive); E.O. No. 8545, 5 F.R. 3779, E.O. No. 9279, 7 F.R. 10177, and the authority vested in me by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission in Administrative Order No. 26, 7 F.R. 10512, Selective Service Regulations, Second Edition, are hereby amended in the following respect:

1. Amend § 623.33 to read as follows:

§ 623.33 Physical examination by examining physician. (a) The Director of Selective Service, from time to time, will issue a List of Defects (Form 220), which will set forth defects which manifestly disqualify the registrant for military service.

(b) A registrant shall personally appear before the examining physician and shall be examined in the manner provided in paragraph (c) of this section except when the examining physician or the local board is convinced that the appearance of the registrant for physical examination before the examining physician will be injurious to the registrant's health or the health of those who might be brought in contact with him. When the registrant appears before the examining physician, his physical examination should be held in a well-lighted, well-heated place. It should be held while the registrant is in the nude.

(c) The physical examination should consist of observing the registrant while walking toward, standing before, and walking away from the examining physician. The registrant may be required to go through calisthenics to determine the mobility of joints or to furnish a basis for determination of his alertness, intelligence, understanding of commands, postural tensions, tendencies to incoordination, and tremors. If peculiarities are noted, simple questions should be asked in an effort to bring out replies bearing on the mental health and personality characteristics of the registrant. The examining dentist, or if he is not available, the examining physician, will examine the mouth of the registrant. The examining physician will take blood from the registrant for a serological test. The blood specimen will be collected in a container furnished by the State health officer and will be forwarded to the State laboratory or other laboratory designated by the State Director of Selective Service, together with the accomplished form prescribed within the State for such purpose. If the report on the first serological test of the registrant is other than truly negative, the examining physician shall take additional blood for further serological tests until he is satisfied that the blood is truly negative, truly doubtful, or truly positive. Additional blood for further serological tests will not be taken if distance or circumstances over which the local board or the registrant has no control make it impracticable for additional tests to be taken. Serological tests will be accomplished without expense to the Selective Service System, unless such expense is specifically authorized by the Director of Selective Service. No other laboratory procedures will be undertaken as a part of this physical examination.

(d) Local boards, with the assistance of the examining physician and such agencies that may be designated by the State Director of Selective Service, should seek from any source possible, information bearing on a history of mental disease in the family of the registrant or social maladjustment, poor work record, other mental or personality disorders of the registrant, or any physical condition which might cause the armed forces ultimately to reject the registrant. This information may be secured from local social agencies, school systems, state hospitals, training schools for defectives, and any other sources. The local board shall submit lists of registrants whose physical qualifications are being considered to such agencies as the Director of Selective Service or State Director of Selective Service may specify to assist in securing this information. The examining physician shall review the information thus received, and the local board shall forward this information or an abstract thereof to the induction station in accordance with arrangements mutually agreeable to the State Director of Selective Service and the induction station for the transmittal of such information. When such information is being forwarded, a notation to that effect will be entered under "Remarks," Item 25 of the Report of Physical Examination and Induction (Form 221).

(e) The examining physician may report to the local board that a registrant is suffering from a condition listed in the List of Defects (Form 220) basing his report upon one or more of the following: (1) the physical examination of the registrant while he is before him; (2) his personal professional knowledge of the registrant's physical condition; (3) an acceptable affidavit from a reputable physician to the effect that such physician has personal professional knowledge of the registrant's physical condition, provided such affidavit is filed with the local board; or (4) an official statement from a Government or State agency concerning the physical condition of the registrant, provided such statement is filed with the local board.

(f) The examining physician shall procure from the registrant the necessary information and shall complete Items 22 and 23 of the Report of Physical Examination and Induction (Form 221).

(g) The examining physician shall enter in Item 24 on the Report of Physical Examination and Induction (Form 221) the result of the serological tests as "Truly Negative," "Truly Doubtful," or Truly Positive."

(h) The examining physician will enter in Item 25 on the Report of Physical Examination and Induction (Form 221) any pertinent remarks which he deems advisable for the benefit of the examiners at the induction station.

(i) The examining physician, in Item 26 on the Report of Physical Examination and Induction (Form 221), shall complete the answer to the following question:

Do you find that the above-named registrant has any of the defects set forth in the List of Defects (Form 220)?

If the examining physician's answer is "Yes," he shall describe the defects in order of their significance. If the examining physician entertains a doubt as to whether he should answer "Yes" or "No," his answer shall be "No." No other information should be included under Item 26.

2. The foregoing amendment to the Selective Service Regulations shall be effective immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

LEWIS B. HERSHEY,
Director.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-238]

HOUSE OF JAVA CO., INC.

The House of Java Co., Inc., located at 803 Greenwich Street, New York, New York, is a New York corporation engaged in the business of selling roasted coffee. The Company is a roaster as defined in Conservation Order M-135 which restricted deliveries of coffee by roasters. During each of the months in the period of June 1, 1942 through October 31, 1942, the Company violated Conservation Order M-135 by delivering to its customers coffee in excess of the quantity which it was permitted to deliver during such months. The Company's excess deliveries amounted to 19,389 pounds of coffee.

These violations of Conservation Order M–135 have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.238 Suspension Order S–238. (a) The House of Java Co., Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not, as owner, agent or broker, sell, transfer or deliver any green or roasted coffee, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations: Provided, however, That The House of Java Co., Inc., may sell and deliver such roasted coffee as shall be in its possession upon the effective date of this order.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve The House of Java Co., Inc., its successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect February 18, 1943, and shall expire on May 18, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 15th day of February 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

TYNE CO., ILLINOIS ORDNANCE WORKS

John J. Tyne, Sr., John J. Tyne, Jr., Nicholas Hermes and Thomas J. Fogarty, of Chicago, Illinois, are engaged in the business of warehousing and fabricating steel pipe and other steel products under the name of Tyne Co. and Illinois Ordnance Works. Between September 24, 1942 and October 22, 1942, Tyne Co. placed orders with various steel producers for steel pipe extending a preference rating of AA–1 to 368,253 pounds of pipe and a preference rating of AA–2 to 198,618 pounds of pipe. At the time these orders were placed and the ratings extended, Tyne Co. was authorized to extend an AA–1 rating for only 92,742 pounds of pipe and an AA–2 rating for only 51,985 pounds of pipe under the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 3 and Supplementary Order M–21–b. Tyne Co., therefore, extended an AA–1 rating to 275,511 pounds of pipe over and above the amount it was authorized to receive on this rating and extended an AA–2 rating to 146,633 pounds of pipe over and above the amount authorized. These extensions were made with knowledge of the restrictions contained in Priorities Regulation No. 3 and Supplementary Order M–21–b and constituted wilful violations of these Orders.

Tyne Co. also violated Supplementary Order M–21–b by failing to apply preference ratings for deliveries of steel pipe to stock on Form PD–83–g and in failing to extend to such deliveries the lowest rating received on shipments within the accumulated total. These acts constituted wilful violations of the Order.

Tyne Co. also violated Priorities Regulation No. 3 by placing duplicate orders and by failing to designate the exact tonnage to which each rating was applicable. These acts constituted wilful violations of Priorities Regulation No. 3.

These violations of Priorities Regulation No. 3 and Supplementary Order M–21–b have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States and made it necessary to withdraw all priorities assistance and allocations of scarce materials from those persons for a period of time. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.243 Suspension Order S–243. (a) Deliveries of material to John J. Tyne, Sr., John J. Tyne, Jr., Nicholas Hermes and Thomas J. Fogarty, their successors and assigns, and each and all of them, individually, or doing business as a co-partnership, in their own names or in the name of Tyne Co., Illinois Ordnance Works, or any other individual, partnership, trade or corporate names, either on their own account or on behalf of others, shall not be accorded priority, directly or indirectly, over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended, directly or indirectly, to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations;

(b) No allocation shall be made to John J. Tyne, Sr., John J. Tyne, Jr., Nicholas Hermes and Thomas J. Fogarty, their successors and assigns, and each and all of them, individually, or doing business as a co-partnership, in their own names or in the name of Tyne Co., Illinois Ordnance Works, or any other individual, partnership, trade or corporate name, either on their own account or on behalf of others, of any material, the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve John J. Tyne, Sr., John J. Tyne, Jr., Nicholas Hermes and Thomas J. Fogarty from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on February 15, 1943, and shall expire on May 15, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 13th day of February 1943.

CURTIS E. CALDER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 3 as Amended Feb. 16, 1943]

UNIFORM METHOD OF APPLICATION AND EXTENSION OF PREFERENCE RATING

§ 944.23 Priorities Regulation 3—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this regulation:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(3) "Assignment" of a preference rating means the granting to any person, by order or certificate issued by or under the authority of the Director General for Operations, of the right to use such rating.

(4) "Application" of a preference rating means the use of the rating by the person to whom it is initially assigned by or under the authority of the Director General for Operations, and includes the initial issuance by any governmental agency, under authority of the Director General for Operations, of a preference rating certificate rating a delivery to be made directly to such agency.

(5) "Extension" of a preference rating means the use of the rating by any person to whom it is applied or extended by another person.

(b) General provisions. (1) Except to the extent otherwise provided in Priorities Regulation No. 11 (§ 944.32) with respect to persons required or permitted to qualify under the production requirements plan, any person may apply a preference rating assigned to him by any preference rating certificate or preference rating order issued to him in his name or as one of a class, and any person may extend any rating which has been applied or extended to deliveries to be made by him, subject to the provisions of this regulation.

(2) A preference rating may be applied by the person to whom it is assigned only to the specific quantities and kinds of material authorized, or to the minimum required amounts of material when no specific quantities are authorized. Any rating which has been applied or extended by others to deliveries to be made by a person may, subject to the provisions of this regulation, be extended by such person in order to obtain not more than the same amount and kind of material (except as specified in paragraph (c) (3) of this regulation) which he has delivered or is required to deliver pursuant to such rating.

(3) No person shall duplicate, in whole or in part, purchase orders which he has placed with one or more suppliers for delivery of material to which he has applied or extended a rating, in such manner that the amount of the material ordered exceeds the amount to which he is authorized to apply or extend the rating, even though he intends to cancel or reduce his purchase orders to the authorized amount prior to completion of delivery.

(c) Extension of ratings. The following provisions shall be applicable to all extensions of preference ratings notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of the preference rating certificate or preference rating order assigning the rating, except to the extent otherwise provided in Priorities Regulation No. 11 (§ 944.32) with respect to persons required or permitted to qualify under the production requirements plan. No preference rating may be extended to the delivery of any material except:

(1) Material which will itself be delivered by the person extending the rating on a delivery bearing the rating which is being extended, or which will be physically incorporated into material to be so delivered, including the portion of such material normally consumed or converted into scrap or byproducts in the course of processing; or

(2) Material which is required to replace in inventory material so delivered or incorporated. Material shall not be deemed to be required if the delivery can be made and a practicable working minimum inventory of such material still retained; and if, in making delivery, the inventory is reduced below such minimum, the rating may be extended to replace such material only to the extent necessary to restore the inventory to such minimum: Provided, however, That the material ordered for replacement must be substantially the same as the material delivered or incorporated in the material delivered, subject only to minor variations in size, shape or design or substitutions of less scarce materials, which in any case do not substantially alter the purpose for which the same is to be used; or

(3) Repair, maintenance and operating supplies, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(i) The amount of maintenance, repair and operating supplies obtained by any person under this regulation and under any preference rating ("P") order (except P–100) assigning a rating to such person shall not, in the aggregate, exceed during any period the limit, if any, specified in such preference rating order for use of the rating thereby assigned;

(ii) The cost of all maintenance, repair and operating supplies obtained by any other person by extension of a rating shall not exceed in any month ten percent of the cost of materials described in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (c) to which the same grade of rating is extended during the same month (or, if such materials are obtained without preference rating assistance, to which the same grade of rating could be extended, during such month if priorities assistance were needed);

(iii) The cost of maintenance, repair and operating supplies consisting of metals in any of the forms listed on the Metals List attached to Priorities Regulation No. 11 (§ 944.32) to which the rating is extended in any month shall not in any event exceed two and one-half percent of the cost of materials described in said subparagraphs (1) and (2) to which the same grade of rating is extended during the same month (or, if such materials are obtained without preference rating assistance, to which the same grade of rating could be extended during such month if priorities assistance were needed);

(iv) The term "maintenance, repair and operating supplies" as used in this subparagraph (3) shall include only those supplies which are actually required for directly processing the material described in subparagraph (1) or (2) above of this paragraph (c) or for maintenance or repair of production machinery and equipment used in such processing. It does not include any of the following regardless of whether normally carried as operating supplies according to established accounting practices:

(a) Materials for maintenance or repair of buildings.

(b) Fabricated containers (in knockdown or set-up forms, whether assembled or unassembled), required for packaging products to be shipped or delivered.

(c) Printed matter, stationery and office supplies.

(d) Paper, paperboard and products manufactured therefrom; molded pulp products.

(e) Fuel or electric power.

(f) Office machinery or office equipment.

(g) Clothing, shoes or other wearing apparel, if made of leather or textiles, except that the following types may be included in operating supplies when specially designed and used to furnish protection against specific occupational hazards (other than weather):

(1) Asbestos clothing.

(2) Safety clothing impregnated or coated for the purpose of making the same resistant against fire, acids, other chemicals or abrasives.

(3) Safety industrial rubber gloves and hoods and lineman's rubber gloves and sleeves.

(4) Gauntlet type welders' leather gloves and mittens, and electricians' leather protector or cover gloves.

(5) Other safety leather gloves or mittens, but only if steel stitched or steel reinforced.

(6) Safety industrial leather clothing other than gloves or mittens.

(7) Metal mesh gloves, aprons and sleeves.

(8) Plastic and fibre safety helmets.

(h) Materials for plant expansion or plant construction.

(v) In cases where the material to be processed is furnished by the customer, the cost thereof to the customer shall, for the purposes of this paragraph (c) (3), be taken instead of cost to the processor and the month in which the processing order is placed shall be taken in lieu of the month in which the material to be processed is ordered.

A person may not extend a rating to any materials in excess of the quantities specified in this paragraph (c) nor to materials for plant improvement, expansion or construction, to machine tools or other capital equipment, to business machines whether purchased or leased, or to maintenance, repair or operating supplies other than those specified above in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph (c).

(d) Method of application or extension. (1) Any person authorized to apply or extend preference ratings may do so:

(i) On a written contract or purchase order, by endorsing on, or attaching to, each contract or purchase order placed by him to which the rating is to be applied or extended, a certification in substantially the following form signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7 (§ 944.27) by an official duly authorized for such purpose:

CERTIFICATION

The undersigned purchaser hereby represents to the seller and to the War Production Board that he is entitled to apply or extend the preference ratings indicated opposite the items shown on this purchase order, and that such application or extension is in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 3 as amended, with the terms of which the undersigned is familiar.

(Name of Purchaser and PRP Certificate No. if Purchaser is a PRP Unit) _____ (Address) _____

By _____ (Signature and Title of Duly Authorized Officer) _____ (Date) _____

(ii) On a purchase order placed by telegraph, by including in the telegram the following certification: "Ratings indicated are certified pursuant to Priorities Regulation No. 3." The requirements for manual signature or authorization under Priorities Regulation No. 7 (§ 944.27) will be satisfied in such case if the copy of the outgoing telegram retained by the person placing the order is signed or authorized in the manner provided in that regulation.

(iii) On a purchase order placed by telephone and requiring shipment within seven days, by stating to the supplier at the time of placing the order the substance of the certification set forth in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph (d) (1); provided, however, in such case, that the person making the statement is an official duly authorized to make such certification, and the person making the statement furnishes to the supplier within seven days after placing the purchase order written confirmation of such order, bearing a certification of such preference rating substantially in the form prescribed by subparagraph (i) of this paragraph (d) (1). No preference rating received by telephone shall be extended by the supplier until receipt by him of the written certification herein required. In case of failure to receive written certification within the seven days' period herein prescribed, the supplier shall not accept any other order from, or deliver any additional material of any kind to, the purchaser until such written certification is furnished. On or before the fifteenth day of each month, any supplier who has received in the prior month a preference rating applied or extended by telephone shall notify the War Production Board, Compliance Division, of any case in which a purchaser has failed to furnish to him the written certification when due.

(iv) The person receiving the certification and rating shall be entitled to rely on such representation, unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Each person applying or extending a rating must maintain at his regular place of business all documents, including purchase orders and preference rating orders and certificates, upon which he relies as entitling him to apply or extend such rating, segregated and available for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection. In addition thereto, each person applying or extending a rating shall execute and file with the War Production Board all reports and questionnaires required by the applicable preference rating certificate or preference rating order and such other reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(2) Such certification may be used in lieu of any other form of certification required by the terms of any regulation, preference rating order or preference rating certificate (including, without limitation, the instructions accompanying Forms PD–1A, PD–3A and PD–25A) as a means of applying or extending a preference rating and in lieu of furnishing any copy of any preference rating order required thereby; except that the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 9 (§ 944.30) with respect to the method of applying (but not extending) preference ratings covering certain types of exports must be complied with when ratings are applied pursuant to that regulation.

(3) Notwithstanding the requirements of any applicable preference rating order or certificate,

(i) A person may defer extending any rating for a period of not more than three months after he becomes entitled to extend the same;

(ii) Ratings of the same grade assigned by different preference rating certificates or orders may be combined and extended to a single delivery; and

(iii) Ratings of different grades, whether assigned by the same or different preference rating certificates or orders, may be extended to deliveries under a single purchase order provided the amount of each material to which a particular grade of rating is extended is shown either as a separate item, or on a percentage basis where the material involved is of such type and in such quantities that the supplier can readily determine from percentage figures alone, the exact effect of the extension of the rating on his production and delivery schedule. To the extent necessary to avoid production or delivery of material in quantities smaller than the minimum commercially practicable, items to which ratings of different grades might be extended may be combined and the rating of the lowest grade extended to the total production or delivery.

(4) In addition to complying with the foregoing requirements of this paragraph (d), any person applying or extending a preference rating shall include on his purchase order or contract such information (except designation of the number or serial number of the preference rating certificate or preference rating order assigning the rating) as may be required by the terms of any applicable order of the Director General for Operations and which the person placing the purchase order is able to furnish.

(e) Applicability of other restrictions. Except as expressly otherwise provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this regulation, the application or extension of any rating shall be subject to any applicable restrictions contained in any order of the Director General for Operations assigning the preference rating in question or regulating transactions in the material involved, including, without limitation, restrictions as to the kind and amount of material to which preference ratings may be applied or extended, requirements of countersignature or other written approval of particular transactions, and restrictions on the use of material.

(f) Effect on existing certificates and orders. All existing forms of preference rating certificates issued by or under authority of the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations are continued in full force and effect, and additional certificates on such forms may continue to be issued by the persons now or hereafter authorized to issue the same until such authority is revoked or amended, subject to the provisions of this and other regulations of the Director General for Operations. All certificates and all existing orders of the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations and the Director General for Operations are to be deemed amended by this regulation only where and to the extent that the provisions of this regulation indicate that it is to control.

Issued this 16th day of February 1943.

PART 3033—PORTLAND CEMENT

[Limitation Order L–179, as amended Feb. 16, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has made imminent a shortage in the supply of portland cement for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate to protect the public interest and to promote the national war effort:

§ 3033.1 General Limitation Order L–179—(a) Restrictions—(1) Manufacture. On and after twenty days subsequent to August 3, 1942, no person shall manufacture any portland cement except portland cement which conforms with one or more of the following specifications as such specifications exist on August 3, 1942:

(i) Federal specifications: Emergency Alternate Federal Specification for cement; Portland–E–SS–C–191b, dated June 5, 1942;

[General Limitation Order L–280]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials and facilities used in the manufacture of fans and blowers for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3168.1 General Limitation Order L–280—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Fan or blower" means any new device or machine which moves, compresses or exhausts air or other gases by centrifugal, rotary or axial means; except (i) wall type propeller fans having a blade diameter of less than 17 inches; (ii) ceiling, air circulator, desk, wall bracket, and portable window fans, and pedestal type fans of a portable nature; (iii) fans and blowers manufactured by a person solely for incorporation into other machinery or devices (including pulverizers, stokers, and boilers) also manufactured by him; (iv) propeller type fans for use as a part of internal combustion engines; and (v) critical turbo-blowers as defined by Limitation Order L–163, as amended.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person who engages in the fabrication or assembly of fans or blowers, and includes sales and distribution outlets controlled by any such person.

(4) "Dealer" means any person who purchases fans or blowers for resale; except sales and distribution outlets controlled by a manufacturer, and except persons who purchase fans or blowers solely for resale as a component part of a boiler, pulverizer or stoker.

(5) "Delivery" includes delivery of a fan or blower from one affiliate to another or from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same enterprise, where the recipient affiliate, branch, division or section will use the fan or blower.

(6) "New" as applied to a fan or blower means any fan or blower which has not been delivered to a purchaser for use.

(7) "Approved order" means:

(i) Any order for a fan or blower bearing a preference rating of AA–5 or higher; or

(ii) Any order for a fan or blower which the Director General for Operations approves pursuant to subparagraph (b) (3) hereof.

(b) Restrictions on acceptance of orders for and delivery of fans and blowers. (1) After February 28, 1943, no manufacturer or dealer shall accept any order for a fan or blower unless the order is an approved order; and after March 31, 1943, no manufacturer shall deliver any fan or blower in fulfillment of any order unless the order is an approved order.

(2) The limitations and restrictions of paragraph (b) (1) above shall not apply to any order for repair parts (i) in an amount not exceeding $500 for any single fan or blower, or 50% of the original sales price of the fan or blower to be repaired, whichever is less in any particular case; or (ii) in any amount, for the repair of a fan or blower when there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations thereof because of damage, wear and tear, destruction or failure of parts or the like, and the essential repair and maintenance parts are not otherwise available.

(3) Any manufacturer or dealer may apply for authorization to deliver orders on his books which are not approved orders by filing a report thereof in duplicate on Form PD–795, together with a statement of the percentage of completion of each such order. The Director General for Operations may thereupon approve any such orders regardless of the rating thereof, or may rerate any such orders in order to constitute them approved orders.

(4) No manufacturer shall accept any order for a fan or blower if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that he will be unable to make delivery on or before the delivery date specified in the order. Any order received by a manufacturer, specifying a delivery date which the manufacturer knows or has reasonable cause to believe he will be unable to meet, shall be returned by the manufacturer to the proposed purchaser within twenty days after the receipt thereof.

(c) Delivery schedules. (1) After February 28, 1943, no manufacturer shall deliver any fan or blower unless the same has been included in a delivery schedule theretofore approved by the Director General for Operations in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) below.

(2) On or before the 24th day of February 1943, and on or before the 18th day of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer of fans and blowers shall file a report on Forms PD–795 and 796, giving such information as shall be required thereby, including his delivery schedule for fans and blowers for the two calendar months immediately following. The delivery of all fans and blowers shown on such schedule as proposed to be made in such two calendar months shall be deemed to be approved by the Director General for Operations upon the receipt of such Forms PD–795 and 796 by the War Production Board, unless the Director General for Operations shall otherwise direct. The Director General for Operations may at any time revoke such approval as to any or all fans or blowers so listed for delivery, change the schedule of deliveries or prescribe a new schedule, allocate any order held by any manufacturer to any other manufacturer, or direct the delivery of any fan or blower, in production or completed, to any other person at the established price and terms. No manufacturer shall change the schedule of deliveries as so approved, changed or prescribed by the Director General for Operations, without specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(d) Schedules of specifications. The Director General for Operations may at any time, and from time to time, issue schedules (by amendments to this order) establishing required specifications for fans or blowers. Upon and after the date of issuance of any such schedule of specifications, or such other date as shall be prescribed therein, no person shall accept any order for, fabricate, assemble, sell, deliver, accept delivery of or use any fans or blowers or parts therefor except in accordance with the terms of such schedule. As used in this paragraph the term "required specifications" shall mean specifications fixed for the fabrication, assembly, production, construction or other manufacture of fans or blowers and designed to eliminate, reduce, or conserve the use of critical materials in fans or blowers or parts, by simplifying or standardizing the fans or blowers; specifying the operating conditions under which they may be used; restricting the numbers of sizes, types, models, or kinds produced or the kinds or quantities of materials used by a manufacturer; or requiring substitution of less critical materials for more critical materials; or by establishing other requirements for the manufacture, sale, delivery or use of such fans or blowers.

(e) Miscellaneous provisions — (1) Appeals. An appeal may be taken either by a manufacturer or by his proposed purchaser from any provision of this order or from any action taken hereunder by the Director General for Operations. Any such appeal shall be made by filing a letter, in triplicate, referring to the particular provision or action appealed from, and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(2) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales. All such persons shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as the Director General for Operations shall request from time to time.

(3) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L-280.

Issued this 16th day of February 1943.

Director General for Operations.

PART 1440—PROCESSED FOOD COMMODITIES

MACARONI PRODUCTS AND NOODLE PRODUCTS

This Maximum Price Regulation No. 326 is issued by the Price Administrator in order to establish maximum prices for macaroni products and noodle products at levels which are generally fair and equitable and which will aid in stabilizing the cost of living. The statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 326 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1440.1 to 1440.15, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1440.1 Prohibition against dealing in macaroni products and noodle products above maximum prices. (a) On and after February 20, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any macaroni product or noodle product at a price higher than the maximum prices established for it by this regulation. No person shall buy or receive any macaroni product or noodle product in the course of trade or business at a higher price than the maximum prices established for it by this regulation. Nor shall any person agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) However, prices lower than maximum prices may be charged and paid.

§ 1440.2 Producer's maximum prices for macaroni products and noodle products. The producer's maximum price per dozen or other unit for each variety, type, brand, container size and style of macaroni products and noodle products to each class of purchasers thereof shall be:

(a) The producer's maximum price per dozen or other unit for such variety, type, brand, container size and style to each class of purchasers calculated in accordance with the General Maximum Price Regulation;[1] plus

(b) The increase in the cost of the farinaceous and egg ingredients and packaging materials thereof determined as follows:

(1) The cost per dozen or other unit as of February 20, 1943, of the farinaceous and egg ingredients and packaging materials figured at the ceiling prices of the producer's principal supplier to the class of purchasers to which the producer belongs; minus

(2) The sum of the weighted average actual cost of each of the farinaceous and egg ingredients and packaging materials per dozen or other unit used to produce the same commodity during March 1942.

"Cost" as used in subparagraph (1), if the ceiling price of the producer's supplier is not a delivered price, means the ceiling price plus cost of delivery of purchases in a usual amount to the producer's customary receiving point, from the customary shipping point by the usual mode of transportation.

A producer's "weighted average actual cost" as used in subparagraph (2) means his total cost of each farinaceous or egg ingredient or packaging material figured on a delivered basis at his factory, divided by the number of units used in producing all his macaroni products and noodle products.

Maximum prices as calculated under this regulation resulting in a fraction of a cent shall be reduced to the nearest lower cent if the fraction is less than one-half cent and shall be increased to the nearest higher cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more.

(c) New container sizes and styles. (1) The maximum price per dozen or other unit for a variety, type and brand of macaroni products or noodle products packed in any container size or style which the producer did not sell during March 1942 shall be calculated as follows: He shall

(i) Determine the base container. If the producer sold the same variety, type and brand of macaroni products or noodle products during March 1942, but only in other container sizes or styles, he shall first determine the most similar container style in which he is able to calculate a maximum price for that variety, type and brand under this regulation (even though he no longer sells that container style). From that container style he shall choose the nearest size, which is 50% or less larger, or if there is no such size, 50% or less smaller than the new size (even though he no longer sells those sizes). This will be the "base container". If there is no such smaller size, he shall go to the next most similar container style and proceed in the same manner to find the base container.

NOTE: In most cases "the most similar container style" will be merely the container style which the producer is adding to or replacing, like a cellophane bag which he may be replacing with a carton. Where there has been only a size change, "the most similar container style" will of course, be the same container style. This is also true in the reverse situation; where there has been a change only in container style, the "nearest size" will be the same size.

(ii) Find the base price. The producer shall take as the "base price" his maximum price for the variety, type and brand of macaroni products or noodle products when packed in the base container. However, if this maximum price is a price delivered to the purchaser or to any point other than the producer's factory, the producer shall first convert it to a base price f. o. b. producer's factory by deducting whatever transportation charges were included in it.

(iii) Deduct the container cost. Taking his base price f. o. b. factory, the producer shall then subtract the direct cost of the base container. "Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the producer's factory, of the container, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping case, but it does not include costs of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(iv) Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure obtained by this deduction shall then be adjusted, in the case of a size change, by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the new container.

(vi) Convert to a maximum delivered price, if the maximum price for the base container is on a delivered basis. If the producer's maximum price for the macaroni products or noodle products in the base container is a delivered price, he shall figure transportation charges to be added, as follows: The producer shall take the transportation charges which he first deducted to get his base price and adjust them in exact proportion to the difference in shipping weight. If for any reason the macaroni products or noodle products in the new container will move under a different freight tariff classification, the producer shall figure his transportation charges (by the same means of transportation and to the same destination) on the basis of the new shipping weight, but at the rate in effect for that freight tariff classification during March 1942. Increases in tariff rates or transportation taxes made since March 31, 1942, shall not be taken into account. (Similar principles shall apply where shipping volume is the measure of the transportation charge.) The producer shall then add these transportation charges to his f. o. b. factory price for the commodity in the new container. The resulting figure is the producer's maximum delivered price.

(d) The maximum price for each variety, type, brand, container size and style of macaroni products and noodle products for a producer who owns more than one factory shall be determined separately for each factory.

§ 1440.3 Inability to fix prices under § 1440.2. (a) If the producer's maximum price for any macaroni product or noodle product cannot be determined under § 1440.2, his maximum price shall be the maximum price, as determined under this regulation, of a comparable commodity produced by him or, if he did not produce a comparable commodity, by his most closely competitive producer.

(b) If the producer's maximum price for any macaroni product or noodle product cannot be determined under § 1440.2 or under paragraph (a) of this section, the maximum price shall be a price determined after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on application setting forth (1) a detailed description of the variety, type, brand, container size and style; and (2) a statement of the facts which differentiate it from the most similar product for which he has determined a maximum price identifying and describing the similar product and stating the maximum price determined for it. When authorization is given, it will be accompanied by instructions for determining the maximum price.

§ 1440.4 Customary allowances and discounts. No producer shall change his customary allowances, discounts or trade practices unless such change results in the same or a lower net price.

§ 1440.5 Transfer of business or stock in trade. If the business assets or stock in trade of any producer are sold or otherwise transferred on or after February 20, 1943, and the transferee carries on the business, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records to verify those prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve or make available or turn over to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions contained in this Regulation.

§ 1440.6 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be exceeded by direct or indirect methods in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to any macaroni product or noodle product alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of any service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other understanding or otherwise.

§ 1440.7 Enforcement. Any person violating a provision of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1440.8 Records and reports. Every producer who makes sales of any macaroni product or noodle product covered by this regulation shall (a) as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, continues in effect, preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all his existing records which were the basis for the computations required by § 1440.2; and (b) preserve for the same period all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the prices charged for all macaroni products and noodle products sold on or after February 20, 1943; and (c) file with his nearest State or district office of the Office of Price Administration, within thirty days after the effective date of this regulation a statement showing for each variety, type, brand, container size and style, (1) the name of each farinaceous and egg ingredient and packaging material and its maximum price as of February 20, 1943, per unit of purchase. (If the maximum price is f. o. b. shipping point, show the shipping point and freight addition); (2) weighted average actual cost per unit of purchase of each farinaceous and egg ingredient and packaging material used in producing the same commodity in March 1942 (if the cost is f. o. b. shipping point, show freight addition); (3) the per dozen or other unit cost of each farinaceous and egg ingredient and packaging material figured at maximum prices as stated in (1) above; (4) the per dozen or other unit cost of each farinaceous and egg ingredient and packaging material figured at March cost as stated in (2) above; (5) the result of subtracting the figures obtained in (4) from those obtained in (3); (6) the maximum price for the commodity computed in accordance with the General Maximum Price Regulation; and (7) the result of adding the figures obtained in (5) to those stated in (6) which result shall be the producer's new maximum price for that commodity, and (d) as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, continues in effect, preserve at each factory a true copy of each such statement filed with the Office of Price Administration for examination by any person during ordinary business hours. Any producer who claims that substantial injury would result to him from making any such statement to any other person may file a copy of the statement with the State or district office of the Office of Price Administration nearest to each of his factories. The information contained in the statement will not be published or disclosed unless it is determined that the withholding of the information is contrary to the purposes of this regulation.

§ 1440.9 Petition for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[2]

§ 1440.10 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be

PART 1340—FUEL

ASPHALT AND ASPHALT PRODUCTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator all asphalt and asphalt products sold in the United States should be placed under one specific dollars-and-cents maximum price regulation as far as possible. In issuing this Maximum Price Regulation No. 323 the Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of asphalt and asphalt products prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941 and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the consideration involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 323, Asphalt and Asphalt Products, is hereby issued.

§ 1340.351 Sales of asphalt and asphalt products at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after February 20, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation no person shall sell or deliver and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business any asphalt or asphalt product at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

§ 1340.352 To what transactions and persons this regulation is applicable—(a) What transactions are covered. This regulation covers all sales and deliveries of asphalt and asphalt products either by refiners, resellers, distributors, roofers, retailers, or by any other persons.

(b) What persons are covered. Any person selling asphalt or asphalt products is subject to the regulation. The term "persons" includes any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons; their legal successors and representatives; the United States or any other government or any political subdivision or any agency of the foregoing.

points explained. The reference points and prices listed in Tables I and II below are for the sole purpose of determining maximum prices f. o. b. refinery. If the refinery is located at a reference point, then the maximum f. o. b. price for that refinery is the price listed in the table for that reference point. If the refinery is not located at a reference point, then to establish the maximum price on any standard grade of asphalt locate the reference point geographically (air line) closest to the refinery in question; the prices indicated at this reference point are the maximum prices f. o. b. that refinery.

Example: A refiner at Robinson, Illinois wants to determine his maximum price for asphalt cement 100–300 penetration f. o. b. refinery. The map indicates that St. Louis, Missouri is the closest reference point. The table shows that the price is $12.50 per ton for the St. Louis reference point. Therefore, the maximum price f. o. b. the Robinson refinery for this grade of asphalt cement is $12.50.

(b) Limitation on price of roofing flux and roofing asphalt. Normally, a seller is permitted to charge his maximum f. o. b. refinery price as determined by Table I or II, even though the laid-down cost to the buyer may exceed what his laid-down cost would have been had he purchased from some other refinery. To this general principle there is one exception, namely, a refiner must make a reduction in his maximum f. o. b. refinery bulk price when all of the following circumstances are present.

(1) The sale is of roofing flux or oxidized asphalt; and

(2) The refinery nearest the destination has a different reference point from the refinery making the shipment; and

(3) The sum of the maximum f. o. b. price at the refinery from which a shipment is made plus the rail freight cost from that refinery to the destination exceeds the sum of the maximum f. o. b. price at the refinery producing roofing flux or oxidized asphalt nearest to that destination plus the rail freight cost from that nearest refinery to that destination.

Under the above circumstances the reduction in his maximum f. o. b. refinery price as determined by Table I or II shall be the amount necessary to make the laid-down cost from the refinery making the shipment the same as it would be from the refinery producing roofing flux or oxidized asphalt nearest the destination. However, the required reduction need never exceed 20% of the maximum f. o. b. refinery price.

For example: A buyer in Wisconsin desires to purchase roofing flux. The refinery nearest to him producing roofing flux uses Chicago as its reference point. Assume that the laid-down cost on the Indiana purchase is $10.50 plus $1.00 freight, or $11.50. Suppose the same buyer wishes to purchase from a Texas refinery. The Texas refinery uses Ft. Worth, Texas, as its reference point; the maximum price for the Texas refinery is $7.50. Assume the freight from the Texas refinery to the same buyer in Wisconsin is $7.00. This would mean a laid-down cost to the buyer of $14.50. To equalize this with the laid-down cost from Indiana of $11.50 would mean a reduction in the f. o. b. Texas refinery price of $3.00. But this is more than 20% of the Texas f. o. b. price of $7.50. Therefore the reduction by the Texas refiner would be $1.50 (20% of $7.50) making his maximum f. o. b. refinery price for the Wisconsin destination $6.00 and the buyer's laid-down cost from the Texas refinery would be $13.00. Reductions in maximum prices for roofing flux and roofing asphalt do not apply when making shipments to destinations in District 1 as defined by the Office of Petroleum Administrator for War.

(c) Price tables to determine maximum bulk prices f. o. b. refiners for standard grades; exclusive of taxes.

[2] M. C. 2 and R. C. 3 and 4 only apply to bulk storage points at Portland and Seattle.

(d) In the event that a seller is unable to determine his maximum bulk price for the sale of any standard product under this price regulation because a price for such product is not listed in Tables I and II opposite the reference point which determines his maximum price, then that seller shall set a tentative maximum bulk price for such product. Such tentative price shall be in line with the level of prices set forth in said tables and the differential between the tentative price of a particular standard product and the maximum prices of the refinery for other standard products shall be consistent with the differentials between these products at other reference points. The seller shall within 5 days after setting a tentative maximum price file with the Petroleum Branch of the Office of Price Administration, a written request for approval of such tentative maximum price. Such tentative price shall be the seller's maximum price for the particular product unless it is disapproved in writing by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days from the date it is filed as above provided or a substitute price is set by the Office of Price Administration. If a substitute price is set, then such price shall be the maximum price. A tentative price which has been approved as a maximum price hereunder may subsequently be changed by order of the Price Administrator.

§ 1340.354 Maximum bulk prices for special products. The maximum bulk price f. o. b. refinery for special products as defined in § 1340.360 (b) shall be:

(a) Where the seller delivered a special product during the period August 1–November 1, 1941, the highest price charged by the seller for a delivery of that product during such period to a purchaser of the same class provided, however, that a price charged under a contract entered into prior to said period need not be maintained unless such contract price reflected current market conditions during said period.

All prices determined under (a) together with a description of this special product must be filed with the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C. within 30 days after the effective date of this price regulation.

(b) If the seller is unable to determine his maximum bulk price for a special product under (a), he shall set a tentative maximum price f. o. b. his refinery taking into consideration the two products which he sells which are nearest in specifications to the product to be priced, one having the next lower maximum price to the chosen tentative price and one having the next higher maximum price. He shall then complete Form No. 652.166 below.

If the seller has no product of similar specifications, he shall take into consideration the prices of the two products which his nearest geographical competitor sells which are nearest in specifications to the product to be priced, one having the next lower maximum price and one having the next higher maximum price.

Such a seller shall then complete Form No. 652.166 below with reference to such products of that nearest competitor. Space for name and address of nearest competitor must then be added to the form.

The seller shall within 15 days after setting a tentative maximum price, file with the Office of Price Administration a written request for approval of such tentative maximum price. In connection with such request, the seller shall file with the Petroleum Branch of the Office of Price Administration at its principal office in Washington, D. C. the information required in form No. 652.166 below:

§ 1340.355 Changes in ingredients and changes in the costs of purchased ingredients—(a) Changes in ingredients. When a seller makes a change in the ingredients used in the production of a special product or when he makes a change in the percentage of the same ingredients formerly used he shall be considered as making a new product and should file a tentative maximum price and report under § 1340.354.

(b) Changes in the costs of purchased ingredients. An adjustment in the maximum price of a special product may, however, be requested when the seller's cost of a special product, as compared with his cost during the period August 1–November 1, 1941, has been increased because of a change in the cost of purchased ingredients. No request will be considered hereunder unless the change in the cost of purchased ingredients exceeds 20% of the cost during the period August 1–November 1, 1941 and the total cost of producing the special product has also increased by not less than 20%.

A seller should set a tentative maximum price for the special product f. o. b. his refinery by filing with the Petroleum Branch of the Office of Price Administration at its principal office in Washington, D. C. a statement setting forth:

(1) Present maximum price

(2) The tentative maximum price

(3) The ingredients used in producing the special product upon which the request for a price increase is made, the percentages by weight of each ingredient in the finished product, and the weighted average costs thereof during the period August 1–November 1, 1941 and the costs at the time the request for an adjustment is made. The weighted average cost of an ingredient shall be determined by dividing the total amount expended for such ingredient during the period heretofore specified by the total quantity purchased.

If any of the above information is not reported with the tentative maximum price, it will be disapproved until such time as all data have been submitted. Disapproval of a tentative maximum price automatically requires the manufacturer to return to his original maximum price.

Where the information required is submitted, a tentative price shall be the seller's maximum price for the particular product unless it is disapproved in writing by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days from the date it is filed as above provided or a substitute price is set. If a substitute price is set, then such price shall be the maximum price. A tentative price which has been approved as a maximum price hereunder may subsequently be changed by order of the Price Administrator.

§ 1340.356 Packaged asphalt. (a) When the seller supplies the container, the maximum price for packaged asphalt in carload quantities shall be the sum of the following:

(1) The maximum bulk price as determined by this price regulation.

(2) The actual cost of the container used.

(3) The following packaging differentials:

Reference point:	Packaging differential per ton
New York, N. Y.	$2.00
Charleston, S. C.	2.00
Buffalo, N. Y.	3.00
Columbus, Ohio	3.00
Chicago, Ill.	3.00
St. Louis, Mo.	4.00

Reference point—Continued.	Packaging differential per ton
El Dorado, Ark	$4.00
New Orleans, La	3.00
Kansas City, Mo	4.00
Wichita, Kansas	4.00
Oklahoma City, Okla	4.00
Dallas, Texas	4.00
Houston, Texas	4.00
Cody, Wyoming	4.00
Billings, Mont	4.00
Dodge City, Kansas	4.00
Salt Lake City, Utah	4.00
San Francisco, Cal	4.00
Bakersfield, Cal	4.00
Los Angeles, Cal	4.00
Santa Maria, Cal	4.00

The seller's invoice shall in every case separately show the above charges.

(b) When the purchaser supplies the container, the seller's maximum price for packaged asphalt in carload quantities shall be the maximum bulk price as determined by this price regulation plus the packaging differential specified under (a) (3) above.

(c) The seller's maximum price for packaged asphalt for less than carload quantities shall be his maximum price for carload quantities plus $2.00 per ton.

§ 1340.357 F. o. b. warehouse and bulk plant sales. The maximum price for asphalt of any dealer, reseller or refiner who receives shipments at a warehouse or a bulk plant other than a terminal as defined in § 1340.360 (e) in carload or truckload quantities, and who unloads, stores, and resells such asphalt in less than carload quantities shall be determined by adding to the cost delivered at the warehouse or bulk plant based on carload rail shipments an amount sufficient to give the seller the same dollars and cents mark-up that he had during the major portion of the period August 1–November 1, 1941. If a seller did not carry inventory or receive shipments of asphalt at a warehouse or bulk plant in the period specified above, then his maximum price shall be the maximum price of his most closely competitive seller. The mark-ups computed under this section must be reported to the Petroleum Branch of the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., within 15 days after February 20, 1943. Where a warehouse or bulk plant is not situated on a rail siding, the cost delivered at the nearest siding will determine the basis for establishing the maximum price. For the purposes of this section "mark-up" means the dollars-and-cents difference between the selling price of the asphalt and the cost thereof delivered at the warehouse or the nearest railroad siding.

§ 1340.358 Other retail sales. The maximum price of any retail seller not otherwise covered by this regulation shall be the delivered cost at his retail establishment or other point of delivery plus an amount sufficient to give the seller the same dollars and cents differential between his selling price and his delivered cost at the retail establishment or other point of delivery that he had during the major portion of the period August 1–November 1, 1941.

§ 1340.359 Terminals. Bulk prices at terminals when shipments are received by water are not determined by reference points. When shipments in bulk are made from terminals, the laid-down cost to a buyer at a given destination shall not exceed the maximum f. o. b. refinery price established by this regulation for the asphalt refinery nearest to that destination plus the rail freight from that nearest refinery to that destination. The maximum f. o. b. price on a given shipment from a terminal shall be the laid-down cost to the buyer as above defined less rail freight from terminal to the destination. The deduction of rail rate also applies to truck shipments.

Note that bulk storage points at Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, have specific prices in the table covering Oregon, Washington, and California.

§ 1340.360 Definitions. (a) "Asphalt" means any asphalt refined from petroleum.

(b) "Standard product" means any of the following grades:

(1) Roofing flux. Roofing flux means any grade of soft asphalt or liquid asphalt, having a Melting Point of less than 110° F. (Method, ball and ring A. S. T. M. D. 36–26) when sold to the roofing or floor covering industry for saturating or further processing to a higher melting point.

(2) Oxidized asphalt. Oxidized asphalt means any grade of asphalt which has a penetration of less than 125 (Method A. S. T. M. D. 88–38) and has been oxidized to a melting point above 110° F. when sold to the roofing or floor covering industry and has not been specially processed by the addition of another ingredient.

(3) Asphalt cement. Asphalt cement means any grade of asphalt which has a penetration of more than 40 and less than 300 at 77° F. when used for paving purposes.

(4) Liquid asphalt. "Liquid asphalt" means any grade of asphalt having a penetration in excess of 300 at 77° F. when used for road construction or any type of bituminous surfacing.

S. C. (Slow Curing).

M. C. (Medium Curing).

R. C. (Rapid Curing).

(c) "Special product" means any asphalt or asphalt product not included under standard products with the exception of those products which have been specially processed by the addition of another ingredient and when used by the roofing or paint industry.

(d) "Rail freight" means the lowest railroad rate applicable to the commodity to be shipped.

(e) "Terminal" means a bulk tank storage point other than a refinery where shipments are received by water.

(f) "Ton" means a net ton of 2000 pounds.

(g) "Gallon" means a U. S. gallon.

(h) "Bulk price" means a tank car, tank truck or barge price.

§ 1340.361 Shipments by insulated tank cars. Where a particular seller had an additional charge in effect during the period August 1–November 1, 1941 for shipments made in insulated tank cars, this same charge may be continued.

§ 1340.362 Tank truck sales. Where a particular seller had an additional charge in effect during the period August 1–November 1, 1941 for filling tank trucks, this additional charge may be continued.

§ 1340.363 Maximum prices on delivered basis. If a seller wishes to quote a delivered price, the delivered price shall never result in a higher laid-down cost to a particular buyer than that which would have resulted if the seller had sold f. o. b. the refinery plus rail freight from the refinery to destination.

§ 1340.364 Brokerage or commissions. Brokerage or commissions which increase the maximum price listed or determined above will not be allowed. The maximum price chargeable to the buyer by a seller f. o. b. a refinery or terminal includes any brokerage or commission which may be involved in the particular sale.

§ 1340.365 Conversion table. While actual weights on specified products may vary slightly, for sake of uniformity the following table shall be used for converting gallons to tons, or tons to gallons:

LIQUID ASPHALT Grade	Gallons per ton at 60° F
0	257
2	248
5	241

ASPHALT CEMENTS Penetration	Gallons per ton at 60° F
40–100	235

§ 1340.366 Adjustable pricing. Where a contract or agreement provides for the sale of asphalt or asphalt products to be delivered at a future date, the parties may agree that the prices to be charged shall be the maximum price in effect at the time of each delivery.

§ 1340.367 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any seller or any person as defined in § 1340.352 (b) are sold or otherwise transferred on or after November 1, 1941 and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same or similar asphalt and or asphalt products, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records and make reports shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the records and reports provisions of this price regulation.

§ 1340.368 Federal and State taxes. Any tax upon or incident to the sale, delivery, processing, or use of asphalt or asphalt products, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any State or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such asphalt or asphalt products and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect prior to November 1, 1941. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during the period August 1–November 1, 1941, the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining his maximum price under this price regulation.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of the tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this price regulation.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective on or after November 1, 1941. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1340.369 Applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) The term "government contract" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 1, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States." It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(2) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that a maximum price in this regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of material which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(3) As soon as the application is filed, government contracts, deliveries, and payments may be made at the requested price, subject to refund if the requested price is disapproved or lowered. The seller must tell the buyer that the delivery is made subject to this refund.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1340.370 Reports, records and petitions. (a) The following reports are required by this regulation:

(d) Other reports and records. All sellers and purchasers of asphalt and asphalt products shall file such other reports and keep such other records as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1340.371 Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional offices of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) War procurement agencies and their contracting or paying finance officers are not subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation. "War procurement agencies" include the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any of their agencies.

§ 1340.372 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 323 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or any other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1340.373 Maximum export price regulation. The maximum prices for export sales of asphalt and asphalt products are covered by the Maximum Export Price Regulation.

§ 1340.374 Effective date. Maximum Price Regulation No. 323 (§§ 1340.351 to 1340.374, inclusive) shall become effective February 20, 1943, Provided, however, That where a buyer and seller have agreed on a particular price subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration, the effective date of this regulation shall be the date of execution of such agreement for deliveries thereunder.

NAVY OAK SHIP STOCK

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1382.201, paragraph (a) is amended; in § 1382.202, paragraphs (a) and (c) are amended; in § 1382.203, the text of paragraph (a) is amended and a new paragraph (b) is added; in § 1382.204, paragraphs (c) and (d) are amended; a new subparagraph (5)[2] is added to paragraph (b) of § 1382.205; in § 1382.206, paragraph (a) is amended; in Appendix A, § 1382.212, the text of paragraph (a) is amended; subparagraph (4) in § 1382.212 (a) is amended; paragraphs (b) and (c) are redesignated to be subparagraphs (a) (5) and (a) (6), respectively; a new paragraph (b) is added; all as set forth below:

§ 1382.201 Sales of Navy oak ship stock at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after December 14, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any Navy oak ship stock at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The maximum prices are set forth in Appendix A (§ 1382.212).

§ 1382.202 To what transactions, products, and persons this regulation applies—(a) What transactions are covered. The maximum prices established by this regulation apply to all sales and deliveries of Navy oak ship stock, except distribution yard inventory sales of less than 5,000 board feet, which are subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] This Maximum Price Regulation 281 divides sales into three kinds: direct-mill sales, distribution yard inventory sales, and distribution yard service sales.

(1) "Direct-mill sale." A "direct-mill sale" is a sale in which the shipment of ship stock originates at a sawmill, no matter who the seller is, and no matter whether he is usually known as a mill operator, wholesaler, retailer, distributor or anything else. A shipment is regarded as originating at a mill if the ship stock reaches the purchaser without ever becoming part of the stock of a distribution yard.

(2) "Distribution yard inventory sale." A "distribution yard inventory sale" is a sale in which the ship stock that is sold and shipped to the purchaser is in the regular inventory of a distribution yard at the time of sale. A "distribution yard" is a yard which gets ship stock from mills, unloads, sorts, stores, and resells and redistributes it, which regularly maintains an assorted inventory of ship stock, and which is established to make quick deliveries of many different items of ship stock in large or small quantities.

(3) "Distribution yard service sale." A "distribution yard service sale" is a sale in which a distribution yard (defined in subparagraph (2) above) makes a sale or receives an order for ship stock which it does not have in inventory, which it thereafter receives and places in inventory at the request of the purchaser, and which it then delivers to the purchaser in quantities as needed. Where the yard merely reloads ship stock, or handles and stores it no more than is necessary in a normal case where the yard receives a mill shipment, reloads it, and delivers it to the buyer, the sale is a direct-mill sale and not a distribution yard service sale.

* * * * *

(c) What persons are covered. Any person who makes the kind of sale or purchase covered by this regulation is subject to it. The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group; their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of its political subdivisions; or any agency of any of the foregoing.

* * * * *

(b) Delivery addition in distribution yard inventory and service sales. In distribution yard inventory and service sales the seller may add to the maximum prices, f. o. b. yard (as set out in paragraph (b) of the Appendix), delivery charges for transportation from the yard to the purchaser, in accordance with paragraphs (a) (1) and (a) (2) above.

§ 1382.204 What the invoice must contain. * * *

(c) Type of sale. The invoice must state whether the sale is a direct-mill sale, distribution yard inventory sale, or distribution yard service sale.

(d) Transportation and delivery charges. In all sales where the seller has quoted a delivered price, the invoice must contain: (1) the point of origin of the shipment; (2) the destination; (3) the rail or truck rate (or, if private truck is used, the amount added for transportation); and (4) indirect-mill sales, any charge which the seller is permitted to make for truck delivery before or after rail haul.

§ 1382.206 Relation to other regulations. (a) The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation 281 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except as to distribution yard inventory sales of less than 5000 board feet of Navy oak ship stock. This regulation also supersedes the provisions of all specific hardwood regulations relating to the grades and items of lumber covered by this regulation. All specific prices for any of the grades or items of lumber covered by this regulation which previously have been authorized for particular mills under any of the special grade provisions of existing lumber maximum price regulations are hereby revoked, and such prices are superseded by the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 281.

* * * * *

* * * * *

(4) Complete ship schedule. When any seller furnishes and delivers all of the white oak select car stock and white oak ship planking included in a complete Navy schedule of such material, according to the schedule of quantities and sizes, and in accordance with the specifications of the Navy Department, the maximum f. o. b. mill price for 1000 feet of such material shall be as follows:

Designation of schedule:	Maximum f. o. b. mill price
YT	$135 00
ATR	140 00
APC	145 00
YN	190 00

If any portion of the material included in any of these schedules is furnished in red oak, the maximum prices shall be adjusted accordingly.

When a seller who furnishes a complete ship schedule substitutes, in any part, material other than white or red oak, the maximum price shall be adjusted to reflect the lower ceiling prices of the substituted materials. This adjusted price, with a complete description of the schedule and the materials to be furnished, must be reported to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and may be ordered reduced, if found to be excessive. But if the price is not disapproved within 30 days of the receipt of the report, it is approved.

A seller using this special pricing provision can go ahead with delivery of the lumber and collection of the price he has computed or requested, but he must tell the buyer that the price is subject to revision within the 30-day period, and, if the price is ordered reduced, must refund any excess over the final approved price.

* * * * *

(b) Maximum prices for distribution yard service and inventory sales—(1) Definition of "Pacific Coast". This paragraph distinguishes between sales by distribution yards located on the Pacific Coast, and other distribution yard sales. For this purpose, the "Pacific Coast" means the parts of California, Oregon and Washington west of the crest of the Sierra Nevada and Cascade Mountains.

(2) Maximum f. o. b. Pacific Coast yard prices. The maximum f. o. b. yard prices for Pacific Coast distribution yard inventory or service sales are the sum of the following items:

(i) The maximum f. o. b. mill price.

(ii) Inbound freight figured on a freight rate of $.90 per 100 pounds and the actual weight of the ship stock.

(iii) A handling charge of $12.00 per 1000 board feet.

(iv) A mark-up on items (i) and (ii) not greater than the following:

10 percent in distribution yard service sales, and

20 percent in distribution yard inventory sales.

(3) Maximum prices for other yards. For yards other than those located on the Pacific Coast, the direct-mill maximum prices apply to all sales, whether out of distribution yard stocks or not.

This amendment shall become effective February 20, 1943.

(b) * * *

(2) Removal or eviction of a tenant of the vendor, for occupancy by a purchaser who has acquired his rights in the housing accommodations on or after ------,[1] is inconsistent with the purposes of the Act and this maximum rent regulation and would be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof, unless (i) the payment or payments of principal made by the purchaser, excluding any payments made from funds borrowed for the purpose of making such principal payments, aggregate 33⅓% or more of the purchase price, and (ii) a period of three months has elapsed after the issuance of a certificate by the Administrator as hereinafter provided. PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Supp. Service Reg. 6 to MPR 165 as Amended[2]]

REPAIR OF AUTOMOTIVE VEHICLES AND FARM EQUIPMENT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Supplementary Service Regulation No. 6, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

§ 1499.656 Increases in hourly rates charged by certain sellers. (a) Any person engaged in the repair or maintenance of automotive vehicles or farm equipment:

Who employs a total of not more than eight persons; and whose wage increases have been exempted from the provisions of Executive Order No. 9250 by the National War Labor Board; and may determine his maximum customer's hourly rate by selecting the highest of the following:

Who uses a customer's hourly rate to determine his maximum prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 165 as amended;

(1) The highest customer's hourly rate actually charged in March 1942; or

(2) The average basic hourly wage rate (before payment of overtime) paid to employees performing farm equipment and automotive repair work in the week which includes March 31, 1942, multiplied by 2; or

(3) The average basic hourly wage rate (before payment of overtime) paid to employees performing such work in the week which includes March 31, 1942, plus 60¢

and adding thereto an amount equal to the increase, since March 31, 1942 in the average basic hourly wage rate (before payment of overtime) paid employees performing such work, provided that such increases in wage rates were not in violation of the regulations of the National War Labor Board. Where the resulting rate is no divisible by 5 cents, it may be adjusted upward to the nearest amount so divisible.

(b) A person who increases his prices under paragraph (a) shall prepare a list containing the name and wage paid each employee (exclusive of supervisory and nonproductive employees) who performed repair or maintenance services on automotive vehicles or farm equipment in the week including March 31, 1942, a similar list of employees performing such services in the week preceding the increase in the customer's hourly rate, and a statement setting forth:

(1) The average basic hourly wage rate of employees in his shop engaged in repair or maintenance work (exclusive of supervisory and nonproductive employees) for the week including March 31, 1942, and also for the week preceding the date of the increase in his customer's hourly rate; and

(2) His highest customer's hourly rate in effect in March 1942; his increased customer's hourly rate; and the date upon which it became effective.

This statement shall be prepared in the form set forth in Appendix A and shall, together with the lists of employees, be permanently retained and made available for public inspection in the same manner as the statement of maximum service prices required by § 1499.108 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended.

(c) 30 days after an increased customer's hourly rate has been put into effect such rate may be again recomputed to take into account further increases in the average basic hourly wage rate, provided that all requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b), including the preparation of a new list of employees and a new statement in the form set forth in Appendix A, are again met.

(d) Any person engaged in the repair or maintenance of automotive vehicles or farm equipment, who qualifies under paragraph (a) but who does not employ any persons in supplying such services, may take as his maximum customer's hourly rate the highest of the following:

(1) His highest customer's hourly rate actually charged in March 1942; or

(2) The current permissible maximum customer's hourly rate (as determined under this regulation) of his most closely competitive seller of the same class who does employ persons in supplying such services.

(e) Persons covered by this regulation may make an additional charge for work done at overtime wage rates in overtime hours if the customer actually requested that the work be done in overtime hours and the employee performing the work was paid overtime wages for the work. The ratio of the overtime charge to the regular charge shall not exceed the ratio of the overtime wage rate to the regular wage rate; i. e., if overtime wages are one and one-half times regular wages (time and a half for overtime) the overtime customer's hourly rate may be one and one-half times the regular customer's hourly rate.

(f) When a price is increased as authorized herein, the seller shall post conspicuously in his place of business a notice setting forth his new maximum customer's hourly rate for each service involved. This notice shall be posted in the following form:

AUTHORIZED HOURLY RATE FOR LABOR

(To be used in determining our maximum prices for service)

	New hourly rate
Automotive repairs	$-------
Farm equipment repairs	$-------

This rate is in accordance with OPA regulations. The calculations on which it is based are available for inspection during regular business hours.

This regulation shall become effective February 22, 1943.

The outbreak of war with the Japanese Empire makes uncertain the future shipment of rubber from the Far East and necessitates for the present time a great curtailment in the consumption of rubber for new rubber tires and tubes so that the rubber stockpile already accumulated may be available for military and essential civilian purposes. There are large stocks of new rubber tires and tubes in the hands of retailers, and sales from these stocks are permitted only to those consumers who can demonstrate that it is in the national interest for them to have such new tires or tubes.

Since July 3, 1941, the Office of Price Administration with the complete cooperation of the members of the tire and tube industry has stabilized, within maximum levels, the wholesale prices received by manufacturers for new rubber tires and tubes. Stabilization of retail prices is now considered essential to the success of the Government's effort to insure that the limited number of new rubber tires and tubes available are used where they are most needed in our economy.

The maximum retail prices set forth in Price Schedule No. 63 are established, after investigation and conferences with members of both the manufacturing and distributive phases of the industry, on the basis of price lists presently used by the industry and which were so used shortly before the outbreak of the war in the Pacific. Observance of Price Schedule No. 63 will be fair to buyers and to sellers alike, and will further the Government's program for the allocation of rubber tires and tubes to consumers.

Accordingly, under the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 7734, it is hereby directed that:

Sec

§ 1315.101 Maximum retail prices for new rubber tires and tubes. On and after January 5, 1942, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or other commitment, no person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer, at retail, any new rubber tire or tube, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendices A and B, hereof, incorporated herein as § 1315.110 and § 1315.111.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9804) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 34 (7 F.R. 10779) permits special packing expenses to be added to maximum prices on sales to procurement agencies of the United States.]

§ 1315.101a Leasing or renting of new rubber tires and tubes. The maximum price for leasing or renting any new rubber tire or tube shall be determined according to Maximum Price Regulation No. 165,[2] as Amended—Services, as now or hereafter amended.

(§ 1315.101a added by Amendment 5, 7 F.R. 7364)

§ 1315.102 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendices A and B (§ 1315.110 and § 1315.111) may be charged or demanded.

§ 1315.103 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in Price Schedule No. 63 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with the sale, delivery, or transfer of a new rubber tire or tube, alone or in conjunction with any other article or material, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by increasing the charges for the extension of credit or for the mounting of a tire or tube on a vehicle or for any other service over those in effect on November 25, 1941, or by making terms and conditions of sale more onerous to purchasers than those available or in effect on November 25, 1941, or by any other means. The purchaser shall always have the option of paying at the time of the purchase the full cash price of the tire or tube, which shall not exceed the maximum price less any trade-in allowance. He shall also have the option of receiving delivery of such tire or tube at the seller's place of business, without having it mounted on a vehicle or having any other service performed.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 29 (7 F.R. 9816) lists certain services customarily offered by retailers which may be curtailed or eliminated without a compensating reduction in ceiling prices.]

§ 1315.104. Posting of prices. (a) Every person engaged in the business of selling new rubber tires or tubes at retail, shall mark or post maximum prices for such tires or tubes in accordance with one of the following subparagraphs:

(1) Such seller shall keep posted in a conspicuous place in each retail establishment at which such tires or tubes are offered for sale, a price list setting forth the maximum retail prices applicable to such tires or tubes. Lists of maximum prices computed in compliance with the terms of Revised Price Schedule No. 63 and prepared by manufacturers of manufacturers' brands and by owners of private brands, may be used for this purpose.

(2) Or such seller shall mark or post the maximum prices of such tires or tubes in accordance with the provisions of § 1499.13 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[3]

(b) If, on November 25, 1941, the seller had special and separate charges in effect for the extension of credit, for the demounting or mounting of a tire or tube on a vehicle or rim, or for any other service, in connection with the sale of new rubber tires or tubes, and if he desires to continue such charges after January 5, 1942, such seller shall keep posted in a conspicuous place in each retail establishment at which such tires or tubes are offered for sale, a statement listing the prices in effect on November 25, 1941, for such extra service.

(c) A seller at retail shall not remove or cause to be removed from any new rubber tire or tube any tag or label that has been attached to such tire or tube pursuant to an order of the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1315.105 Records and reports. Every person engaged in the business of selling new rubber tires or tubes at retail shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, complete and accurate records of every such sale of such articles, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the purchaser, the price, and the brand name, size, and quantity of all new rubber tires or tubes sold.

Persons affected by Price Schedule No. 63 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.

C.

(f) The maximum retail prices for all sizes not included in paragraph (a) shall be calculated for manufacturers' brands of passenger-car tires (4 ply) included in paragraph (b) as follows:

(1) Take the manufacturer's consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941 for the unlisted size of tire and express it as a percentage of the manufacturer's consumer list price of the same date for the 6.00—16 passenger-car tire included in paragraph (b).

(2) Apply this percentage to the maximum price for the 6.00—16 (4 ply) passenger-car tire as shown in paragraph (a).

EXAMPLE: On a November 25, 1941 consumer list for one of the brands of passenger-car tires shown in paragraph (b), the 6.00—16 tire was listed at $15.00. On the same date an odd sized tire was listed at $18.00. Dividing the 18 by the 15, it appears that the odd sized tire was listed at 120 percent of the 6.00—16 size tire. Since the 6.00—16 tire is now not to sell in excess of $14.75, the odd sized tire may not sell in excess of 120 percent of $14.75, or $17.70.

(3) If the manufacturer had no consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the 6.00—16 size of the brand of passenger-car tire included in paragraph (b), the size to be substituted for the 6.00—16 size in making the calculations called for in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above shall be the first one of the following sizes for which there was such a consumer list price:

5.25/5.50—17	6.25—16
4.75/5.00—19	5.50—16
5.25/5.00—18	6.50—15
7.00—16	6.00—17

(g) The maximum retail prices for all sizes not included in paragraph (a) shall be calculated for manufacturers' brands of truck tires (10 ply) included in paragraph (b) as indicated in paragraph (f), except that the 8.25—20 truck-tire shall replace the 6.00—16 passenger-car tire in making the calculations. If the manufacturer had no consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the 8.25—20 size of the brand of truck tire included in paragraph (b), the size to be substituted for the 8.25—20 size in making the calculations shall be the first one of the following sizes for which there was such a consumer list price:

7.00—20 (32 x 6)	8.25—18
7.50—20 (34 x 7)	7.50—18 (32 x 7)
9.00—20	9.00—24
7.50—24 (38 x 7)	9.00—22

(h) The maximum retail prices for all sizes not included in paragraph (c) shall be calculated for manufacturer's brands of passenger-car and truck tubes included in paragraph (d) as indicated in paragraph (f), using the appropriate price for the 6.00—16 size tube in all calculations for passenger-car tubes and the appropriate price for the 8.25—20 size tube for truck tubes. The same calculations shall be made for all sizes not specified in paragraph (e) of the brands included in that paragraph. If the manufacturer had no consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the 6.00—16 size passenger-car tube or for the 8.25—20 size truck tube of the appropriate brand to be used in the calculations, the size to be substituted for either of such sizes in making the calculations shall be the first one of the following passenger-car or truck sizes, as the case may be, for which there was such a consumer list price:

PASSENGER-CAR SIZES

6.00—16	4.75—19
6.25—16	5.00—19
5.25—17	5.00—17
5.50—17	5.25—18
6.00—17	5.50—18DC
6.50—17	7.00—15
6.50—16	5.50—16

TRUCK SIZES

7.00—20	8.25—18
7.00—20 (32 x 6)	7.50—18 (32 x 7)
7.50—20 (34 x 7)	9.00—24 (40 x 8)
9.00—20 (36 x 8)	9.00—22
7.50—24 (38 x 7)

(i) The maximum retail prices for all other lines, levels, qualities, or weights of passenger-car and truck tires and tubes sold under manufacturers' brands of the manufacturers listed in paragraphs (b), (d), and (e) for which maximum retail prices are not specifically fixed by Price Schedule No. 63 shall be calculated as follows:

(1) Take the manufacturer's consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the particular brand, line, level, quality, or weight of tire or tube for which no maximum price is specifically fixed by Price Schedule No. 63 and express it as a percentage of the manufacturer's consumer list price of the same date for the corresponding size of the brand of this manufacturer for which a maximum price is specifically fixed by Price Schedule No. 63.

(2) Apply this percentage to the maximum price, for the corresponding size, set forth in paragraph (a), for tires, and paragraphs (c) and (e), for tubes.

EXAMPLE: On a November 25, 1941 manufacturer's consumer list for one of the brands of passenger-car tires shown in paragraph (b), the 6.00—16 size (4 ply) was listed at $16.00. On the same date the 6.00—16 size (4 ply) of a lower quality brand of the same manufacturer had a list price of $12.00. Dividing the 12 by the 16, it appears that the lower quality brand was listed at 75 percent of the price of the brand listed in paragraph (b). Since the 6.00—16 size (4 ply) of the brand listed in paragraph (b) is now to sell not in excess of $14.75, the 6.00—16 size (4 ply) of the lower quality brand may not sell in excess of 75 percent of $14.75 or $11.05.

(3) If for any particular size of a brand, line, level, quality or weight of tire or tube for which no maximum price is specifically fixed herein, there is no corresponding size on the consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941 for the brand of this manufacturer for which a maximum price is specifically fixed herein, the maximum price for such size of such brand for which no maximum price is specifically fixed shall be determined by using the 6.00—16 size for passenger-car tires or tubes and the 8.25—20 size for truck tires or tubes in the calculations called for in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, and maintaining the same relationship between such other size and the 6.00—16 size or the 8.25—20 size, as the case may be of the brand for which no maximum price is specifically fixed as existed between such sizes on the November 25, 1941 consumer list price for such brand.

(4) If the manufacturer had no consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the 6.00—16 size passenger-car tire or tube or for the 8.25—20 size truck tire or tube of the appropriate brand to be used in the calculations under this paragraph, the size to be substituted for either of such sizes in making the calculations shall be the first size for which there was such a consumer list price among the sizes occurring in the appropriate list of passenger-car or truck tire or tube sizes set forth for a similar purpose in paragraphs (f), (g) and (h).

(j) The maximum retail prices for manufacturers' brands of passenger-car tires other than 4 ply and truck tires other than 10 ply shall be calculated to maintain the relationship expressed in paragraph (i) above.

(k) For manufacturers who did not use a consumer list for quoting prices on November 25, 1941, the calculations of the percentages called for in paragraphs (f), (g), (h), (i), and (j), shall be made on the basis of the manufacturer's selling price list.

(Paragraph (k) amended by Amendment 6, 7 F.R. 9888)

(l) The maximum retail prices for manufacturers' brands of passenger-car and truck tires and tubes owned by manufacturers not listed in paragraphs (b), (d), and (e) shall be those given in paragraph (a) for tires and paragraph (c) for tubes.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision of paragraphs (a) to (l) inclusive, the maximum retail prices for the following brands of tires and tubes owned by the following manufacturers shall be as follows:

(1) The Armstrong Rubber Company: Maximum prices for the "Streamline" brand of passenger-car tires for all sizes listed in paragraph (a) shall be the prices listed in paragraph (a), with other sizes determined according to the method set forth in paragraph (f). Maximum prices for the 6.00—16, (4 ply) "Air Coaster" and "Standard" brands of passenger-car tires shall be $12.90 and $10.05, respectively. Other sizes and plies of these brands shall remain in the same percentage relationship to these prices as they bore on the Armstrong Rubber Company's Consumer Price List in effect on November 25, 1941.

(2) United States Rubber Company: (i) Maximum prices for the "U. S. Royal Master" and Fisk "Safti-Flight" brands of passenger-car tires shall be the consumer list prices for those brands on file with the Office of Price Administration which were in effect on November 25, 1941.

(ii) Maximum prices for the "Federal Special Service" and "Gillette Special Service" brands of truck tires in the following sizes shall be:

Size	Ply	Maximum price
8.25–20	12	$83.20
9.00–20	12	100.90
10.00–20	14	125.65
11.00–20	14	154.90

(Subparagraph (2) amended by Amendment 6, 7 F.R. 9888)

(n) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, on and after April 25, 1942, the maximum retail prices for manufacturers' brands of passenger-car tires and tubes shall be 16% greater than the maximum prices determined for such tires or tubes according to paragraphs (a) to (m), inclusive, of this section.

(o) (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the maximum retail prices for any manufacturers' brands of Exhibit C passenger-car tires and tubes shall be determined according to whichever of the following subdivisions (i) or (ii) is applicable. The maximum retail prices established by this paragraph shall supersede any higher or different maximum prices which may have been established for such tires or tubes by paragraphs (a) to (n) of this section.

(i) If the Exhibit C filed with the Office of Price Administration on which the particular tires or tubes are listed sets forth consumer list prices, the maximum retail prices shall be the prices set forth on the Exhibit C list, without deducting the 20, 40, and 60% discount prescribed by the Exhibit C, for tires or tubes of the same brand and size.

(ii) If the Exhibit C filed with the Office of Price Administration on which the particular tires or tubes are listed sets forth net wholesale prices, the maximum retail prices shall be determined by taking the maximum retail prices in effect under paragraphs (a) to (m) of this section, for the tires or tubes of the same manufacturer which are most comparable as to type, quality, and size, and adjusting such price in accordance with the price differentials prevailing in the industry on March 1, 1942, for differences in brand, type, quality and size.

(2) It shall be the duty of the seller to determine which of the tires or tubes he is selling appear on the Exhibit C filed with the Office of Price Administration by the manufacturer thereof, the prices set forth for such tires or tubes on the Exhibit C list, whether such prices are consumer list prices or net wholesale prices, and any other information which is necessary to enable the seller to determine the maximum retail prices for Exhibit C passenger-car tires or tubes under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such information can ordinarily be obtained from the manufacturer of the tires and tubes involved. All such information can be obtained by any seller by writing to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., where an accurate Exhibit C for each manufacturer is on file and available for inspection at all times.

(p) The maximum retail prices for manufacturers' brands of tires and tubes for special purpose trucks and busses, off-the-road equipment, industrial and commercial tractors, trailers, industrial equipment, farm implements and motorcycles, shall be calculated according to the method set forth in paragraphs (f), (g), and (h) of this section, using as the basis for calculating, the 6.00—16 or 8.25—20 size tire or tube as specified by those paragraphs. The paragraph to be used shall be the one which specifies the type of tire or tube most nearly comparable to the tire or tube for which a maximum retail price is being calculated.

§ 1315.111 Appendix B: Maximum retail prices for private brands of new rubber tires and tubes. The following prices are the maximum prices that may be charged at retail for new rubber tires or tubes at the seller's place of business. The maximum prices set forth herein may not be exceeded for any such sale, even though in a particular case no used tire or tube is traded in. If a used tire or tube is traded in, the trade-in allowance shall be deducted from the maximum price.

The actual dollar amount of the Federal Excise Tax paid on any tire or tube may in each case be added to the maximum price established by Price Schedule No. 63.

(Table amended by Amendment 6, 7 F.R. 9888 and Amendment 7)

(f) The maximum retail prices for all sizes not included in paragraph (a) shall be calculated for the private brands of passenger-car tires (4 ply) included in paragraph (b) as follows:

(1) Take the consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the unlisted size of tire and express it as a percentage of the consumer list price of the same date for the 6.00—16 passenger-car tire included in paragraph (b).

(2) Apply this percentage to the maximum price for the 6.00—16 (4 ply) passenger-car tire as shown in paragraph (a).

EXAMPLE: On a November 25, 1941, consumer list for one of the brands of passenger-car tires shown in paragraph (b) the 6.00—16 tire was listed at $12.00. On the same date an odd-size tire was listed at $14.40. Dividing the 14.40 by the 12, it appears that the odd-size tire was listed at 120 percent of the 6.00—16 size tire. Since this 6.00—16 tire is now not to sell in excess of $13.25, the odd size may not sell in excess of 120 percent of $13.25 or $15.90.

(3) If there was no consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the 6.00—16 size of the brand of passenger-car tire included in paragraph (b), the size to be substituted for the 6.00—16 size in making the calculations called for in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above shall be the first one of the following sizes for which there was such a consumer list price:

5.25/5.50—17	6.25—16
4.75/5.00—19	5.50—16
5.25/5.50—18	6.50—15
7.00—16	6.00—17

(g) The maximum retail prices for all sizes not included in paragraph (a) shall be calculated for private brands of truck tires (10 ply) included in paragraph (b), as indicated in paragraph (f) except that the 8.25—20 truck tire shall replace the 6.00—16 passenger-car tire in making the calculation. If there was no consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the 8.25—20 size of the brand of truck tire included in paragraph (b), the size to be substituted for the 8.25—20 size in making the calculations shall be the first one of the following sizes for which there was such a consumer list price:

7.00—20 (32 x 6)	8.25—18
7.50—20 (34 x 7)	7.50—18 (32 x 7)
9.00—20	9.00—24
7.50—24 (38 x 7)	9.00—22

(h) The maximum retail prices for all sizes not included in paragraph (c) shall be calculated for private brands of passenger-car and truck tubes included in paragraph (d) as indicated in paragraph (f), using the appropriate price for the 6.00—16 size tube in all calculations for passenger-car tubes and the appropriate price for the 8.25—20 size tube for truck tubes. The same calculations shall be made for all sizes not specified in paragraph (e) of the brands included in that paragraph. If there was no consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the 6.00—16 size passenger-car tube or for the 8.25—20 size truck tube of the appropriate brand to be used in the calculations, the size to be substituted for either of such sizes in making the calculations shall be the first one of the following passenger-car or truck sizes, as the case may be, for which there was such a consumer list price:

PASSENGER-CAR SIZES

6.25—16		5.00—19
5.25—17		5.00—17
5.50—17		5.25—18
6.00—17		5.50—18	DC
6.50—17		7.00—15
6.50—16		5.50—16

TRUCK SIZES

7.00—20		8.25—18
7.00—20	(32 x 6)	7.50—18	(32 x 7)
7.50—20	(34 x 7)	9.00—24	(40 x 8)
9.00—20	(36 x 8)	9.00—22
7.50—24	(38 x 7)

(i) The maximum retail prices for all other lines, levels, qualities or weights of passenger-car and truck tires and tubes sold under private brands by the distributors listed in paragraphs (b), (d), and (e) for which maximum retail prices are not specifically fixed by Price Schedule No. 63 shall be calculated as follows:

(1) Take the consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the particular brand, line, level, quality or weight of tire or tube for which no maximum price is specifically fixed by Price Schedule No. 63 and express it as a percentage of the consumer list price of the same date for the corresponding size of the brand of this distributor for which a maximum price is specifically fixed by Price Schedule No. 63.

(2) Apply this percentage to the maximum price, for the corresponding size, set forth in paragraph (a), for tires, and paragraphs (c) and (e), for tubes.

EXAMPLE: On a November 25, 1941, consumer list for one of the brands of passenger-car tires shown in paragraph (b), the 6.00—16 size (4 ply) was listed at $14.00. On the same date the 6.00—16 size (4 ply) of a lower quality private brand tire handled by the same distributor had a list price of $11.20. Dividing the $11.20 by the 14, it appears that the lower quality brand was listed at 80 percent of the price of the brand listed in paragraph (b). Since the 6.00—16 size (4 ply) of the brand listed in paragraph (b) is now not to sell in excess of $13.25, the 6.00—16 size (4 ply) of the lower quality brand may not sell in excess of 80 percent of $13.25 or $10.40.

(3) If for any particular size of a brand, line, level, quality or weight of tire or tube for which no maximum price is specifically fixed herein, there is no corresponding size on the consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the brand of this distributor for which a maximum price is specifically fixed herein, the maximum price for such size of such brand for which no maximum price is specifically fixed shall be determined by using the 6.00—16 size for passenger-car tires or tubes and the 8.25—20 size for truck tires or tubes in the calculations called for in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, and maintaining the same relationship between such other size and the 6.00—16 size or the 8.25—20 size, as the case may be, of the brand for which no maximum price is specifically fixed, as existed between such sizes in the November 25, 1941, consumer list price for such brand.

(4) If there was no consumer list price in effect November 25, 1941, for the 6.00—16 size passenger-car tire or tube or for the 8.25—20 size truck tire or tube of the appropriate brand to be used in the calculations under this paragraph, the size to be substituted for either of such sizes in making the calculations shall be the first size for which there was such a consumer list price among the sizes occurring in the appropriate list of passenger-car or truck tire or tube sizes set forth for a similar purpose in paragraphs (f), (g) and (h).

(j) The maximum retail prices for private brands of passenger-car tires other than 4 ply and truck tires other than 10 ply shall be calculated to maintain the relationship expressed in paragraph (i) above.

(k) For private brand distributors who did not use a consumer list for quoting prices on November 25, 1941, the calculations of the percentages called for in paragraphs (f), (g), (h), (i), and (j), shall be made on the basis of wholesale price lists.

(Paragraph (k) amended by Amendment 6, 7 F.R. 9888)

(l) The maximum retail prices for private brands of passenger-car and truck tires and tubes owned by distributors not listed in paragraphs (b), (d), and (e) shall be those given in paragraph (a) for tires and paragraph (c) for tubes.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision of paragraphs (a) to (l) inclusive, the maximum retail prices for the following brands of tires and tubes owned by the following private brand distributors shall be as follows:

(1) Triplex Tire Company: Maximum prices for all brands of passenger-car and truck tires shall be the consumer price list of the company on file with the Office of Price Administration which was in effect on September 30, 1941.

(2) National Co-operatives, Inc.: Maximum prices for all brands of passenger-car and truck tires and tubes shall be those set forth on the list of maximum retail prices filed pursuant to this subparagraph with the Division of the Federal Register.[1] Such list of maximum retail prices is available at any district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(Paragraph (m) amended by Amendment 4, 7 F.R. 9888)

(n) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, on and after April 25, 1942, the maximum retail prices for private brands of passenger-car tires and tubes shall be 16⅔% greater than the maximum prices determined for such tires or tubes according to paragraphs (a) to (m) inclusive of this section.

(o) (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the maximum retail prices for any private brands of Exhibit C passenger-car tires and tubes shall be determined according to whichever of the following subdivisions (i) or (ii) is applicable. The maximum retail prices established by this paragraph shall supersede any higher or different maximum prices which may have been established for such tires or tubes by paragraphs (a) to (n) of this section.

(i) If the Exhibit C filed with the Office of Price Administration on which the particular tires or tubes are listed sets forth consumer list prices, the maximum retail prices shall be the prices set forth on the Exhibit C list, without deducting the 20, 40, or 60% discount prescribed by the Exhibit C, for tires or tubes of the same brand and size.

(ii) If the Exhibit C filed with the Office of Price Administration on which the particular tires or tubes are listed sets forth net wholesale prices, the maximum retail prices shall be determined by taking the maximum retail prices in effect under paragraphs (a) to (m) of this section, for the tires or tubes of the same distributor which are most comparable as to type, quality, and size and adjusting such price in accordance with the price differentials prevailing in the industry on March 1, 1942, for differences in brand, type, quality and size.

(2) It shall be the duty of the seller to determine which of the tires or tubes he is selling appear on the Exhibit C filed with the Office of Price Administration by the distributor or manufacturer thereof, the prices set forth for such tires or tubes on the Exhibit C list, whether such prices are consumer list prices or net wholesale prices, and any other information which is necessary to enable the seller to determine the maximum retail prices for Exhibit C passenger-car tires or tubes under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such information can ordinarily be obtained from the distributor or manufacturer of the tires or tubes involved. All such information can be obtained by any seller by writing to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., where an accurate Exhibit C for each distributor and manufacturer is on file and available for inspection at all times.

(p) The maximum retail prices for private brands of tires and tubes for special purpose trucks and busses, off-the-road-equipment, industrial and commercial tractors, trailers, industrial equipment, farm implements and motorcycles, shall be calculated according to the method set forth in paragraphs (f), (g), and (h), of this section, using as the basis for calculating, the 6.00—16 or 8.25—20 size tire or tube as specified by those paragraphs. The paragraph to be used shall be the one which specifies the type of tire or tube most nearly comparable to the tire or tube for which a maximum retail price is being calculated.

§ 1315.112 Appendix C: Maximum retail prices for new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires. The following prices are the maximum prices that may be charged at retail for new rubber tires or tubes at the seller's place of business. The maximum prices set forth herein may not be exceeded for any such sale, even though in a particular case no used tire or tube is traded in. If a used tire or tube is traded in, the trade-in allowance shall be deducted from the maximum price. The actual dollar amount of the Federal excise tax paid on any tire or tube may in each case be added to the maximum price established by Revised Price Schedule No. 63.

(a) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of Appendixes A and B (§§ 1315.110 and 1315.111), the maximum retail prices for new passenger-car reclaimed rubber war tires shall be:

PASSENGER-CAR RECLAIMED RUBBER WAR TIRES

PART 1439—UNPROCESSED AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

ONION SETS 1942 CROP

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the prices of onion sets have risen and are threatening to rise further to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and are thereby causing undue increases in prices.

The Administrator has considered all pertinent provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and has complied with all requirements thereof including the provisions of section 3 of this Act, as amended.

The maximum prices established by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 26 are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order 9250.

Therefore, with the concurrence of the Secretary of Agriculture and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order 9250, this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 26 is hereby issued, establishing as the maximum prices on onion sets of the 1942 crop the price or prices prevailing with respect thereto within five days prior to the date of issuance of this temporary regulation.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1439.101 to 1439.109, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong., E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1439.102 Definitions. (a) When used in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 26, the term:

(1) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association or other organized group of persons or the successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any government or any political subdivision or agency of either thereof.

(2) "Each seller" includes each grower, dealer, wholesaler, wholesale outlet, retailer, retail outlet and every other person selling onion sets of the 1942 crop.

(3) "Dealer" means a person who buys such onion sets and cleans, sizes or bags the same for resale by him.

(4) "Wholesaler" means a person who buys such onion sets and resells to any person other than ultimate users.

(5) "Wholesale outlet" means a department, branch or unit of one concern or a unit of an affiliated group of concerns or organizations which department, branch or unit performs a function equivalent to that of a wholesaler in the selling or distribution of such onion sets and which concern, concerns or organizations also deal in such onion sets at the grower or dealer levels of distribution.

(6) "Retailer" means a person who buys such onion sets and resells to ultimate users.

(7) "Retail outlet" means a department, branch or unit of one concern or a unit of an affiliated group of concerns or organizations which department, branch or unit performs a function equivalent to that of a retailer in the selling or distribution of such onion sets and which concern, concerns or organizations also deal in such onion sets at other levels of distribution.

(8) "Commercial user" means a person who buys such onion sets to plant for a crop of onions which he intends to sell.

(9) "Ultimate user" means a person who buys such onion sets to plant for a crop of onions which he intends for his own use.

(10) "Billing charge" means a charge or entry as a part of the bookkeeping system of debits and credits made between different departments, branches or units of one concern or between different units of an affiliated group of concerns or organizations for services rendered or commodities delivered by one to another.

(11) "Each class of sales or deliveries" means all of the sale or deliveries of such onion sets by each seller during the five days prior to the date of issuance of this temporary regulation to one of the following groups or classes of buyers or recipients: dealers, wholesalers, wholesale outlets, retailers, retail outlets, commercial users and ultimate users.

(12) "Onion sets of the 1942 crop" means a small onion bulb produced in 1942 and sold for use for planting to yield a crop of onions.

§ 1439.104 Maximum prices for all sellers of onion sets of the 1942 crop. (a) Each seller's maximum price and billing charge for all sales or deliveries of onion sets of the 1942 crop shall be his highest price or billing charge charged on and for each class of sales or deliveries of each type, variety or size of onion sets during the five days prior to the date of issuance of this temporary regulation.

However, in determining "his highest price or billing charge" the seller shall not commingle f. o. b. selling prices and billing charges with delivered selling prices and billing charges. If for a given class of sales or deliveries during said five day period he had both, then his highest price or billing charge f. o. b. his established place of business shall be his maximum price and billing charge f. o. b. his established place of business hereunder; and his highest price or billing charge delivered to a given point or area (including all territory within which he had a uniform delivered price or billing charge during said base period) shall be his maximum price and billing charge delivered to that point or area hereunder. If under the foregoing provision a seller has no maximum delivered price or billing charge for any particular point or area he may determine the same by adding to his maximum price or billing charge f. o. b. his established place of business (determined as herein provided) the actual delivery cost as to each subsequent transaction; or he may take all or a representative list of prospective deliveries in a designated area and average his actual or estimated actual cost of such deliveries in said area and that figure added to his maximum f. o. b. price and billing charge shall be his uniform maximum delivered price and billing charge for that area. If under the foregoing provisions a seller had no maximum price or billing charge f. o. b. his established place of business, he may determine the same by taking his maximum price and billing charge delivered to a given point or area and deducting therefrom the actual or averaged actual delivered cost from his established place of business to or within that point or area and the figure obtained shall be his maximum price and billing charge f. o. b. his established place of business.

(b) If under the foregoing provision, a seller has no maximum price or billing charge for a given class of sales or deliveries, his maximum price and billing charge for such class of sales and deliveries shall be the maximum price and billing charge of his closest competitor for such class of sales and deliveries.

(c) If under the foregoing provisions a seller has a maximum price and billing charge for a given class of sales and deliveries for one or more, but not for all types, varieties, or sizes of onion sets of the 1942 crop, he shall determine his maximum price and billing charge for those types, varieties or sizes for which he has no such price or billing charge, by taking his maximum price and billing charge for that class of sales and deliveries for the most nearly similar type, variety or size and add thereto or subtract therefrom the discount or premium, as the case may be normal to his own business or, if none, normal to the trade for the type, variety or size in question in relation to said most nearly similar type, variety or size on which he has a maximum price and billing charge; and the resultant figure shall be his maximum price and billing charge for the type, variety or size in question.

(d) If any retailer cannot determine a maximum price under the foregoing provisions, he may establish his maximum price by taking the price in any catalogue of any reputable mail order house for sales to ultimate users of the type, variety or size of onion sets in question prevailing during said five days prior to the date of issuance of this temporary regulation. Said maximum price shall be f. o. b. his established place of business or delivered, dependent upon which basis the price is quoted in said catalogue.

(e) To cover shrinkage, for every two weeks after the effective date of this temporary regulation each seller or prospective seller may add 5 cents per bushel to his maximum price as hereinbefore established.

§ 1439.105 Evasion. The provisions of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 26 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of any commodity covered by this regulation alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding or otherwise.

§ 1439.106 Protests and petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a protest or an amendment of any provisions of this temporary regulation may file a protest or petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1439.107 Enforcement. Any persons violating any provisions of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 26 shall be subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damage provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1439.108 Records. Every person selling onion sets shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all his existing records relating to prices which he charged for sales or deliveries of onion sets during the five days prior to the issuance of this temporary regulation; and thereafter prepare and maintain for examination by any person during ordinary business hours a statement showing his then existing maximum prices for onion sets.

§ 1439.109. Effective period. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 26 (§§ 1439.101 to 1439.109, inclusive) shall become effective on February 15, 1943 and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire on 12 o'clock midnight April 16, 1943.

Issued this 15th day of February 1943.

Administrator.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

[Docket No. A-1595]

CARROLLTOWN COAL CO.

NOTICE OF HEARING, ETC.

In the matter of the petition of Carrolltown Coal Company, a corporation, for approval of its agreement with Frank B. Wood, an individual trading and doing business as F. B. Wood Coal Mining Company to purchase the entire production of the Foxburg No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 1685, and other coal; for a change in shipping point, and for permission to mix coals of Mine Index Nos. 582 and 1685.

Memorandum opinion and order denying application for modification, continuing temporary relief, and notice of and order for rehearing.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4, Part II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division, requesting the approval of an agreement attached thereto and requesting temporary and permanent relief to load and mix the coals produced by Carrolltown Coal Company, at the Victor 9–A Mine, Mine Index No. 582 with the coals produced by Frank B. Wood (F. B. Wood Coal Mining Company) at the Foxburg No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 1685.

A petition of intervention was filed in the above-entitled matter by District Board No. 1, the district in which the mines involved herein are located, requesting, among other things, that a temporary order be entered approving the above-referred to agreement.

An order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief was issued in the above-entitled matter on December 15, 1942, granting permission to load and mix the coals produced at said mines, changing the shipping points and freight origin group numbers for such coals, and providing that the price which shall apply to such mixture shall be that which is listed for the coal in the mixture which has the highest price classification.

An application for modification of such temporary and conditionally final relief was filed in the above-entitled matter by Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel, requesting that said order entered herein on December 15, 1942, be modified so as to provide as follows:

(a) When such mixture is sold the invoice shall properly identify the coal. This requirement is to be effective both as to temporary and as to final relief.

(b) The temporary relief granted by said Order (as modified by requested items "----(a)" above) shall remain in force and effect for a period of 60 days. Prior to the expiration of said 60-day period, the original petitioner or District Board No. 1 shall submit to the Director and to the Consumers' Counsel information regarding the percentages of coal from the component mines going into the mixture sold by petitioner under the terms of said temporary relief; factual information as to the physical and chemical characteristics, such as analytical data, of the mixture sold by the petitioner, including similar data as to the various coals comprising said mixture; and any other information which would further enable the Director to determine the classification and minimum mine price which should finally apply to said mixture. Upon submission of such data, the temporary relief shall remain in effect pending an order finally determining the applicable classification and minimum mine price for said mixture. If such data are not submitted as aforesaid, the said temporary relief shall terminate; and final relief shall become effective, to the effect that the price that shall apply to such mixture shall be the price which is listed for the coal in the mixture which has the "E" price classification (the lowest classification now applicable to a component coal).

Upon consideration of the foregoing requests, it appears that said application for modification should be denied at this time, subject, however, to a renewal thereof at the conclusion of the hearing to be held in this matter. It also appears, that the temporary relief heretofore granted by the order issued herein on December 15, 1942, should not become final, but should continue in full force and effect, pending further order of the Division, and that this matter should be scheduled for hearing.

Therefore, it is ordered, That the application for modification, heretofore filed herein by Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel be, and the same hereby is, denied, subject, however to a renewal thereof at the conclusion of the hearing to be held in this matter.

It is further ordered, That the temporary relief granted in said order issued in the above-entitled matter on December 15, 1942, be, and the same hereby is, continued in full force and effect pending further order of the Division.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on March 16, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Travis Williams or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 12, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition filed in the above-entitled matter by Carrolltown Coal Company, and the application for modification filed by Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel, which are more fully hereinabove described.

Dated: February 13, 1943.

Regional Office, Region I.

[Emergency Order 4 Under Ration Order 11]

FUEL OIL SHORTAGE IN GREATER BOSTON AREA AND CONNECTICUT

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Regional Administrator by § 1394.5715 of Ration Order No. 11, as amended, the following emergency order is prescribed:

(a) Findings. The Regional Administrator finds that in the territory served by the terminal and storage facilities of the Greater Boston Supply Area, as established under § 1510.29 (b) of Petroleum Directive 59, and in the State of Connecticut, as the result of the continuing inadequacy of the supply of fuel oils of grades Nos. 2, 3 and 4, including Diesel oil and gas oil, there exists an emergency in the transportation and distribution of such fuel oils which endangers the public health, the public welfare and the war effort.

(b) Scope of order. (1) Nothing in this emergency order shall be construed to limit the quantity of fuel oil of any grade which may be acquired by the persons listed in § 1394.5052 of Ration Order No. 11.

(2) This emergency order applies only to fuel oils of grades Nos. 2, 3 and 4, including Diesel oil and gas oil, and does not apply to fuel oil of grade No. 1, commonly known as range oil or kerosene. The oils covered by this order are hereinafter referred to as "distillate oil." Nothing in this emergency order shall be construed to affect the operation of Emergency Order No. 1 as amended.

(3) This emergency order shall be effective in the State of Connecticut and in the territory served by the terminal and storage facilities of the Greater Boston Supply Area, as established under § 1510.29 (b) of Petroleum Directive 59, and shall include:

(i) All of the State of Connecticut;

(ii) In Massachusetts, the Counties of Suffolk and Essex; Middlesex County (except Ashby, Townsend, Shirley, Ayer, Hopkinton and Holliston); Norfolk County (except Medway, Bellingham, Franklin, Wrentham, Plainville and Foxboro); Plymouth County (except Lakeville, Middleboro, Carver, Plymouth, Rochester, Wareham, Marion and Mattapoisett); and the town of Easton in Bristol County.

(c) Order. During the effective period of this order, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers,

(1) No dealer shall transfer or deliver distillate oil to any consumer nor shall any consumer accept a transfer or delivery if such consumer has on hand a supply sufficient to meet his estimated needs for seven days.

(2) No dealer shall transfer or deliver distillate oil to any consumer nor shall any consumer accept a transfer or delivery in an amount greater than his estimated consumption for a ten day period: Provided, however, That this limitation of the amount of a delivery shall not operate to prohibit a delivery

(i) To the extent of 100 gallons, where 100 gallons is more than a ten days' supply, or

(ii) In excess of a ten days' supply where extraordinary circumstances of transportation or distribution require it.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2), a dealer whose stocks are, in his judgment, too low to warrant such deliveries shall not be required to make a delivery to any consumer who has an estimated three days' supply on hand, nor shall any dealer be required to make a delivery to any consumer in an amount greater than his estimated consumption for a three day period: Provided, however, That any public utility engaged in the production and distribution of gas or electricity shall be entitled to demand and receive a supply sufficient, when added to its stock on hand, to meet its estimated needs for a seven day period.

(4) List of priorities of transfers and deliveries. During the effective period of this order, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11, relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers, transfers and deliveries of distillate oil shall be made to all consumers on the following list, to the extent at least of their minimum requirements as provided by paragraph (c) (3), prior to deliveries to any other consumers;

(i) Consumers who require distillate oil for use in private dwellings;

(ii) Consumers who require distillate oil for use in other buildings used for residential purposes, including hospitals, apartment houses, hotels, rooming houses and the like;

(iii) Consumers who, in accordance with paragraph 9 of this order, obtain from a Local War Price and Rationing Board a certification in writing that they require distillate oil to a specified amount to meet an emergency involving a serious threat to life, health or valuable property, and who furnish such certification to the dealer prior to delivery;

(iv) Consumers requiring distillate oil for power and processing whose use of distillate oil for such purposes is exclusively in operations listed in Schedule A of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3: Provided, That each such consumer who has not delivered to his dealer the certification prescribed in said Order No. 3 shall certify in writing to his dealer forthwith that his use of fuel oil for power and processing is exclusively in operations listed in said Schedule A: And provided further, That a copy of such certification shall be forthwith sent by each such consumer to the nearest District Office of the War Production Board. No particular form of certificate shall be required, but each certificate shall recite that a copy thereof has been sent to the said District Office;

(v) Consumers requiring distillate oil for space heating or hot water whose use of distillate oil for such purposes is exclusively in connection with operations listed in Schedule A of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3: Provided, That each such consumer so certify in writing to his dealer forthwith: And provided further, That a copy of such certification shall be forthwith sent by each such consumer to the nearest District Office of the War Production Board. No particular form of certificate shall be required, but each certificate shall recite that a copy thereof has been sent to the said District Office;

(vi) Consumers engaged partially in operations listed on Schedule A of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3, to the extent necessary to enable them to carry on such operations (including distillate oil for the purposes of space heating and hot water as well as power and processing), Provided, That each such consumer certify in writing to his dealer the percentage of his present ration that is necessary to enable him to carry on such operations, and Provided further, That a copy of such certification shall be forthwith sent by each such consumer to the nearest District Office of the War Production Board. No particular form of certificate shall be required, but each certificate shall recite that a copy thereof has been sent to the said District Office;

(vii) Consumers none of whose operations are included in Schedule A of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3 to the extent that the Director of Region I of the War Production Board, or his duly authorized representative, may certify that they are engaged in essential war production the temporary interruption of which would seriously impede the war effort, provided that each such consumer shall furnish to his dealer such certificate or a copy thereof, prior to delivery. Such certification may cover distillate oil for the purposes of space heating and hot water as well as power and processing. The numerical arrangement of the foregoing list does not indicate priority of any consumer over any other consumer on such list, except that if at any time the supply is insufficient to meet the requirements of the entire list the Director of Region I of the War Production Board or his duly authorized representative may prescribe the order and extent of priority in which consumers referred to in paragraphs (iv) (v) (vi) and (vii) shall be supplied.

(5) Any dealer shall refuse to make deliveries to consumers not on the priority list whenever from the state of his inventory and his anticipated receipts he reasonably believes that he will be unable to continue to satisfy the requirements of priority users for the five days next following.

(6) Any dealer who has satisfied all the minimum demands for distillate oil to the extent provided in paragraphs (c) (1), (2), and (3) made upon him by consumers on the priority list and who is not exercising his right under paragraph (5) to refuse to make deliveries to consumers not on the priority list shall thereafter give preference to the minimum demands of consumers who require distillate oil for use in buildings used exclusively for one or more of the following purposes: Retail food stores, drug stores, restaurants not commonly regarded as places of entertainment or amusement, laundries, police stations, fire stations, post offices, court houses, schools, churches, and the carrying on of federal, state, or local governmental functions.

(7) Any dealer who has satisfied all minimum demands for distillate oil to the extent provided in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) made upon him by consumers on the priority list, and who has satisfied all minimum demands of consumers entitled to preferential deliveries under paragraph (6) may thereafter subject to § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers, make transfers or deliveries out of his remaining stocks of such distillate oil to any consumer, including consumers a portion of whose requirements have been given priority under paragraphs (vi) and (ii) above, except that the following are prohibited:

(i) Delivery to, and acceptance by, consumers for use in buildings operated exclusively for purposes of amusement, entertainment, athletics or sports, including but not limited to theatres, night clubs, bowling alleys, pool rooms, dance halls, bar rooms and skating rinks;

(ii) Acceptance by consumers of delivery for use in buildings devoted in part to purposes of amusement, entertainment, athletics or sports, unless every practicable means has been taken to cut off the radiation and circulation of heat to the portion of such buildings devoted to purposes of amusement, entertainment, athletics or sports. Deliveries allowable under this paragraph shall be no more than sufficient to meet such consumers' reduced needs.

(8) Any dealer who in good faith refuses to make a delivery to a consumer because of a reasonable belief that such consumer falls within the class of consumers deliveries to whom are prohibited shall not be deemed to have committed a violation of the provisions of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers.

(9) Any consumer who requires a transfer for an emergency involving serious threat to life, health, or valuable property may, upon satisfying a Local Board of the genuineness of the need and the lack of other means of meeting it, obtain from the Local Board a certification of the existence of the emergency which will authorize delivery of a specified amount to such consumer to the same extent as if he were on the priority list above.

(10) Definitions. All terms in this order which are defined in Ration Order No. 11 shall have the meaning assigned to them in that ration order.

(11) Penalties. Any violation of this order shall be deemed a violation of Ration Order No. 11.

(12) Restrictions on transfers to consumers. Nothing contained in this emergency order shall be construed to increase the allowable ration of any consumer or to authorize a transfer or delivery of fuel of any grade to a consumer except in exchange for valid coupons or other evidences, or delivery receipts, authorized by Ration Order No. 11.

(13) Effective period. This order shall take effect at 12:01 a. m. February 12, 1943, and shall terminate at 12:00 midnight February 21, 1943, unless extended by further order.

(a) Findings. The Regional Administrator finds that in the States of Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island, as the result of the continuing inadequacy of the supply of residual oils, there exists an emergency in the transportation and distribution of such residual oils which endangers the public health, the public welfare and the war effort.

(b) Scope of order. (1) Nothing in this emergency order shall be construed to limit the quantity of fuel oil of any grade which may be acquired by the persons listed in § 1394.5052 of Ration Order No. 11.

(2) This emergency order applies only to fuel oils of grades Nos. 5 and 6, and any other grade of residual oil commonly known or sold as Bunker "C". The oils covered by this order are hereinafter referred to as Bunker "C" oil.

(3) This emergency order shall be effective in the States of Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island.

(c) Order. During the effective period of this order, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfer to consumers,

(1) No dealer shall transfer or deliver Bunker "C" oil to any consumer nor shall any consumer accept a transfer or delivery if such consumer has on hand a supply of such Bunker "C" oil sufficient to meet his estimated needs for three days.

(2) No dealer shall transfer or deliver Bunker "C" oil to any consumer nor shall any consumer accept a transfer or delivery in an amount which, when added to his stock on hand, is greater than his estimated needs for three days: Provided, however, That this limitation on the amount of a delivery shall not operate to prohibit a delivery of a greater amount:

(i) Where such greater amount represents the minimum practicable delivery, or

(ii) Where extraordinary circumstances of transportation or distribution require the delivery of a greater amount.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) any public utility engaged in the production and distribution of gas or electricity shall be entitled to demand and receive a supply sufficient, when added to its stock on hand, to meet its estimated needs for a seven day period.

(4) List of priorities of transfers and deliveries. During the effective period of this order, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11, relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers, transfers and deliveries of Bunker "C" oil shall be made to all consumers on the following list, for the purposes specified, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) (1) (2) and (3), prior to deliveries to any other consumers:

(ii) Consumers who require Bunker "C" oil for use in other buildings used for residential purposes, including hospitals, apartment houses, hotels, rooming houses and the like;

(iii) Consumers who in accordance with paragraph 9 of this order, obtain from a local War Price and Rationing Board a certification in writing that they require Bunker "C" oil to a specified amount to meet an emergency involving a serious threat to life, health or valuable property, and who furnish such certification to the dealer prior to delivery;

(iv) Consumers requiring Bunker "C" oil for power and processing whose use of Bunker "C" oil for such purposes is exclusively in operations listed in Schedule A of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3: Provided, That each such consumer who has not delivered to his dealer the certification prescribed in said Order No. 3 shall certify in writing to his dealer forthwith that his use of Bunker "C" oil for power and processing is exclusively in operations listed in said Schedule A: And provided further, That a copy of such certification shall be forthwith sent by each such consumer to the nearest District Office of the War Production Board. No particular form of certificate shall be required, but each certificate shall recite that a copy thereof has been sent to the said District Office.

(v) Consumers requiring Bunker "C" oil for space heating or hot water whose use of Bunker "C" oil for such purposes is exclusively in connection with operations listed in Schedule A of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3. Provided, That each such consumer so certify in writing to his dealer forthwith: And provided further, That a copy of such certification shall be forthwith sent by each such consumer to the nearest District Office of the War Production Board. No particular form of certificate shall be required, but each certificate shall recite that a copy thereof has been sent to the said District Office.

(vii) Consumers none of whose operations are included in Schedule A of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3 to the extent that the Director of Region I of the War Production Board, or his duly authorized representative, may certify that they are engaged in essential war production the temporary interruption of which would seriously impede the war effort: Provided, That each such consumer shall furnish to his dealer such certificate or a copy thereof, prior to delivery. Such certification may cover Bunker "C" oil for the purposes of space heating and hot water as well as power and processing.

The numerical arrangement of the foregoing list does not indicate priority of any consumer over any other consumer on such list, except that if at any time the supply is insufficient to meet the requirements of the entire list the Director of Region I of the War Production Board or his duly authorized representative may prescribe the order and extent of priority in which consumers referred to in paragraphs (iv) (v) (vi) and (vii) shall be supplied.

(5) Any dealer shall refuse to make deliveries to consumers not on the priority list whenever from the state of his inventory and his anticipated receipts he reasonably believes that he will be unable to continue to satisfy the requirements of priority users for the five days next following.

(7) Any dealer who has satisfied all minimum demands for Bunker "C" oil to the extent provided in paragraphs (c) (1), (2), and (3) made upon him by consumers on the priority list, and who has satisfied all minimum demands of consumers entitled to preferential deliveries under paragraph (6) may thereafter, subject to § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers, make transfers or deliveries out of his remaining stocks of such Bunker "C" oil to any consumer, including consumers a portion of whose requirements have been given priority under paragraphs (vi) and (vii) above, except that the following are prohibited:

(i) Delivery to, and acceptance by, consumers for use in buildings operated exclusively for purposes of amusement, entertainment, athletics or sports, including but not limited to theatres, night-clubs, bowling alleys, pool rooms, dance halls, bar rooms and skating rinks;

(ii) Acceptance by consumers of delivery for use in buildings devoted in part to purposes of amusement, entertainment, athletics or sports, unless every practicable means has been taken to cut off the radiation and circulation of heat to the portion of such buildings devoted to purposes of amusement, entertainment, athletics or sports. Deliveries allowable under this paragraph shall be no more than sufficient to meet such consumers' reduced needs.

(8) Any dealer who in good faith refuses to make a delivery to a consumer because of a reasonable belief that such consumer falls within the class of consumers deliveries to whom are prohibited shall not be deemed to have committed a violation of the provisions of § 1394.5661 of Ration Order No. 11 relating to discrimination in transfers to consumers.

[Order 1 Under § 1340.260 of Rev. MPR 122]

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE IN CERTAIN BOROUGHS OF NEW YORK CITY

Order No. 1 under § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122—Solid Fuels Sold and Delivered by Dealers: Pennsylvania Anthracite Delivered by Dealers in the Boroughs of Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens, City of New York, State of New York.

Pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and § 1340.-260, as amended, of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, and for the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith; It is ordered:

(a) Maximum prices established by this order. The maximum prices of dealers for Pennsylvania anthracite, in the sizes and quantities set forth in Schedules I to IV hereof (contained in paragraphs (d) and (g), respectively), delivered to or at any point in the zones described in such schedules, shall be the applicable zone maximum prices prescribed therein. The maximum delivered price shall be determined by reference to the appropriate schedule of this order covering the zone to which the delivery is made, whether the dealer is located in one of said four zones, or elsewhere. The maximum price for a "yard" sale, as herein defined, shall be determined by reference to the appropriate schedule covering the zone in which the purchaser takes physical possession or custody of the anthracite.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall:

(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy Pennsylvania anthracite, of the sizes and in the quantities set forth in the schedules herein, at prices higher than the applicable maximum prices specified in such schedules, though less than maximum prices may be charged, paid or offered;

(2) Obtain any price higher than the applicable maximum price by changing the discounts authorized herein; or charging a price for any service set forth in the schedules higher than the maximum price prescribed therein for such service; or charging for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by the applicable schedule; or increasing any interest rate on debts over that charged in December, 1941; or using any other device by which a price higher than the applicable maximum price is obtained; or using any tying agreement or imposing any requirement that anything other than the fuel requested by the buyer be purchased by him.

(c) Method of computing maximum prices. The specific maximum prices for sales of Pennsylvania anthracite on a delivered basis, in the sizes and quantities set forth in Schedules I to IV hereof (contained in paragraphs (d) to (g), respectively), shall be computed by deducting from the applicable prices set forth in paragraph (1) (i) of each schedule, the amount of the discounts set forth in paragraph (1) (ii) of each schedule. The amount of such discounts shall be separately stated. There may be added, for certain services actually rendered by the dealer at the request of the purchaser, an amount not in excess of the amount specified in paragraph (1) (iii) of each schedule as the maximum authorized charge for such service, provided such amount is separately stated. The required discounts and the maximum authorized service charges are generally stated in terms of an amount per net ton, or per 100 lbs. In the case of deliveries of fractions of a net ton, or fractions of 100 lbs., respectively, the required discounts and the maximum authorized service charges shall be apportioned accordingly, to the nearest full cent. The specific maximum prices for "yard" sales shall be the applicable prices set forth in paragraph (2) of each schedule.

(d) Schedule I, covering Manhattan and part of the Bronx. Schedule I establishes specific maximum prices for certain sizes of Pennsylvania anthracite, in certain specific quantities, delivered to or at any point within Zone I. (h) Addition of railroad freight rate increase prohibited. The specific maximum prices prescribed herein include the amount of the railroad freight rate increase incurred as a result of the Interstate Commerce Commission's order in its Docket Ex Parte 148, effective March 18, 1942, and such railroad freight rate increase may not be added to the specific maximum prices.

(i) Addition of increases in suppliers' maximum prices prohibited. The specific maximum prices established by this order may not be increased to reflect, in whole or in part, any subsequent increase to a dealer in his supplier's maximum price for the same fuel. The specific maximum prices already reflect increases to dealers in their suppliers' maximum prices occuring up to the effective date of this order. If increases in suppliers' maximum prices should occur after such date, as the result of any amendment to or revision of a maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration governing sales and deliveries made by such suppliers, the Regional Administrator will, if he then deems it to be warranted, take appropriate action to amend this order to reflect such increases.

(j) Taxes. A dealer subject to this order may collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided he states it separately, the amount of the Federal tax upon the transportation of property imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by him, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of his prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from the dealer by the supplier from whom he purchased. A retail dealer subject to this order may also collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided he states it separately, the amount of the New York City sales tax payable by such dealer.

(k) Adjustable pricing. A price may not be made adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the anthracite has been completed; but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

(l) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed in the New York Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(m) Applicability of other regulations. Section 1499.15, Registration, and § 1499.16, Licensing, of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to this order. No other provision of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to this order.

(n) Records. Every dealer subject to this order shall preserve, keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, the same records he was required to preserve and keep under § 1340.262 (a) and (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(o) Posting of maximum prices: sales slips and receipts. (1) Every dealer subject to this order shall post all his maximum prices (as set forth in the applicable schedule or schedules of this order) in his place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

(2) Every dealer subject to this order shall, except in the case of Pennsylvania anthracite sold in bags in lots of one hundred pounds or less not exceeding a total of one-half ton, give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt showing the name and address of the dealer, the kind, size, and quantity of the solid fuel sold to him, the date of the sale or delivery and the price charged, separately stating the amount, if any, of the required discounts, the authorized service charges and the taxes, which must be deducted from, or which may be added to, the specific maximum prices prescribed herein.

In the case of sales of Pennsylvania anthracite in bags in lots of one hundred pounds or less not exceeding a total of one-half ton, every dealer subject to this order shall give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt containing the information described in the foregoing paragraph, if requesed by such purchaser or if such dealer during December, 1941, customarily gave purchasers such sales slips or receipts.

(p) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to the criminal penalties, civil and enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the New York District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(q) Definitions and explanations. When used in this Order No. 1 the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(7) "Yard" sales means delivery into the buyer's possession or custody at the yard, dock, barge, car, or at a place of business of the dealer other than at his truck or vehicle.

(14) The sizes of Pennsylvania anthracite described as broken, egg, stove, nut, pea, buckwheat, rice and barley shall refer to the same sizes of anthracite as were sold and delivered in the Boroughs of Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens with such designation during December, 1941.

TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 17—REGULATIONS OF THE BOARD OF LEGAL EXAMINERS[1]

REGISTERS; RIGHTS OF ELIGIBLES WHO ENTER MILITARY SERVICE

Sections 17.8 Registers of eligibles and 17.9 Rights of eligibles who enter military service are added as follows:

§ 17.8 Registers of eligibles. Registers of eligibles for attorney positions shall contain such numbers, be applicable to such positions, and be effective for such periods as the Board shall determine and announce. The publication of each register and of the supplements thereto shall constitute the certification of the eligibles included. The register, together with pertinent information concerning the eligibles which the Board will supply shall be available in full to appointing officers, who may make selections for appointment from among those included, subject to the Board's stated minimum experience requirements for particular grades of positions and with the exception that the Board may from time to time suspend the certification of eligibles from particular States in order to give effect to the principle that appointments shall so far as practicable be distributed among the States in proportion to population. Except as to individuals of whom the Board is advised by appointing officers in advance of publication of the register, all appointments to the positions and for the period covered by any register shall be from the register. The selections from any register shall be communicated immediately by the appointing agencies to the Board. The Board, immediately upon entering its approval of proposed appointments, will remove the names of the appointees from the register. The Board may from time to time add to a register others who have qualified through examination, in substitution for those who have been found unavailable for appointment, and may at any time suspend or cancel the eligibility of an individual included upon a register for cause arising either before or after his original certification. In case the life of a register is extended, the eligibles remaining upon it may as a condition of continued eligibility be required to furnish supplementary statements of qualifications and experience.

§ 17.9 Rights of eligibles who enter military service. Applicants for the Board's register who enter the military and related services or who are drafted into national service under the Selective Service Act shall enjoy the following rights, provided request is made within six months following their honorable discharge and return to civilian status:

(a) An applicant whose score upon a written examination confers eligibility for oral examination and who enters the service before his oral examination shall be entitled to take a qualifying oral examination or at the option of the Board to compete in a competitive oral examination in process at the time of his request and, if recommended by the examining committee, to be included for one year among the eligibles for positions in the grade or grades for which the original written examination was given.

(b) An applicant who enters the service after having qualified for a register but before the register is announced shall not be placed upon the register but shall be included for one year following action upon his request among the eligibles for positions in the grade or grades covered by the register for which he had qualified.

(c) An eligible upon a register who enters the service during the life of the register shall be included among the eligibles for positions in the same grade or grades for one year following action upon his request.

The foregoing rights shall accrue regardless of the tenure and status attaching to appointments during the

SUBPART E—1943

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the 1943 Agricultural Conservation Program, as amended, is further amended as follows:

1. Section 701.401 (a) is amended by deleting subparagraph (5) thereof and by renumbering subparagraph (6) as subparagraph (5).

2. Section 701.403 is amended by deleting paragraph (b) thereof, by re-lettering paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) as paragraphs (b), (c), and (d), respectively, and by changing new paragraphs (b) and (c) to read as follows:

§ 701.403 Production adjustment allowance and deductions. • • •

(b) Deduction for failure to achieve 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals. The deduction for failure to achieve 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals shall be made only from the farm production adjustment allowance. No deduction shall be made where the county committee finds, in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, that the failure to achieve 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals is due to flood or drought. The deduction will be $15.00 for each acre by which the sum of the acreage planted to war crops on the farm is less than 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals for the farm.

(c) Deductions for exceeding allotments. Deductions for exceeding allotments shall be made from the remainder of the farm production adjustment allowance after any deduction provided for in paragraph (b) above has been made. If the deductions for exceeding allotments are in excess of the remainder of the farm production adjustment allowance, each person's share of the excess after proration of net deductions shall be deducted from such person's share in the production adjustment payment for any other farm in the county, and may be deducted from such person's share of the production adjustment payment for any other farm in the State, if the State committee finds that the crops grown on the farm or farms with respect to which such deductions are computed substantially offset the contribution to the program made on such other farm or farms. These deductions shall be determined as follows:

(1) Cotton. Ten times the payment rate for each acre planted to cotton in excess of the cotton allotment.

(2) Tobacco. Ten times the payment rate for each acre of tobacco harvested in excess of the applicable tobacco allotment.

(3) Wheat—(i) Wheat on a wheat allotment farm. Ten times the payment rate for each acre planted to wheat on the farm in excess of the wheat allotment.

(ii) Wheat on a non-wheat-allotment farm. Ten times the payment rate for each acre of wheat on the farm harvested for grain, or for any other purpose after reaching maturity, in excess of the larger of 15 acres or the wheat allotment, or in areas designated by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency in excess of the largest of 15 acres, the wheat allotment, or if no wheat is sold from the farm, three acres per family living on the farm and having an interest in the wheat crop grown thereon.

(d) Miscellaneous deductions. • • •

3. Section 701.405 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 701.405 Division of payments and deductions—(a) Payments and deductions in connection with crop acreage allotments. • • •

(2) The deduction for failure to achieve 90 percent of the sum of the war crop goals shall be made prorata from the items constituting the farm production adjustment allowance.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of February 1943. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

§ 1600.3 Restriction on soybean purchases—(a) Definitions. (1) "Processor" as used herein means any person operating a processing plant for producing soybean oil and meal.

(2) "Manufacturer" as used herein means any person operating a manufacturing plant for producing soybean products other than oil and meal.

(b) Limitation on inventory and use of soybeans by processors, manufacturers, and seed dealers. No processor, manufacturer, or seed dealer shall purchase or accept delivery of soybeans of the 1942 crop in a total quantity which, taken in conjunction with the quantity of his existing supply of soybeans, would be in excess of his processing, manufacturing, and seed sales requirements for the period ending October 10, 1943; and no soybeans of the 1942 crop shall be used by a processor, manufacturer, or seed dealer except for meeting his processing, manufacturing, and seed sales requirements, or for sale to persons eligible to purchase or accept delivery of such soybeans under this subsection or under paragraph (c) hereof.

(c) Restrictions on purchase of soybeans by other persons. No person other than a processor, a manufacturer, or a seed dealer shall purchase or accept delivery of soybeans of the 1942 crop in a total quantity in excess of the quantity (1) required to fill orders on hand at the time of such purchase from processors, manufacturers, and seed dealers; (2) required to be delivered or deliverable under contracts with the Commodity Credit Corporation; and (3) necessary to meet his planting requirements: Provided, That this paragraph shall not prevent a country elevator, without orders on hand from processors, manufacturers, or seed dealers, from purchasing directly from farmers an aggregate quantity of such soybeans not in excess of two thousand (2,000) bushels.

This restriction shall apply only to soybeans in whole or ground form.

(e) Prohibition on sales. No person shall sell soybeans to any person if he knows or has reason to believe that the purchase of such soybeans would be in violation of this order.

The Commodity Credit Corporation may thereupon take such action as it deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order, or who wilfully conceals a material fact concerning any matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of or from crushing, processing or using vegetable oilseeds and oilseed products of any kind, and such further action may be taken against him as the Commodity Credit Corporation deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, 1942, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(k) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the Commodity Credit Corporation, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: CCC-3.

(l) Exercise of authority conferred. The authority conferred upon the Commodity Credit Corporation by this order shall be exercised by the President or Acting President of the Commodity Credit Corporation or such employees of the Department of Agriculture as he may designate.

(m) Commodity Credit Corporation Oilseed Order 3 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects Oilseed Order No. 3 issued by Commodity Credit Corporation on October 14, 1942 (7 F.R. 8375), except that, as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof, said Oilseed Order No. 3 shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right or liability. Chapter VIII—Procurement and Disposal of Equipment and Supplies

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Sections 81.308a, 81.308b, 81.379, 81.380 and 81.381 are hereby amended as follows:

AUTHORITY: Sec. 5a, National Defense Act, as amended 41 Stat. 764, 54 Stat. 1225; 10 U.S.C. 1193-1195, and the First War Powers Act, 1941, 55 Stat. 838; 50 U.S.C. Sup. 601-622.

SOURCE: The regulations in §§ 81.308a, 81.308b, 81.379, 81.380 and 81.381 are also contained in Services of Supply Memorandum No. S5-24-43, February 2, 1943.

§ 81.308a Supplemental agreements and change orders not involving receipt of consideration. Except as otherwise specifically provided in these regulations, approval by the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, will be required for each supplemental agreement or change order which does not involve the receipt by the Government of adequate legal consideration, or which modifies or releases an accrued obligation owing directly or indirectly to the Government including accrued liquidated damages or liability under any surety or other bonds. In every such case the supply service shall submit a full statement of the case and of the action recommended together with a finding by the supply service, adequately supported, that the prosecution of the war would be facilitated by the action recommended. The Director, Purchases Division, will signify his approval by manual execution of the supplemental agreement or change order, where such instrument is submitted, or where such instrument is not submitted, by memorandum, indorsement, letter, or telegram in response to the request for approval.

§ 81.308 Correction of mistakes. (a) Effecting amendment of contracts with the least possible delay to correct misunderstandings, mistakes, errors, and ambiguities will facilitate the prosecution of the war by expediting the procurement program and by giving contractors proper assurance that mistakes unavoidable in a war program as large and extensive as that now in progress, will be corrected expeditiously and fairly. Accordingly, mistakes may be corrected by supplemental agreement pursuant to Title II of the First War Powers Act, 1941, and Executive Order No. 9001 as follows:

(1) Each chief of a supply service may enter into supplemental agreements correcting mistakes found by the chief of the supply service to be of the following types: (i) misunderstandings, mistakes, errors of the parties to a written agreement, or ambiguities therein, which consist solely of a failure to express in the written agreement the true agreement between them in accordance with the negotiations between them; (ii) mistakes and errors of a contractor, even if unilateral, which consist solely of the failure of the contractor, in good faith, to set forth in a bid or in a written agreement what he intended to include therein; Provided, Both as to such mutual mistakes and such unilateral mistakes, that the effect of any change by such supplemental agreement to correct any such mistakes does not make an adjustment of $50,000 or more; And provided further, That such change will not result in the payment to the contractor of a sum in excess of any bid made by another contractor where such contract was placed as a result of a formal or informal invitation to bid.

(2) Supplemental agreements correcting mistakes of any other type, or where the correction of the mistake involves an adjustment amounting to $50,000 or more, will be submitted for the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(3) Approval of the Director, Purchases Division, will not be required in the case of any supplemental agreement correcting a mistake, under which the Government receives adequate new legal consideration, regardless of whether the supplemental agreement involves an adjustment amounting to $50,000 or more.

(b) Supplemental agreements to correct misunderstandings, mistakes, errors, and ambiguities in contracts submitted for the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, in accordance with the provisions of § 81.308a and of this section will be accompanied by a full statement of the circumstances including all relevant papers or copies thereof. The evidence submitted shall show that an error or mistake was made or that a misunderstanding or ambiguity exists, in what it consists and how it occurred, and where relevant, the true intent of the parties. When this paragraph does not require that supplemental agreements be submitted for the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, the chief of the supply service approving or executing such agreement will see that a similar statement is prepared with respect to each such supplemental agreement and that such statement and all relevant papers and evidence are carefully preserved.

§ 81.379 Steps to be taken in event of default. (a) The rigid enforcement of contract provisions imposing liquidated damages on contractors for failure to perform within specified periods, or authorizing termination of contracts for default, has been found in many instances to impede the prosecution of the war. The delegation as hereinafter provided to chiefs of supply services of discretion to take such action as may seem to them fair and equitable under all the circumstances will expedite the procurement of necessary war materiel and facilitate the prosecution of the war. For the foregoing reasons, authority is conferred upon the chief of each supply service to authorize contracting officers under his command, subject to such limitations as the chief of the supply service may establish, to take any of the following courses in the event of default of the contractor:

(1) Permit the contractor to proceed and to charge the contractor with the actual damages resulting from the default. If the contract provides for liquidated damages, such damages and not actual damages must be charged.

(2) Enter into a supplemental agreement with the contractor's surety providing for the completion of performance of the contract and for payment therefor. Such supplemental agreement should clearly state that all rights against the contractor are reserved so far as the surety does not undertake to cure the effect of the defaults by the contractor.

(3) Terminate the contract when the contractor has not given a performance bond or when the surety under such a bond has pursuant to any requirement thereof, been given an opportunity (if such requirement is contained in the bond) to complete the contract but does not elect to do so. Such termination may be:

(i) Under any provision of the contract permitting termination in the event of default, in which case the provisions of § 81.380 shall be applicable.

(ii) Under any contract article providing for termination for the convenience of the Government, if the contracting officer shall find that the use of that termination article will facilitate the prosecution of the war and be equitable under all the circumstances unless the contracting officer shall determine that the defaults of the contractor (a) have been gross or wilful, or (b) have caused substantial injury to the Government.

(b) Extend by supplemental agreement the time fixed in the contract for performance in the manner provided in § 81.381 if the default consists of failure to perform within the time specified by the contract. In general, it is not the policy of the Government to terminate contracts for default under the stringent provisions of a delays-damages article, in a manner to bring about a forfeiture or a severe loss on the part of the contractor, merely because, at a time when the Government desires to terminate its contract for reasons not based upon the defaults of the contractor, the contractor happens to be in technical default under the contract.

§ 81.380 Steps to be taken in event of termination because of default. (a) If termination is effected pursuant to a contract provision substantially similar to that set forth in § 81.352 or Article 9 of the contract form contained in § 81.1302 of this title, the chief of a supply service may, but is not required, to pursue the remedies provided for in such contract provision or available by law. In lieu of making use of such remedies he may, if he finds that to do so will facilitate the prosecution of the war, make a supplemental agreement with the contractor and relieve the contractor of liability which would result from the enforcement of such remedies. Such an agreement may be entered into only with the prior approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply (obtained in the manner provided in § 81.308a), except where the chief of a supply service shall find any one of the following facts:

(1) That the Government no longer has need for the supplies, services, or construction called for by the contract.

(2) That the default of the contractor is excusable.

(3) That the supplies or services, undelivered because of the contractor's default, can be obtained from some source other than the contractor on a basis as favorable as that set forth in the contract or that the construction provided for in the contract can be accomplished on terms substantially as favorable to the Government as though performed under the original contract. In such event, even if for reasons of policy the supply service may wish to buy supplies of the type covered by the contract on terms more expensive or less favorable to the Government than those set forth in the contract, the contractor should not be charged with such excess expense. (For example, the supply service may desire to buy from particular producers or in particular geographical areas in order to distribute war work more widely, despite any extra expense involved. The excess expense in such a case is not equitably to be charged to the contractor.)

(4) That any excess cost charged to the contractor would be nominal.

§ 81.381 Delays. The chief of each supply service may authorize contracting officers designated by him, at any time before final settlement of a contract (and notwithstanding any provision of the contract requiring that notice be given of the cause of delay in performance), to extend by supplemental agreement the time fixed in the contract for performance and to waive accrued liquidated damages. Each such supplemental agreement shall be entered into pursuant to the First War Powers Act and Executive Order No. 9001. If the contractor shall be in default by reason of delay at the date thereof, a report shall be made to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, describing the circumstances and the action taken. When, in the opinion of the contracting officer, default of the contract or will result in substantial pecuniary injury to the Government, the authority granted in this section will not be exercised except with the prior approval of the Director, Purchases Division, obtained in the manner provided in § 81.308a. For the purposes of this section the contractor shall not in any case be considered in default by reason of delay if such delay is excusable within the meaning of the contract.

L. FELDMAN AND CO.

L. Feldman and Company, Chicago, Illinois, a partnership composed of Perry Feldman and Louis Feldman, is a wholesaler of automotive supplies and is a warehouse as defined in General Preference Order M-9-a. From February 6 to July 15, 1942, the Company sold copper wire and copper tubing on orders which either did not bear any preference ratings or did not bear the preference ratings required by General Preference Order M-9-a. During this period the Company was aware of the restrictions imposed by General Preference Order M-9-a and its sales constituted wilful violations of that order which have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered, That:

Feldman and Company or otherwise, their successors and assigns, shall not accept delivery of, sell, transfer, deliver, or otherwise deal in any copper or copper base alloy, wire or tubing, except with the written approval of the Regional Compliance Chief, Chicago Regional Office, War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Perry Feldman and Louis Feldman, individually or doing business as L. Feldman and Company or otherwise from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on February 20, 1943, and shall expire on May 20, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 16th day of February 1943.

[Supplementary Order M-15-g, as Amended Feb. 17, 1943]

RUBBER TIRES FOR INDUSTRIAL POWER TRUCKS

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of rubber for defense, for private account and for export, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 940.9 Supplementary Order M-15-g—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Rubber" means any kind of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or synthetic rubber.

(3) "Rubber tire" means any solid or pneumatic tire or tire tube made in whole or in part of any kind of rubber and used or designed for use on any industrial power truck.

(4) "Industrial power truck" means any self-power-propelled industrial truck or wheel tractor designed primarily for handling material (either by carrying or towing) on floors or paved surfaces in and around industrial plants, warehouses, docks, shipyards, airports or depots. The term shall not include automotive tractors, trucks, or wheel-type industrial tractors designed for use on tax-built highways, or in such operations as construction, earth-moving, mining, logging, industrial yard work, or petroleum development.

(b) Restrictions on delivery or acquisition. Except as permitted by paragraph (c) hereof, no person shall sell, lease, rent, deliver or otherwise transfer, or purchase, accept or otherwise acquire, any new rubber tire used or designed for use on any industrial power truck except under a purchase order rated A-1-a or better on a Preference Rating Certificate PD-1A, or under a purchase order rated A-1-a or better on a Preference Rating Certificate PD-408, provided that no Preference Rating Certificate PD-408 shall be used to acquire any such tire unless such certificate is an individual or interim certificate which covers only the tire or tires which are needed for one or more industrial power trucks referred to in such certificate. Each application filed pursuant hereto for a preference rating for any such tires on Form PD-1A or Form PD-408 shall contain or be accompanied by a statement certifying that each tire covered by such application is needed for replacement purposes within fifteen days from the delivery date specified in such application. No such tire which is permanently mounted on or affixed to a base band made of iron, steel or any other metal shall be delivered for replacement purposes pursuant to this paragraph (b) unless (1) there is delivered to the person supplying such replacement tire a metal base band of comparable size, or (2) said tire is mounted on or affixed to a base band which was furnished by the person acquiring said tire.

(c) Exceptions. The prohibitions of paragraph (b) hereof shall not apply to the sale, lease, renting, delivery or transfer or purchase, acceptance or acquisition of any new rubber tire used or designed for use on any industrial power truck:

(1) War orders. When such tire is purchased or acquired to fill any war order, as defined in Supplementary Order M-15-b (§ 940.3), as amended from time to time.

(3) Tire distributors and vehicle manufacturers. When any such tires are acquired for resale to others by either (i) any person (other than a manufacturer of tires for industrial power trucks) who, during the calendar year 1941, was regularly engaged in the business of furnishing new rubber tires for industrial power trucks for replacement purposes and who, while engaged in such business, maintained during the greater part of the calendar year 1941, an inventory of not less than twenty tires for such purpose, or (ii) any person who is a manufacturer of industrial power trucks and who also engages in the business of furnishing to others new rubber tires for industrial power trucks for replacement purposes: Provided, That no person shall purchase, receive or otherwise acquire for resale to others as replacement tires any such new rubber tires in quantities which will result in such person having an inventory of rubber tires held for such purpose in excess of his anticipated orders for the ensuing thirty days: And provided further, That no such person shall dispose of any such tires from his inventories except in accordance with paragraphs (b), (c) (1) or (c) (2) hereof.

(d) Restriction on destruction of metal base bands. No person shall knowingly destroy or damage any metal base band designed for an industrial power truck tire if such base band is still usable for mounting or affixing any such tire.

(e) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall prepare and file such reports and questionnaires as may from time to time be requested by the Director General for Operations or the Rubber Director.

[Supplementary Limitation Order L-71-a as Amended Feb. 17, 1943]

HEARING AID BATTERIES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of hearing aid batteries, and critical materials used in the production of such batteries for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1142.2 Supplementary General Limitation Order L-71-a—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Hearing aid battery" means any dry cell battery designed and produced primarily for use in any hearing aid device for personal use.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing or assembling hearing aid batteries.

(3) "Circular C435" means Circular C435 of the National Bureau of Standards, issued February 18, 1942, entitled "American Standard Specification for Dry Cells and Batteries".

(b) General restrictions. On and after April 1, 1943, no manufacturer shall produce any hearing aid batteries which do not conform to the following limitations:

(1) Each hearing aid battery for carbon type hearing aid device shall contain either two or three cells none of which shall be smaller than the cell designated "CD" in Table 1 of Circular C435, with the modifications permitted in Section 2.2 of that Circular, except that four or six cells designated as "C" in such Table may be used in a battery containing a dual circuit.

(2) No "A" or "B" hearing aid battery shall contain as an integral part of such battery a wire connector designed to be attached to its complementary "B" or "A" battery, respectively.

(3) Each "A" hearing aid battery shall contain as terminals either:

(i) Plug-in sockets having the terminal arrangement shown in IV in Figure 1 in Circular C435; or

(ii) Flashlight cell type terminals as described in Section 11.4 of Circular C435.

(4) Except as provided in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph (b), each "B" hearing aid battery

(i) Shall conform to one of the following three limitations:

(a) 22½ volts, 15 cells;

(b) 33 volts, 22 cells; or

(c) 45 volts, 30 cells.

(ii) Shall contain as terminals plug-in sockets having the terminal arrangement shown in III in Figure 1 in Circular C435, except that up to and including May 31, 1943, a manufacturer may produce 30 volt "B" batteries containing terminals having the arrangement shown in XI in Figure 2 of Circular C435.

(5) Each "A" or "B" hearing aid battery which contains a label bearing the name or trade mark of any manufacturer of hearing aid devices shall also indicate on such label the voltage of the battery and contain the following language: "This battery is produced in accordance with War Production Board orders and is designed to be suitable for use with any make of hearing aid device which requires for its operation a battery of this voltage and which is equipped with suitable connectors."

(c) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order heretofore or hereafter issued by the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, including Limitation Order L-71, limits the use of any material in the production of hearing aid batteries to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions in such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(d) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. (f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(g) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(h) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time require.

(1) The seller's maximum price shall be the highest net price charged by him for the same commodity on a delivery made during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class.

(2) If no such delivery was made by the seller during March, 1942, the seller's maximum price shall be his highest net offering price for the same commodity in March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class.

(3) Whenever any seller is unable to determine his maximum price under paragraphs (a) (1) and (a) (2) of this section for any commodity covered by this regulation (each form, quality or state of each mineral being considered a distinct commodity), his maximum price shall be determined as follows:

In the absence of notice to the contrary from the Office of Price Administration within thirty days after a seller files such a selling price with the Office of Price Administration, the price filed shall stand approved and shall be the maximum price applicable.

When filing such a price with the Office of Price Administration, the seller shall set forth, in addition to the net price, his list price, and all discounts, allowances, and differentials for all classes of buyers, a description and identification of the commodity, a statement of facts differentiating such commodity from the other commodities sold by the seller, a statement showing how the proposed price was determined, and a description of the use or uses for which the commodity is to be produced.

(c) Definitions. (1) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 327, the term:

(i) "Net price" means the price actually charged by the seller; i. e., the list or quoted price less all discounts, allowances, and differentials.

(ii) "Offering price" means the price quoted in the seller's price list, or, if he had no such price list, the price which he regularly quoted in any other manner. But "offering price" shall not include a price intended to withhold a commodity or service from the market, or a price offered as a bargaining price by a seller who usually sells at a price lower than his asking price. "Net offering price" means offering price less all discounts, allowances, and differentials.

(iii) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(iv) "Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller of setting different prices for commodities or services for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers (for example, manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, government agency, public institution, individual consumer) or for purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or under different conditions of sale. Customary differentials in discounts on price list goods shall be among the criteria which establish differences among classes of purchasers.

(v) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale," "selling," "sold," "seller," "buy," "purchase" and "purchaser," shall be construed accordingly.

(2) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1438.3 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1438.2 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1438.4 Packaging and transportation charges and practices. A seller may not change the packaging and transportation charges and practices which he had in effect during March, 1942, if such change would result in higher prices to his customers.

§ 1438.5 Import sales. The maximum prices established by Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 12[2] to the General Maximum Price Regulation[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, apply to all commodities listed in § 1438.1 imported into the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1438.6 Export sales. Export sales of the commodities listed in § 1438.1 shall be subject to the provisions of Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1438.7 Idle or frozen materials. The maximum price at which any person may sell or deliver any idle or frozen commodities listed in § 1438.1 shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 204[5] on Idle or Frozen Materials Sold Under Priorities Regulation No. 13.

§ 1438.8 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In an appropriate situation, where a petition for amendment requires extended consideration, the Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1438.9 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 327 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to the commodities listed in § 1438.1, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1438.10 Records and reports. (a) Every person making sales or deliveries of the commodities listed in § 1438.1, and every person making purchases or accepting delivery of the commodities listed in § 1438.1 in the course of trade or business, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long a period as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect complete and accurate records of each such sale, purchase, or delivery showing the date thereof, the name of the purchaser or seller, the quantity and kind of commodity sold, purchased, or delivered, and the price received or paid therefor, and each such seller shall keep a record of all discounts, differentials, and allowances which the seller had in effect during March, 1942, with a proper identification of each such discount, differential and allowance.

(b) On or before March 10, 1943, every producer shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a copy of his current price lists and discount schedules, or other statements setting forth his current selling prices for all classes of buyers, indicating in each instance his maximum price and the manner in which it was determined, unless such producer has already filed such information with that Office. The reports required under this paragraph (b) refer only to domestic transactions. Reports with respect to export prices are governed by the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Such person shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration, and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1438.11 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 327 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 327, or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1438.12 Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Applications for adjustment. The following adjustment provisions (subparagraph (1) and (2)) permit the granting of relief to producers who are unable to maintain or expand their production under their existing maximum prices whenever under (1), there is a general shortage in the essential supply of the commodity, or, under (2), the loss of the seller's production would result in higher prices to consumers. The extent of relief to be granted under each provision is set forth therein.

(1) Whenever it appears that a shortage exists or threatens to exist in the essential supply of a commodity listed in § 1438.1 and that a producer of such commodity is unable to maintain or expand his production at his maximum price or prices, the Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 or on its own motion, adjust his maximum price or prices by an amount necessary to permit the maintenance or expansion of such production upon a reasonable operating margin. In determining such margin, consideration will be given to such factors as:

(i) Revenue from sales of such commodity and from all other sources, and

(ii) Production, mining, development, milling, processing, and transportation costs, administrative and sales expenses, depreciation and depletion charges, taxes (excluding Federal and State income taxes), and capital investment.

(2) Whenever it appears that the loss of a seller's production of any commodity listed in § 1438.1 would force his customers to resort to higher priced sources of supply and that the seller is unable to maintain his production at his maximum price or prices, the Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 or on its own motion, adjust his maximum price or prices by an amount adequate to cover his operating costs: Provided, however, That in no instance will the seller's maximum price be increased to a price in excess of the general level of prices prevailing for alternative sources of the supply of the commodity. The term "operating costs" shall include the cost of labor, maintenance, supplies, power, taxes other than State and Federal income taxes, insurance, workmen's compensation, royalties, and other direct expenses, depreciation and depletion (wherever practicable as determined by the Bureau of Internal Revenue in the computation of the Federal income tax), and reasonable costs of selling and administration.

(3) Before filing an application for adjustment under the provisions of subparagraph (1) and (2), it is suggested that each applicant obtain from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a statement of the specific information that will be necessary in order that his application may receive prompt action.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking amendment of any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 327 may file a petition for an amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1438.13 Applicability of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 327. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 327 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation and the provisions of all other maximum price regulations with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 327.

§ 1438.14 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 327 (§§ 1438.1 to 1438.14, inclusive) shall become effective February 22, 1943 for the District of Columbia and the forty-eight states of the United States, and shall become effective April 12, 1943 for the territories and possessions of the United States.

Issued this 16th day of February 1943.

(d) The District Coast Guard Officer shall designate examining officers who shall conduct preliminary investigations of complaints made, in any case not involving a marine casualty or accident, against a licensed officer or holder of a certificate of service or efficiency charging him with any act of incompetency or misconduct while acting under the authority of his license or certificate, or with any act in violation of the provisions of sections 170, 214, 215, 222, 224, 224a, 226, 228–234, 239, 240, 361, 362, 364, 371–373, 375–382, 384, 385, 391, 391a, 392, 393, 399, 400, 402–416, 435–440, 451–453, 460–463, 464, 467, 470–481, 482 or 489–498 of Title 46 of the United States Code or of any regulations issued thereunder for the purpose of determining whether reasonable basis exists for the institution of proceedings for the revocation or suspension of the license or certificate. In the conduct of preliminary investigations hereunder, such officers shall have the power to administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, require persons having knowledge of the subject matter of the investigation to answer questionnaires, and require the production of relevant books, papers, documents, and other records.

(e) In every preliminary investigation of a complaint as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, the examining officer conducting such investigation shall, where the licensed officer or holder of a certificate of service or efficiency whose conduct is being investigated is available, advise such person informally of the substance of the complaint against him and afford him an opportunity at that time to make such comment in refutation of such complaint as he may desire.

Section 136.106 is amended to read as follows:

§ 136.106 Suspension or revocation proceedings. (a) Suspension or revocation proceedings shall be instituted by an examining officer in any case in which it appears, as a result of any preliminary investigation made under paragraphs (a) or (d) of § 136.104, or otherwise, that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a licensed officer or holder of a certificate of service is incompetent or has been guilty of misbehavior, negligence, or unskillfulness or has endangered life or has wilfully violated any of the provisions of sections 170, 214, 215, 222, 224, 224a, 226, 228–234, 239, 240, 361, 362, 364, 371–373, 375–382, 384, 385, 391, 391a, 392, 393, 399, 400, 402–416, 435–440, 451–452, 460–463, 464, 467, 470–481, 482, or 489–498 of Title 46 of the United States Code or any of the regulations issued thereunder.

(b) To institute such proceedings the examining officer shall prepare charges and specifications against such person, fix the time and place of hearing, summon the person charged and subpoena witnesses, and transmit the case for hearing by a hearing officer.

(c) The District Coast Guard Officer shall designate hearing officers who will conduct the hearings provided for in this section. No case shall be heard by any officer or employee who participated in the preliminary investigation thereof.

(d) A notice of the time and place of hearing and a copy of the charges and specifications shall be served upon the person charged either by personal service or by registered mail with return receipt required, sufficiently in advance of the time set to give the such person a reasonable opportunity to prepare his defense. When personal service is made upon the person charged, the officer or employee making service shall exhibit the original of the notice to the person charged, read it to such person if he cannot read, and give him a copy thereof and of the charges and specifications.

(e) The hearing officer shall open the hearing at the time and place specified in the notice, administer all necessary oaths, cause a complete record of the proceedings to be kept, regulate and conduct the hearing in such a manner as to bring out all the relevant and material facts, and insure the accused a fair and impartial hearing on the charges made against him. The examining officer shall aid in the orderly presentation of evidence and may examine and cross-examine witnesses and introduce documentary evidence into the record. The person charged shall have the right to have counsel present at the hearing and shall be permitted to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses and to introduce relevant documentary evidence into the record. Any witness may, if he so desires, have personal counsel present during the time he is being examined to advise him as to his rights, privileges, and immunities under the Constitution, but such counsel may not otherwise participate in the hearing.

(f) The hearing officer shall have power either on his own motion or upon the request of the person charged to issue subpoenas summoning witnesses or requiring the production of any relevant books, papers, documents, or other evidence.

(g) In any case in which the person charged, after having been duly served with notice of a hearing fails to appear, a notation to that effect shall be made in the record and the hearing shall proceed.

(h) At the conclusion of the hearing the hearing officer shall make an appropriate decision, based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing as to the guilt or innocence of the person charged. In the event the person charged is found guilty, the hearing officer shall issue and serve upon the accused an appropriate order suspending or revoking his license or certificate. Such order shall be effective immediately, and the license or certificate of service or efficiency so revoked or suspended shall be immediately surrendered. In the absence of appeal as provided in § 136.107, the findings and decision of the hearing officer shall be final and shall be binding on the person charged for all purposes.

Section 136.107 is amended to read as follows:

§ 136.107 Appeal. (a) Any person whose license or certificate of service or efficiency is revoked or suspended may, within 30 days after the decision of the hearing officer, take an appeal to the District Coast Guard Officer of the district in which the hearing was held. Every appeal shall be typewritten or written in a legible hand and shall set forth as briefly as possible the name of the appellant, the nature of the charge, the name of the hearing officer who made the decision, the substance of the decision, and a statement of each separate ground for such appeal.

(b) The District Coast Guard Officer on appeal may affirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the hearing officer or remand the case for further hearing. The District Coast Guard Officer will not consider evidence which is not a part of the record of the hearing and will not consider any ground of appeal which is not specified by the accused. The decision of the District Coast Guard Officer on appeal will be in writing and will contain his findings and conclusions. The decision of the District Coast Guard Officer on appeal shall be final and shall be binding on the parties for all purposes.

(c) A transcript of the record before the hearing officer shall be made available to any person whose license or certificate is revoked or suspended for the purpose of making an appeal pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(d) Any person whose license or certificate is revoked or suspended and who intends to appeal from the decision of revocation or suspension may file with the hearing officer a request for a temporary license or certificate valid during the pendency of the appeal. Such temporary license or certificate may be issued in the discretion of the hearing officer or of the District Coast Guard Officer. Each such temporary license or certificate shall contain such terms and conditions as the issuing officer may prescribe and shall contain a definite expiration date fixed by the issuing officer, which date, however, may be extended from time to time by the issuing officer.

Section 136.109 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 136.109 Disclosure of records. (a) No reports of investigations or records of proceedings or any information relating thereto shall be open to public inspection or otherwise disclosed, except as may be authorized by the Commandant.

[Suspension Order 210]

BASSETT'S AUTO CO.

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Bert O. Bassett, doing business as Bassett's Auto Company, Minocqua, Wisconsin, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with notice of charges of violations of revised tire rationing regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Rhinelander, Wisconsin, on November 24, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Chairman of the Industry Council, It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent has violated revised tire rationing regulations (§§ 1315.801 and 1315.802) in that, on or about May 15, 1942, respondent, a tire dealer, transferred mounted and used 4 new automobile tires, taken from his stock, on motor vehicles owned or operated by him, without obtaining a certificate from a war price and rationing board authorizing such transfer. Such transfer was not within any of the classes of transfers permitted by revised tire rationing regulations to be made without the exchange of a certificate.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of rubber in the United States respondent's violation of revised tire rationing regulations has resulted in the diversion of rubber from military and essential civilian uses to non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Chairman of the Industry Council that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(b) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 210 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer or deliver any new or used tires or tubes or any recapped or retreaded tires to any person; Provided, however, That subject to the prior approval of and supervision by the Regional Administrator of Region VI, Office of Price Administration, respondent may dispose of his stocks of tires and tubes on hand at the time this order is served upon him.

(2) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly accept for resale any deliveries or transfers of new or used tires or tubes or recapped or retreaded tires.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly deliver or transfer any new or used tires or tubes or recapped or retreaded tires to respondent for resale.

(c) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 210 that are defined in revised tire rationing regulations shall have the meaning therein given them.

(d) This Suspension Order No. 210 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. February 26, 1943 and shall remain in effect until 12:01 A. M. December 31, 1944.

H. S. Heisler, doing business as Eagle Oil Company, 252 Pearl Street, Baltimore, Maryland, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Baltimore, Maryland, on December 7, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Chairman of the Industrial Council, It is hereby determined:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station located at 252 Pearl Street, Baltimore, Maryland.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, (§ 1394.1502), in that on various occasions between July 22 and November 17, 1942 respondent transferred gasoline to consumers without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers of gasoline permitted by the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A gasoline rationing regulations, to be made without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503), in that between July 22, and November 17, 1942 respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and accepted in exchange therefor thirty-seven Class A, No. 3 gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Maryland, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Chairman of Industrial Council that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(d) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 212 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale at his station at 252 North Pearl Street, Baltimore, Maryland.

LOU'S ESSO STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Louis Yaccarino, doing business as Lou's Esso Station, Prospect and Summerfield Avenues, Asbury Park, New Jersey, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing upon the charges was held in Asbury Park, New Jersey, on October 19, 1942. Respondent did not appear at this hearing but subsequently requested a rehearing. Pursuant to this request a further hearing upon the charges was held in Asbury Park, New Jersey, on November 6, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Chairman of the Industry Council, It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station at Prospect and Summerfield Avenues, Asbury Park, New Jersey.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, (§ 1394.1101) in that on or about September 10, 1942, respondent, instead of using Non-Highway rations to clean automobile parts and tools, the purpose for which the rations were issued, used them to replenish his inventory.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, (§ 1394.1503) in that between July 22, 1942 and July 31, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons and without recording the names and addresses of the transferees and the number of gallons of gasoline so transferred. Such transfers were not within any of the classes of transfers permitted by Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, to be made without the exchange of coupons. Although some of these consumers failed to surrender gasoline ration coupons to respondent on or before August 4, 1942, respondent failed to report to the State office of the Office of Price Administration nearest to him the names and addresses of such consumers.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in New Jersey, violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent necessarily have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential uses to non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Chairman of the Industry Council that further violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(d) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 213 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer or deliver gasoline to any person.

(2) Respondent shall not in any manner directly or indirectly accept any deliveries or transfers of gasoline for resale.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(e) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 213 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(f) This Suspension Order No. 213 shall become effective at 12:01 A. M. February 26, 1943 and shall remain in effect until April 27, 1943.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Laws 89, and 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); WPB Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216); Supplementary Directive 1Q (7 F.R. 9121))

Issued this 16th day of February 1943.

Chairman, Industry Council.

Pursuant to the notice a hearing on the charges was held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on October 20, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Chairman of the Industry Council, It is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent owns and operates an establishment which is a wholesaler of sugar.

(b) Respondent has violated Rationing Order No. 3, sugar rationing regulations, (§ 1407.102) in that on May 7, 1942, respondent accepted delivery of 40,000 pounds of sugar without surrendering any certificates or stamps in exchange therefor until July 29, 1942. Respondent had not included this sugar in his present inventory at the time of registration.

(c) Respondent has violated Rationing Order No. 3, sugar rationing regulations, (§ 1407.102) in that on or about May 7, 1942, respondent transferred to the Johnstown Sanitary Dairy Company of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, 20,000 pounds of sugar without receiving any certificates or stamps in exchange therefor.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of sugar in the United States respondent's violations of Rationing Order No. 3, sugar rationing regulations, has resulted in the diversion of sugar from military and essential uses to non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Chairman of the Industry Council that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(d) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 214 shall be in effect.

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any sugar for resale.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503), in that between July 22, and November 17, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and accepted in exchange for such transfers 40 Class A, No. 3 coupons; 9 Class A, No. 4 coupons; 1 Class A, No. 5 and 6 Class A, No. 6 coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Pennsylvania, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Chairman of the Industry Council that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.

It is therefore ordered:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station known as Charley's Tire Station at Main Street, Bloomingdale, New Jersey.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, gasoline rationing regulations, (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503) in that between July 22, 1942, and November 18, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles in exchange for 184 Class A. No. 3 and 7 Class A. No. 4 gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in New Jersey, violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent necessarily have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential uses to non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Chairman of the Industry Council that further violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken.
